2 And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

3 And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, i and become as little children, k ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

4 Whosoever therefore shall humble himself l as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

5 And whoso shall receive one such little m child in my name, receiveth me.

6 But whoso shall offend o one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 Wo unto the world because of offences! for p it must needs be that offences come; but q woe to that man by whom the offence cometh!

8 Wherefore, r if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than, having two hands or two feet, to be cast into everlasting fire.

9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter v into life with one eye, rather than, having two eyes, u to be cast into hell-fire.

10 Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels w do always behold x the face of my Father which is in heaven.

11 For the Son of man is come to save y that which was lost.

12 How think ye? If z a man have a hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, He rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

14 Even so, it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven that one c of these little ones should perish.

15 Moreover, if e thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if f he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother.

16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three g witnesses every word may be established.

17 And if he shall neglect to hear them tell i unto the church : but if he neglect to hear the church, let b him be unto thee as an heathen man and a publican.

18 Verily I say unto you, c Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth, shall be bound in heaven ; and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven.

19 Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it f shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

20 For where two or three are gathered together g in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

21 Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive i him ? till seven times ?

22 Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times ; but, Until seventy times seven.

23 Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account l of his servants.

24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him which owed him ten thousand 1 talents :

25 But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be m sold, and his wife and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 The servant therefore fell down, and worshipped n him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, o and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

28 But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants which owed him an hundred p q pence ; and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29 And his fellow-servant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, r Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

30 And he would not ; but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31 So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done.

32 Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, v I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me :

33 Shouldst not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow-servant, even as I had pity on thee ?

34 And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him.

35 So x likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

CHAP. XIX.

AND it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these sayings, he a departed from Galilee, and came into the coasts of Judæa beyond Jordan :

2 And great multitudes followed him ; and he healed them there.

3 The Pharisees also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause ?

4 And he answered and said unto them. Have ye not read, that b he which made them at the beginning, made them male and female ?

5 And said, For a this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife ; and they twain shall be one flesh.

6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What d therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

7 They say unto him, Why e did Moses then command to give a writing of divorce, and to put her away ?

8 He saith unto them, Moses, because of the hardness of your hearts, suffered you to put away your wives : but from the beginning it was not so.

9 And I say unto you, Whosoever h shall put away his wife, except i he for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery : and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery.

10 His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry. k

11 But he said unto them, All men cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given.

12 For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb ; and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men : and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's l sake.

He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

13 Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray : and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Jesus said, Suffer p little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me ; for of such q is the kingdom of heaven.

15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

16 And behold, one came, and said unto him, Good Master, what s good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life ?

17 And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good ? there is none good but one, that is, God : But if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.

18 He saith unto him, Which ? Jesus said, Thou shalt t do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness ;

19 Honour thy father & thy mother ; and, Thou u shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

20 The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept from my youth up : what lack I yet ?

21 Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go w and sell that thou hast, & give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven ; and come and follow y me.

22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful : for he had great possessions.

23 Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That z a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.

24 And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

25 When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, What then can be saved ?

26 But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible, but c with God all things are possible.

27 Then d answered Peter, and said unto him, Behold, we have forsaken all e and followed thee: what shall we have therefore?

28 And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, that ye which have followed me, in the regeneration, when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

29 And b every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundred-fold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

30 But d many that are first shall be last; and the last shall be first.

CHAP. XX.

FOR the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.

2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny g a-day, he sent them into his vineyard.

3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the market-place,

4 And said unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right, I will give you. And they went their way.

5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.

6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and said unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?

7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, O go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

8 So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and g give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.

9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.

10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny.

11 And when they had received it, they murmured s against the good man of the house, 12 Saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day.

13 But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, v I do thee no wrong: didst thou agree with me for a penny?

14 Take that thine is, and go thy way: u I will give unto this last, even as unto thee.

15 Is it not lawful for me to do what will with mine own? Is z thine eye ill because I am good?

16 So y the last shall be first, and the first last: for z many are called, but few chosen.

17 And a Jesus going up to Jerusalem, asked the twelve disciples apart in the evening, and said unto them,

18 Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death,

19 And shall deliver him to the Gentiles, to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify him: and the third day he shall rise again.

20 Then f came to him the mother of Zebedee's children, with her sons, worshipping him, & desiring a certain thing of him.

21 And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdom.

22 But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the c baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him, We are able.

23 And he saith unto them, Ye e shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with; but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father.

24 And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brethren.

25 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye h know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them.

26 But it shall not be i so among you: but k whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister;

27 And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant:

28 Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but l to minister, and n to give his life a ransom for many.

29 And as they departed from Jericho, a great multitude followed him.

30 And, p behold, two blind men, sitting by the way-side, when they heard that Jesus passed by, cried out, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou son of David!

31 And the multitude rebuked them, because they should hold their peace: but they cried the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou son of David!

32 And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, What wilt ye that I shall do unto you?

33 They say unto him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened.

34 So Jesus had compassion on them, and touched their eyes: and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

CHAP. XXI.

AND t when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to Bethphage, unto the Mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two disciples,

2 Saying unto them, Go into the village over-against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me.

3 And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them.

4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, b saying,

5 Tell ye the daughter of Sion, c Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, & a colt the foal of an ass.

6 And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them,

7 And brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and they set him thereon.

8 And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way; others cut down branches from the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the son of David! Blessed a is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest! b

10 And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this?

11 And the multitude said, This is Jesus, the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee.

12 And c Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves;

13 And said unto them, It is h written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of i thieves.

14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and l he healed them.

15 And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna n to the son of David! they were sore displeased,

16 And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea: have ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

17 And he left them, and went out of the city into Bethany; and he lodged there.

18 Now in the morning, as he returned into the city, he hungered.

19 And r when he saw s a fig-tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward forever. And presently the fig-tree withered t away.

20 And when the disciples saw u it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig-tree withered away!

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If v ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig-tree, but also, if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea, it shall be done.

22 And all things whatsoever ye shall ask a in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

23 And b when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, By e what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority?

24 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in like wise will tell you by what authority I do these things.

25 The baptism of John, whence was it? of heaven, or of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why did ye not then believe him?

26 But if we shall say, Of men; we fear the people; for h all hold John as a prophet.

27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

28 But what think ye? A certain l man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to-day in my vineyard.

29 He answered and said, I will not; but afterward z he repented, and went.

30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said I go, sir, and went not.

31 Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, that the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.

32 For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not; but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.

33 Hear another parable: There was a certain householder, which g planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a wine-press in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country:

34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants k to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it.

35 And m the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

36 Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they did unto them likewise.

37 But, last of all he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son.

38 But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir: p come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance.

39 And the vineyard q caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him.

40 When the Lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen?

41 They say unto him, He will miserably destroy s those wicked men, and let out his vineyard unto other v husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

42 Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The u stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

43 Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom y of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation z bringing forth the fruits thereof.

44 And whosoever shall fall c on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it d will grind him to powder.

45 And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them.

46 But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they f took him for a prophet.

CHAP. XXII.

AND Jesus answered and spake unto them again in parables, and said,

2 The g kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a h marriage for his son.

3 And i sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding and they would not come.

4 Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

5 But they made light m of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, and another to his merchandise:

6 And the remnant took his servants and entreated a them spitefully, and slew them.

7 But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed c those murderers, and burnt up their city.

8 Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy.

9 Go ye therefore into the highways; & as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.

10 So those servants went out into the high ways, and gathered together all, g as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was finished with guests.

11 And when the king came in to h see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment:

12 And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither, not having a wedding garment?

13 Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness: p there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

14 For q many are called, but few are chosen.

15 Then s went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk.

16 And they sent out unto him their disciples, with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man; for thou regardest not the person of men.

17 Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Caesar, or not?

18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?

19 Show me the tribute-money. And they brought unto him a penny.

20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and ² superscription?

21 They say unto him, Caesar's. Then saith he unto them, Render y therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's, and unto God a the things that are God's.

22 When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him, & went their way.

23 The d same day came to him the Sadducees, which e say that there is no resurrection, and asked him,

24 Saying, Master, Moses said, If f a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

25 Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and, having no issue, left his wife unto his brother:

26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the ³ seventh.

27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not i knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.

30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels m of God in heaven.

31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, 32 I o am the God of Abraham, & the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

He.11.16.

33 And when the multitude heard this, they were astonished b at his doctrine.

34 But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together.

35 Then d one of them, which was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying, 36 Master, which is the great commandment in the law?

37 Jesus said unto him, Thou f shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

38 This is the first and great commandment.

39 And the second is like unto it, i Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

40 On these two commandments l hang all the law and the prophets.

41 While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them,

42 Saying, What n think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him The Son of David.

43 He saith unto them, How then doth David in Spirit call him r Lord? saying, 44 The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

45 If David then called him Lord, how is he his son?

46 And t no man was able to answer him a word: neither v durst any man, from that day forth, ask him anymore questions.

CHAP. XXIII.

THEN spake Jesus to the multitude, u and to his disciples,

2 Saying, *Th*e u scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat:

3 All therefore whatsoever they bid y observe, that observe and do; but do not y after their works: for *wo*they say, & do *ac*t

4 For they bind heavy burdens, x and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they *them*selves will not move them with one of their fingers.

5 But z all their works they do for to be seen of men: they make broad their phylacteries, b and enlarge the borders of their garments,

6 And c love the uppermost rooms at feasts, & the chief seats in the synagogues,

7 And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Rabbi, Rabbi.

8 But g be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren.

9 And call no man your Father upon the earth: for one is your h Father, which is in heaven.

10 Neither be ye called masters: for one is your Master, even Christ.

11 But i he that is greatest among you, shall be your servant.

12 And k whosoever shall exalt him self, shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself, shall be exalted.

13 But *w*oe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering, to go in.

14 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, n and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.

15 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and and to make one proselyte; and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.

16 Woe unto you, ye blind guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor.

17 Ye fools, and blind! for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold?

18 And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty.

19 Ye fools, and blind! for whether is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift?

20 Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, & by all things thereon.

21 And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein.

22 And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

23 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint, and anise, and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

24 Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel.

25 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess.

26 Thou blind Pharisee! cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.

27 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto white sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness.

28 Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

29 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous,

30 And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.

31 Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophets.

32 Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers.

33 Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers! how can ye escape the damnation of hell?

34 Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, & wise men, & scribes: and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; & some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, & persecute them from city to city:

35 That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias, son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar.

36 Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

37 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, & stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!

38 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate.

39 For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord

CHAP. XXIV.

AND Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him for to show him the buildings of the temple.

2 And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon the Mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?

4 And Jesus answered & said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you.

5 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; & shall deceive many.

6 And ye shall hear of wars, and of rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

7 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.

8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

9 Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, & shall kill you: & ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake.

10 And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.

11 And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.

12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.

13 But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; & then shall the end come.

15 When ye, therefore, shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth let him understand:)

16 Then let them which be in Judea flee into the mountains:

17 Let him which is on the house-top not come down to take any thing out of his house:

18 Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes.

19 And woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!

20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath-day:

21 For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

22 And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

23 Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not.

24 For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall show great signs and wonders; inasmuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

25 Behold, I have told you before.

26 Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers; Believe it not.

27 For as the lightning b cometh out of the east, & shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

28 For e whosoever the carcass is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

29 Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall h the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens k shall be shaken.

30 And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man n in heaven: & then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and p they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven, with power and great glory.

31 And he shall send his angels t with a great sound q of a trumpet; and they shall gather together his elect s from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

32 Now t learn a parable of the fig-tree: When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh:

33 So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it u is near, even to the doors.

34 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass till all these things be fulfilled.

35 Heaven x and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

36 But y of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only.

37 But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

38 For as in the days that were before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until e the day that Noe entered into the ark, 39 And knew not, until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

40 Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

41 Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, & the other left.

42 Watch g therefore; for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.

43 But know this, that if the good man of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up.

44 Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not, the Son of man cometh.

45 Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them j meat in due season? l

46 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord, when he cometh, shall find so doing.

47 Verily I say unto you, That he shall make him ruler m over all his goods.

48 But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming;

49 And shall begin to smite his fellow-servants, & to eat & drink with the drunken;

50 The lord of that servant shall come in a day n when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of.

51 And shall o cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there q shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom. c

2 And d five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no f oil with them:

4 But the wise took oil g in their vessels with their lamps.

5 While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered i and slept.

6 And at midnight l there was a m cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out o to meet him.

7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone u out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather v to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

10 And u while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut. z

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, y Lord, Lord, open to us.

12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I a know you not.

13 Watch b therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour when the Son of man cometh.

14 For d the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.

15 And unto one he gave five e talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; f and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents, went, and traded with the same, and made them other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one, went, and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

19 After a long time, h the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth i with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents, came, and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents; behold, I have gained beside them five talents more.

21 His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler k over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

22 He also that had received two talents, came, and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents besides them.

23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

24 Then he which had received the one talent, came, and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard o man, reaping where thou hast not p sown, and gathering where thou hast not straved:

25 And I was afraid, r and went, and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.

26 His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked a and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed :

27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.

28 Take therefore the talent from him, & give it unto him which hath ten talents.

29 For d unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be taken away e even that which he hath.

30 And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: f there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

31 When g the Son of man shall come in his glory, & all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory:

32 And i before him shall be gathered all nations; and he shall separate l them one from another, as a shepherd m divideth his sheep from the goats:

33 And he shall set the sheep on his right n hand, but the goats on the left.

34 Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed o of my Father, p inherit the q kingdom r prepared for you from the foundation of the world:

35 For t I was an hungered, & ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, v and ye took me in:

36 Naked, w and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited x me: I was in prison, y and ye came unto me.

37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungered, and fed thee or thirsty, and gave thee drink?

38 When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?

39 Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

40 And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch a as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

41 Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart b from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, d prepared for the devil and his angels:

42 For I was an hungered, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink:

43 I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

44 Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungered, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?

45 Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch g as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me.

46 And h these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples,

2 Ye k now that after two days is the feast of the passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified.

3 Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas,

4 And b consulted that they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him.

5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the people.

6 Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper

7 There c came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head, as he sat at meat.

8 But when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste?

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.

10 When Jesus understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me.

11 For h ye have the poor always with you; but k me ye have not always.

12 For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial.

13 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her.

14 Then one s of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests, 15 And said unto them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they u covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

17 Now z the first day of the feast of unleavened bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?

18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the passover.

20 Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve.

21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it i?

23 And he answered and said, e He that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24 The Son of man goeth as it is written f of him: but woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it had been good for that man if he had not been born.

25 Then Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it i? He said unto him, Thou hast said.

26 And i as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and l blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body.

27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it:

28 For this is my blood of the new testament, l which is shed for many for the remission of sins.

29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it with you in my Father's kingdom: a

 30 And when they had sung an ¹ hymn, hey went out into the Mount of Olives.
 31 Then saith Jesus unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: or it is written, d I will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be cattered abroad.
 32 But after I am risen again, e I will go before you into Galilee.
 33 Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended.
 34 Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.
 35 Peter said unto him, Though I should lie with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.
 36 Then h cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto his disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.
 37 And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy.
 38 Then saith he unto them, My i soul exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: h I am here, and watch with me.
 39 And he went a little further, and fell on his face, and m prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup o pass from me! nevertheless, p not as I will, but as thou wilt.
 40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto them, What! could ye not watch with q me one hour?
 41 Watch, t and pray, that ye v enter not into temptation: w the spirit is inclined is willing, but the flesh is weak.
 42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.
 43 And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy.
 44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third a time, saying the same words.
 45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest; behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.
 46 Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.
 47 And while he yet spake, lo, c Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude, with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the temple.
 48 Now he that betrayed him gave them sign, d saying, Whosoever I shall kiss, he shall follow me: hold him fast.
 49 And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, Master; and kissed him.
 50 And Jesus said unto him, f Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.
 51 And, behold, one of them which were with Jesus stretched out h his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest, and smote off his ear.
 52 Then said Jesus unto him, Put up thy sword into his place: for k all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.
 53 Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me more than twelve legions of b angels?

 54 But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that e thus it must be?
 55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.
 56 But all this was done, that the scriptures f of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him, & fled.
 57 And g they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.
 58 But Peter followed him afar off, unto the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end.
 59 Now the chief priests and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jesus, to put him to death;
 60 But found none: yea, though many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the i last came two false witnesses,
 61 And said, This fellow said, k I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.
 62 And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? What is it which these witness against thee?
 63 But n Jesus held his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him, I adjure q thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the r Christ the Son of God.
 64 Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, s Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.
 65 Then the high priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy.
 66 What think ye? They answered and said, He is guilty of death.
 67 Then z did they spit in his face, and buffeted him; and others smote him with a the palms of their hands.
 68 Saying, Prophecy unto us, thou Christ, Who is he that smote thee?
 69 Now b Peter sat without in the palace: and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee.
 70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.
 71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth.
 72 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.
 73 And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee.
 74 Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.
 75 And Peter remembered the g word of Jesus, which said unto him, Before the cock crew, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

CHAP. XXVII.

WHEN the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death.

2 And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him b to Pontius Pilate the governor.

3 Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 Saying, I have sinned, in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. c And they said, What is that to us? See thou to that.

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged f himself.

6 And the chief priest took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.

7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.

8 Wherefore that field was called: The field of blood, unto this day.

9 (Then was fulfilled that which was spoken h by Jeremy the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, 2 whom they of the children of Israel did value;

10 And gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.)

11 And Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest.

12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered m nothing.

13 Then saith Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee?

14 And he answered him to never a word; inasmuch that the governor marvelled greatly.

15 Now p at that feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.

17 Therefore, when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ?

18 For he knew that for envy r they had delivered him.

19 When he was set down on the judgment-seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that u just man; for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him.

20 But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask w Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.

21 The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas.

22 Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus, which is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified.

23 And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let z him be crucified.

24 When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed a his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

25 Then answered all the people, and said, His d blood be on us, and on our children.

26 Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had scourged a Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the 1 common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers.

28 And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe.

29 And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked d him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!

30 And they spit e upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head.

31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led g him away to crucify him.

32 And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross.

33 And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, A place of a skull, 34 They gave him vinegar to drink, mingled i with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

35 And k they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken l by the prophet, They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots.

36 And sitting down, they watched him there;

37 And set up over his head, his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 Then were there two thieves n crucified with him; one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 And they that passed by reviled him, wagging o their heads,

40 And saying, Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross.

41 Likewise also the chief priests mocking q him, with the scribes and elders, said, 42 He saved others, himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.

43 He trusted in God; let s him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, t I am the Son of God.

44 The thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth.

45 Now from the sixth hour there was darkness v over all the land unto the ninth hour.

46 And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, x My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Elias.

48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with y vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.

49 The rest said, Let be, let us see, whether Elias will come to save him.

50 Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.

51 And, behold, the veil b of the temple was rent c in twain, from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent;

52 And e the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which a slept, arose,

53 And came out of the graves c after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.

54 Now d when the centurion, and they that were with him watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.

55 And many women were there, (beholding afar off,) which h followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him;

56 Among which was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of Zebedee's children.

57 When i the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple:

58 He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered.

59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 And n laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.

61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 Now the next day, that followed the day of the Preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate, 63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that receiver q said, while he was yet alive, After r three days I will rise again.

64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first.

65 Pilate said unto them, Ye have a watch: go your way, make it as sure as you can.

66 So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, sealing u the stone, and setting a watch.

CHAP. XXVIII.

IN x at the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene, a and the other Mary, to see the sepulchre.

2 And, behold, there 2 was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

3 His b countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow:

4 And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

5 And the angel answered e and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for f I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.

6 He is not here; for he is risen, as he said. g Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen t from the dead; and, behold, he goeth before you into Galilee; there k shall ye see him: lo, I have told you.

8 And they departed quickly from the sepulchre, with fear and great joy, and did run to bring his disciples word.

9 And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. m And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.

10 Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid: go tell my brethren, o that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

11 Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests all the things that were done.

12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers, 13 Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole p him away while we slept.

14 And if this come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you.

15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

16 Then t the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into a mountain where Jesus had appointed them.

17 And when they saw v him, they worshipped him: but some doubted.

18 And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All w power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

19 Go y ye therefore, and 1 teach z all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost;

20 Teaching b them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I c am with you alway, even unto the end of the world.

The GOSPEL, according to ST. MARK.

CHAP. I.

THE beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the a Son of God;

2 As it is written in the prophets, c Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

3 The d voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 John e did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of ¹ repentance, for the remission f of sins.

5 And there went out unto him all the land of Judea, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing g their sins.

6 And John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; and he did eat locusts h and wild honey;

7 And preached, saying, There i cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose.

8 I indeed have baptized you with water; but he shall baptize l you with the Holy Ghost.

9 And it came to pass n those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized m of John in Jordan.

10 And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens ² opened, and the Spirit, n like a dove, descending upon him:

11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Son, o in whom I am well pleased.

12 And immediately the Spirit driveth him into the wilderness.

13 And p he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted of Satan; and was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered unto him.

14 Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus q came into Galilee, preaching the gospel r of the kingdom of God, 15 And saying, The time s is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent t ye, and believe u the gospel.

16 Now v as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: (for they were fishers:)

17 And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

18 And straightway they forsook their nets, and followed him.

19 And when he had gone a little further thence, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets.

20 And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him.

21 And they went into Capernaum: and straightway on the sabbath-day he entered into the synagogue, and taught.

22 And z they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.

23 And b there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out,

24 Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God.

25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, inasmuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.

28 And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.

29 And k forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

30 But Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever; and anon they tell him of her.

31 And he came, and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

32 And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils.

33 And all the city was gathered together at the door.

34 And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils; and suffered not the devils to speak, ³ because they knew him.

35 And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed.

36 And Simon, and they that were with him, followed after him.

37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee.

38 And he said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for therefore we came I forth.

39 And he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out devils.

40 And x there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

41 And Jesus, moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou clean.

42 And as soon as he had spoken, immediately y the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed.

43 And he straitly charged him, and forthwith sent him away;

44 And saith unto him, See thou see-nothing to any man: but go thy way, show thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things a which Moses commanded, for a testimony b unto them. 15 But he went out, and began to c publish it much, and to blaze abroad the matter, insomuch that Jesus could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places: and e they came to him from every quarter.

CHAP. II.

AND again he entered into Capernaum after some days; and it was noised that he was in the house.

2 And straightway many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no, not so much as about the door: and he preached h the word unto them.

3 And i they come unto him, bringing the sick of the palsy, which was borne j four.

4 And when they could not come nigh unto him for the press, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palsy lay.

5 When Jesus saw their faith, m he said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, thy sins be forgiven thee.

6 But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, 7 Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? Who can forgive sins p but God only?

8 And immediately, when Jesus perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, thy reason ye these things in your hearts?

9 Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk?

10 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power u on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,) 11 I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house.

12 And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; so much that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We x never saw it so in this fashion.

13 And he went forth again by the seaside; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them.

14 And y as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting 4 at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. and he arose and followed him.

15 And a it came to pass, that, as Jesus sat at meat in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him.

16 And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is that e eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners?

17 When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They d that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: came not to call the righteous, but sinners f to repentance.

18 And the disciples of John and of the Pharisees used to fast: and they come and say unto him, Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not?

19 And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom d is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

20 But the days will come when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then f shall they fast in those days.

21 No man also seweth a piece of i new cloth on an old garment: else the new piece that filled it up taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse.

22 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred: g but new wine must be put into new bottles.

23 And k it came to pass, that he went through the corn-fields on the sabbath-day; and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck l the ears of corn.

24 And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath-day that which is not lawful?

25 And he said unto them, Have ye never read what David did, n when he had need, and was an hungred, he, and they that were with him?

26 How he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high-priest, and did eat the shew-bread, o which is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave also to them which were with him?

27 And he said unto them, The sabbath was made for man, q and not r man for the sabbath:

28 Therefore s the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

CHAP. III.

AND t he entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there which had a withered hand.

2 And they watched v him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath-day; that they might accuse him.

3 And he saith unto the man which had the withered hand, 2 Stand forth.

4 And he saith unto them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath-days, or to do evil? to save life, w or to kill? But they held their peace.

5 And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness 3 of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

6 And the Pharisees went forth, & straightway took counsel with the z Herodians against him, how they might destroy him.

7 But Jesus withdrew himself with his disciples to the sea: and a great c multitude from Galilee followed him, and from Judea,

8 And from Jerusalem, and from Idumea, and from beyond Jordan; and they about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things he did, came unto him.

9 And he spake to his disciples, that a small ship should wait on him because of the multitude, lest they should throng him.

10 For he had healed many; e insomuch that they 5 pressed upon him for to touch him, as many as had plagues.

11 And g unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, Thou art the Son of God.

12 And he straitly charged them that they should not make him known. a 13 And c he goeth up into a mountain, and calleth unto him whom he d would: and they came unto him.

14 And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach,

15 And to have power to heal sicknesses, and to cast out devils:

16 And Simon g he surnamed Peter;

17 And James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James; and he surnamed them Boanerges, which is, The sons of thunder; h

18 And Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddeus, and Simon the Canaanite, 19 And Judas Iscariot, which also betrayed him: and they went i into an house.

20 And the multitude cometh together again, so n that they could not so much as eat bread.

21 And when his 2 friends heard of it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they said, He q is beside himself.

22 And the scribes which came down from Jerusalem said, He s hath Beelzebub, and by the prince of the devils casteth he out devils.

23 And he called them unto him, and said unto them in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan?

24 And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.

25 And if a house be divided against itself, that house cannot stand.

26 And if Satan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end.

27 No w man can enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he will first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his house.

28 Verily I say unto you, All y sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme:

29 But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost b hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation:

30 Because they said, He hath an unclean spirit.

31 There f came then his brethren and his mother, and, standing without, sent unto him, calling him.

32 And the multitude sat about him; and they said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren without seek for thee.

33 And he answered them, saying, Who is my mother, or my brethren?

34 And he looked round about on them which sat about him, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren!

35 For whosoever shall do k the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother.

CHAP. IV.

AND he began again to teach by the seaside: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land,

2 And he taught them many things by parables, p and said unto them in his doctrine,

3 Hearken; r Behold, there went out a sower to sow:

4 And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way-side, and the b fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on stony c ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth:

6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and f because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns; h and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

8 And other fell on good i ground, and did yield fruit l that sprang up and increased, and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

9 And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And m when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parable.

11 And he said unto them, Unto o you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, p all these things are done in parables.

12 That r seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.

13 And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables?

14 The sower t soweth the word.

15 And these are they by the way-side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh v immediately, and taketh away u the word that was sown in their hearts.

16 And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;

17 And have no root x in themselves, and so endure but z for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately a they are offended.

18 And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word,

19 And the c cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of d riches, and the e lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful. g

20 And these are they which are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, & bring forth fruit, h some thirty-fold, some sixty, and some an hundred.

21 And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a i bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick?

22 For i there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.

23 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

24 And he saith unto them, Take heed what m ye hear: with n what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you; and unto you that hear shall more be given.

25 For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from o him shall be taken even that which he hath.

26 And he said, So q is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground;

27 And should sleep, and rise night and ay, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; c first d the blade, then the ear; after that, the full corn in the ear.

29 But when the fruit is ¹ brought forth, immediately he f putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

30 And he said, Whereunto shall weaken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 It g is like a grain of mustard-seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth:

32 But when it is sown, it groweth up, & cometh greater h than all herbs, & shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.

33 And with many such parables spake e the word unto them, as k they were able to hear it.

34 But without a parable spake he not unto them: and when they were alone, e expounded all things to his disciples.

35 And the same day, when the even was come, he saith unto them, Let us pass over unto the other side.

36 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was e the ship: and there were also with him other little ships.

37 And n there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, o carest thou not that we perish?

39 And he arose, and rebuked the wind, & said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And q the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

40 And he said unto them, Why are ye so afraid? r how is it that ye have no faith?

41 And they feared t exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea u obey him?

CHAP. V.

42 ND v they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes.

43 And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

44 Who had his dwelling y among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains:

45 Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.

46 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

47 But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshipped b him,

48 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the Most High God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.

49 (For he said unto him, Come e out of the man, thou unclean spirit.)

50 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: d for we are many.

51 And he besought him much, that he would not send them away out of the country.

52 Now there was there, nigh unto the mountains, a great herd of swine a feeding:

12 And all the devils besought b him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.

13 And forthwith Jesus gave c them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand,) and were choked in the sea.

14 And they that fed the swine fled, and told d it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they came to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had e the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid. j

16 And they that saw it, told them how it befell to him that was possessed with the devil, and also concerning the swine.

17 And they began to pray him to depart out of their coasts.

18 And when he was come into the ship, he that had been possessed with the devil prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit, Jesus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and m tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee.

20 And he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him: and all men did marvel.

21 And when Jesus was passed over again by ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him: and he was nigh unto the sea.

22 And, p behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet.

23 And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point s of death: I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live.

24 And Jesus went with him; and much people followed him, and thronged him.

25 And a certain woman, which had an issue t of blood twelve years,

26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing x bettered, but rather grew worse,

27 When she had heard of Jesus, came in the press behind, and touched z his garment:

28 For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole.

29 And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague.

30 And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that virtue a had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing.

33 But the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told e him all the truth.

34 And he said unto her, Daughter, thy faith f hath made thee whole: go g in peace, and be whole of thy plague.

35 While he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's house, certain which said, Thy daughter is dead: b why troublest thou the Master any further?

36 As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid, only d believe.

37 And he suffered no man to follow him, save e Peter, and James, and John the brother of James.

38 And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

39 And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth. g

40 And they laughed him to scorn. But when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying.

41 And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Talitha cumi; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, (i say unto thee,) arise. j

42 And straightway the damsel arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment.

43 And he charged them straitly that no man should know it; and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

CHAP. VI.

AND he went out from thence, and came into his own country; and his disciples follow him.

2 And n when the sabbath-day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many, bearing him were astonished, saying, From p whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty oracles are wrought by his hands?

3 Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James, q and Joseph, and of Juda, & Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they were offended at him.

4 But Jesus said unto them, t A prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house.

5 And v he could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hand upon a few sick folk, and healed them.

6 And he marvelled u because of their unbelief. And so he went round about the villages, teaching.

7 And z he called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two & two, and gave them power over unclean spirits;

8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only; no scrip, no bread, no 4 money in their purse:

9 But be shod a with sandals; b and not put on two coats.

10 And he said unto them, In what place soever ye enter into an house, there abide till ye depart from that place.

11 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake c off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and 5 Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city.

12 And they went out, and preached that men should repent. d

13 And they cast out many f devils, and anointed with oil a many that were sick, and healed them.

14 And e king Herod heard of him; (for his name was spread abroad;) and he said, That John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do show forth themselves in him.

15 Others f said, That it is Elias. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.

16 But when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.

17 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison, for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife: for he had married her.

18 For John had said unto Herod, It is not lawful h for thee to have thy brother's wife.

19 Therefore Herodias had a a quarrel against him, and would have killed him; but she could not.

20 For Herod feared i John, knowing that he was a just man and an holy, and observed 2 him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

21 And when a convenient day was come, that Herod on his k birth-day made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief estates of Galilee;

22 And when the daughter of the said Herodias came in, and danced, m and pleased Herod and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee.

23 And she swore unto her, Whosoever o thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom.

24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist.

25 And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by, in a charger, the head r of John the Baptist.

26 And the king was exceeding sorry: yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her.

27 And immediately the king sent s an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went, and beheaded him in the prison,

28 And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel: and the damsel gave it to her mother.

29 And when his disciples heard of it, they y came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

30 And z the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

31 And he said unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while: for there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.

32 And they departed into a desert place by ship privately.

33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran about thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him.

34 And Jesus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because e they were as sheep not having a shepherd.

and he began to teach them many things.

35 And a when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed :

36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread : for they have nothing to eat.

37 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall d we go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat ?

38 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye ? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes.

39 And e he commanded them to make d sit down by companies upon the green grass.

40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, g and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them ; and the two fishes divided he among them all.

42 And h they did all eat, and were filled.

43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

44 And they that did eat of the loaves were about five thousand men.

45 And k straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the other side before unto i Bethsaida, while he sent away the people.

46 And when he had sent them away, l he departed into a mountain to pray.

47 And when even was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone in the land.

48 And he saw them toiling p in rowing ; for the wind was contrary unto them : and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea, and would have passed q by them.

49 But when they saw him r walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out :

50 (For they all saw him, and were troubled.) And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer : v it is I ; be not afraid.

51 And he went up unto them into the ship ; and w the wind ceased : and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered.

52 For they considered not the miracle of the loaves : for their heart y was hardened.

53 And z when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore.

54 And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him,

55 And b ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was.

56 And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that they might touch d if it were but the border c of his garment : and as many as touched h him were made whole.

which came from Jerusalem.

2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with 1 defiled (that is to say, with unwashen) hands, they found fault.

3 For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands 2 oft, eat not, holding the tradition b of the elders.

4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, c they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and 4 pots, brazen vessels, and of 5 tables.

5 Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands ?

6 He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias f prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

7 Howbeit, in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

8 For h laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups : and many other such like things ye do.

9 And he said unto them, Full well 6 ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

10 For Moses said, Honour l thy father and thy mother ; and, Whoso m curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, n that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me ; he shall be free.

12 And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother ;

13 Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered : and many such like things ye do.

14 And when he had called all the people unto him he said unto them, Hearken unto me every one of you, and understand : t

15 There is nothing from without a man that, entering into him, can defile him : but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

16 If u any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

17 And x when he was entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also ? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him ;

19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but a into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats ?

20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

21 For c from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

22 Thefts, covetousness, 8 wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness :

23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

The Syrophenician woman.

M A R K, VIII.

Peter's confession of Christ.

24 And a from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into an house, and would have no man know it: but c he could not be hid.

25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet:

26 The woman was a ¹ Greek, a Syrophenician by nation: and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.

27 But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for d it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs.

28 And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord: yet g the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.

29 And he said unto her, For h this saying go thy way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone l out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 And n again, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis.

32 And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him.

33 And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and r he spit, and touched his tongue;

34 And s looking up to heaven, t he sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened.

35 And u straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain.

36 And he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it;

37 And were beyond measure astonished, z saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh a both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

CHAP. VIII.

In c those days, the multitude being very great, & having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, & saith unto them,

2 I have compassion d on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat:

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from afar.

4 And his disciples answered him. From g whence can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness?

5 And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they did set them before the people.

7 And they had a few small fishes: and he i blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat, and l were filled: and m they took up of the broken meat that was left, seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away.

And o straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 And b the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and said, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? Verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.

13 And he left them, and, entering into the ship again, departed to the other side.

14 Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

15 And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware e of the leaven f of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread.

18 Having m eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? & do ye not o remember?

19 When I brake the five p loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve.

20 And when the seven q among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.

21 And he said unto them, How is it that ye do not understand?

22 And he cometh to Bethsaida; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch v him.

23 And he took the blind man by the hand, & led him out of the town: & when he had spit w on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought.

24 And he looked up, and said, x I see men, as trees, walking.

25 After that, he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: & he was restored, and saw z every man clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell z to any in the town.

27 And b Jesus went out, & his disciples, into the towns of Cesarea Philippi: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am?

28 And they answered, John e the Baptist: but some say, Elias; and others, One of the prophets.

29 And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou f art the Christ.

30 And he charged them that they should tell no man of him.

31 And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things; and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests and scribes, and be killed; and after three days rise again.

32 And he spake that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.

33 But when he had turned about, and looked on his disciples, he rebuked h Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, h Satan, for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

34 And when he had called the people unto him, with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever n will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

35 For a whosoever will save his life, shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it.

36 For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

37 Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

38 Whosoever c therefore shall be ashamed of me, and of my words, in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father, with the holy angels.

CHAP. IX.

AND he said unto them, Verily f I say unto you, that there be some of them that stand here, which shall not g taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power.

2 And h after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and adeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.

3 And his raiment became shining, exceeding white m as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them.

4 And there appeared unto them Elias, with Moses; and they were talking with Jesus.

5 And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: o and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

6 For he wist not p what to say; for they were sore afraid.

7 And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This s is my beloved Son; hear t him.

8 And suddenly, when they had looked about, they saw no man any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead.

10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what rising from the dead should mean.

11 And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes that Elias must first come?

12 And he answered and told them, Elias verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and how it is written z of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and be set at a nought.

13 But i I say unto you, That b Elias is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him.

14 And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed; and running to him, saluted him.

16 And he asked the scribes, What question ye 1 with them?

17 And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee son, which hath a dumb f spirit:

18 And whosoever he taketh him, he smeth 2 him; and he foameth, h and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and we have brought to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not.

19 He answereth him, and saith, O faithless b generation! how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? Bring him unto me.

20 And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming.

21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child: d

22 And oftentimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.

23 Jesus said unto him, If e thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.

24 And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, h Lord, I believe; help i thou mine unbelief.

25 When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, Come out of him, and enter no more into him.

26 And the spirit cried, and rent j him sore, and came out of him: k he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead.

27 But Jesus took him by the n hand, and lifted him up; and he arose.

28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?

29 And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing but by q prayer and fasting.

30 And they departed thence, and passed through Galilee; and he would not that any man should know it.

31 For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.

32 But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask v him.

33 And u he came to Capernaum: and being in the house, he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way?

34 But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves who should be the greatest.

35 And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If y any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all.

36 And he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them, 37 Whosoever c shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

38 And John answered him, saying, Master, we saw d one casting out devils in thy name, and he followeth not us: and we forbid him, because he followeth not us.

39 But Jesus said, Forbid him not: for there e is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me.

40 For g he that is not against us, is on our part.

41 For i whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward.

42 And whosoever shall offend a one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, & he were cast into the sea.

43 And c if thy hand offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than, having two hands, to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched;

44 Where a their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

45 And if thy foot offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, than, having two feet, to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched;

46 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

47 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than, having two eyes, to be cast into hell-fire;

48 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

49 For every one shall be salted with fire, and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt.

50 Salt is good: but if the salt have lost its saltness, wherewith will ye season it? Have ye salt in yourselves, and have a peace one with another.

CHAP. X.

AND p he arose from thence, and came: h into the coasts of Judea, by the farther side of Jordan: and the people resort unto him again; and as he was wont, he taught them again.

2 And the Pharisees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? tempting him.

3 And he answered and said unto them, What did Moses command you?

4 And they said, Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away.

5 And Jesus answered and said unto them, For the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept:

6 But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female.

7 For t this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife;

8 and they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh.

9 What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

10 And in the house his disciples asked him again of the same matter.

11 And he saith unto them, x Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.

12 And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.

13 And z they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: & his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

14 But when Jesus saw it, he was b much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of such c is the kingdom of God.

15 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

16 And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

17 And d when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?

18 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? There is none good but one, b that is, God.

19 Thou knowest the d commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother.

20 And he answered and said unto him, Master, all f these have I observed from my youth.

21 Then Jesus beholding him, loved him, and said unto him, One g thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure h in heaven; and come, take up the cross, and follow me.

22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved; for he had great possessions.

23 And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answered them again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust w in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?

27 And Jesus, looking upon them, saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for q with God all things are possible.

28 Then Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.

29 And Jesus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's, 30 But he shall receive an hundred-fold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life.

31 But u many that are first, shall be last; and the last, first.

32 And as they were in the way going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus went before them; and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen unto him,

33 Saying, Behold, we y go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests and unto the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gentiles;

34 And a they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him; and the third day he shall rise again.

35 And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came unto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatsoever we shall desire.

36 And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you?

37 They said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory.

38 But Jesus said unto them, Ye e know not what ye ask. Can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism a that I am baptized with?

39 And they say unto him, We can. And Jesus said unto them, Ye b shall indeed drink of the cup c that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized:

40 But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand, is not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with James and John.

42 But Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye i know that they which are 1 accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.

43 But so shall it not be among you: but l whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister:

44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.

45 For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but n to minister, and to p give his life a ransom for many.

46 And q they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho, with his disciples, and a great number of people, blind Bartimeus, the son of Timeus, sat by the highway side, begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me.

48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more v a great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy u on me.

49 And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; h he calleth thee.

50 And he, casting y away his garment, rose, and came to Jesus.

51 And Jesus answered and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight.

52 And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; thy z faith hath 4 made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

CHAP. XI.

AND b when they came nigh to Jerusalem, unto Bethphage, and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, he sendeth forth two of his disciples,

2 And saith unto them, Go your way into the village over against you: and as soon as ye be entered into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath need f of him; and straightway he will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without, in a place where two ways met; and they loose him.

5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye loosing the colt?

6 And they said unto them even as Jesus had commanded: and they let them go.

7 And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him; and i he sat upon him.

8 And many spread their garments in the way; and others cut down branches of the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna; Blessed d is he that cometh in the name of the Lord:

10 Blessed be the kingdom e of our father David, that cometh in the name of the Lord: Hosanna in the highest. f

11 And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple: and h when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the even-tide was come, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve.

12 And k on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry:

13 And seeing a fig-tree afar off, having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing m but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.

14 And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.

15 And o they come to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrow the tables of the money-changers, r and the seats of them that sold doves;

16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple.

17 And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, s My house shall be called 2 of all nations the house of prayer? but ye have made it a den t of thieves.

18 And the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all the people was astonished w at his doctrine.

19 And when even was come, he went out of the city.

20 And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig-tree dried up from the roots.

21 And Peter, calling to remembrance, saith unto him, Master, behold, the fig-tree which thou cursedst is withered away!

22 And Jesus, answering, saith unto them, 3 Have faith in God.

23 For verily I say unto you, That whosoever a shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

24 Therefore I say unto you, What e things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

25 And when ye stand praying, forgive, d if ye have ought against any; that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.

26 But e if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

27 And they come again to Jerusalem: and g as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders,

28 And say unto him, By h what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things?

29 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I will also ask of you one 6 question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

30 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men? Answer me.

31 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him?

32 But if we shall say, Of men, they feared the people; for h all men counted John, that he was a prophet indeed.

33 And they answered and said unto Jesus, We c cannot tell. And Jesus answering, saith unto them, Neither do I d tell you by what authority I do these things.

CHAP. XII.

AND he began to speak unto them by parables. A e certain man planted a vineyard, and set an hedge about it, and digged a place for the wine-fat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the g fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, j and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And again he sent another; and him they killed: and l many others, beating some, and killing m some.

6 Having yet therefore one son, his well-beloved, he n sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son.

7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.

8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and r destroy the husbandmen, and will s give the vineyard unto others.

10 And have ye not read this scripture? The t stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner:

11 This was the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

12 And u they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people; for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

13 And x they send unto him certain of the Pharisees, and of the Herodians, to catch him in his words.

14 And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man; for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Cesar, or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? Bring me a z penny, that I may see it.

16 And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Cesar's.

17 And Jesus, answering, said unto them, Render to Cesar f the things that are Cesar's, and to God h the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him.

18 Then i come unto him the Sadducees, which say l there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying,

19 Master, Moses wrote m unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother n should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

20 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.

21 And the second took her, and died; neither left he any seed: & the third likewise.

22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.

23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.

24 And Jesus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage; but f are as the angels which are in heaven.

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise; have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, h I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye i therefore do greatly err.

28 And k one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?

29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, o Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord:

30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, & with all thy strength. This is the first commandment.

31 And the second is like, n namely this, Thou q shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.

32 And the scribes said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; and v there is none other but he:

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, is more w than all whole burnt-offerings and sacrifices.

34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst ask him y any question.

35 And z Jesus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Christ is the son of David?

36 For David himself said by a the Holy Ghost, The b Lord said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

37 David therefore himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he then his son? And the common people heard him gladly.

38 And he said unto them c in his doctrine, Beware d of the scribes, which love to go in long clothing, and e love salutations in the market-places,

39 And e the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost rooms at feasts;

40 Which devour widows' g houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater damnation.

41 And k Jesus sat over against the treasury, and beheld how the people cast money z into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much.

42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two a mites.

rich make a farthing.

And he called unto him his disciples, I saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, that b this poor widow hath cast in more than all they which have cast in the treasury:

For all they did cast in of their abundance; c but she of her want did cast in that she had, *e*ven all e her living.

CHAP. XIII.

ND f as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, ster, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here!

And Jesus, answering, said unto him, est thou these great buildings? i there will not be left one stone upon another, it shall not be thrown down.

And as he sat upon the Mount of Olives, er against the temple, Peter and James and John & Andrew asked him privately, Tell us, when shall these things be? i what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?

And Jesus, answering them, began to say, Take heed lest any man deceive you: For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; & shall deceive many.

And when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled: such things must needs be; but the l shall not be yet.

For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there will be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines and troubles: these are the beginnings of sorrows.

But take heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and the synagogues ye shall be beaten; & ye will be brought before rulers and kings to my sake, for a testimony against them.

And the gospel must first be published among all nations.

But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought before hand: at ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate; but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is ye that speak, but f the Holy Ghost.

Now the brother u shall betray the brother to death, & the father the son: and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that shall endure to the end, the same shall be saved.

But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then let them that be in Judea flee to the mountains:

And let him that is on the house-top get down into the house, neither enter therein, to take any thing out of his house.

And let him that is in the field not turn back again for to take up his garment.

But woe to them that are with child, & to them that give suck in those days!

And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.

For in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the nation which God created, unto this time, neither shall be.

And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should have been saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days. And then if any man shall say to you, Lo, a here is Christ; or, Lo, he is there, believe him not:

For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, & shall show signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect. But d take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things.

But in those days, after that tribulation, g the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light;

And h the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken.

And k then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds, with great power and glory.

And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

Now learn a parable of the fig-tree; When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near:

So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, *e*ven at the doors.

Verily I say unto you, that this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done.

Heaven and earth shall pass away: but o my words shall not pass away.

But of that day and that hour, knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.

Take p ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is.

For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.

Watch ye therefore; for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cock-crowing, or in the morning;

Lest coming suddenly, he find you sleeping.

And what I say unto you, I say unto all, Watch.

CHAP. XIV.

AFTER two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

But they said, Not on the feast-day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

And z being in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman, having an alabaster-box of ointment of ² spikenard, very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.

And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

For it might have been sold for more than three hundred ³ pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

And Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.

For b ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.

8 She hath done what she could : she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

10 And b Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray d him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him e money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

12 And the first day of h unleavened bread, when they ¹ killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare, that thou mayest eat the passover ?

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go k ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water : follow him.

14 And whosoever he shall go in, say ye to the good man of the house, The Master m saith, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat n the passover with my disciples ?

15 And he will show you a large upper room furnished and prepared : there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found p as he had said unto them : and they made ready the passover.

17 And in the evening he cometh with the twelve.

18 And as they sat and did eat, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth s with me shall betray me.

19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I ? and another said, Is it I ?

20 And he answered and said unto them, He is one of the twelve, that dipperth with me in the dish.

21 The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him : but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed ! good to were it for that man if he had never been born.

22 And x as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, & brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, y eat ; this is my body.

23 And he took the cup ; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them : and they all drank of it.

24 And he said unto them, This z is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many.

25 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it c new in the kingdom of God.

26 And when they had sung an 2 hymn, they went out into the Mount of Olives.

27 And Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night : for it is written, f I will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.

28 But g after that I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee.

29 But h Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I.

30 And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this day even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.

31 But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all. 32 And a they came to a place which was named Gethsemane : and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray.

33 And he taketh with him Peter and James and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy ;

34 And saith unto them, My c soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death : tarry ye here, and watch.

35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed f that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.

36 And he said, g Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee ; take away this cup from me : nevertheless i not what I will, but what thou wilt.

37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou ? couldest not thou watch one hour ?

38 Watch ye, and pray, lest ye enter into temptation : The l spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.

39 And again he went away : and prayed, and spake the same words.

40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) neither wist they what to answer him.

41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest : it is enough, the o hour is come : behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

42 Rise up, let us go ; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

43 And q immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude r with swords and staves, from the chief priests t and the scribes, and the elders.

44 And he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whosoever u shall kiss, v that same is he : take him, and lead him away safely.

45 And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, Master, w to master ; and kissed him.

46 And they laid their hands on him, and took him.

47 And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

48 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staves to take me ?

49 I was daily with you in the temple, teaching, and ye took me not : but the scriptures a must be fulfilled.

50 And b they all forsook him, and fled. 51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body ; and the young men laid hold on him :

52 And he left d the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

53 And e they led Jesus away to the high priests : and with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes.

54 And Peter followed him afar off, even into the palace of the high priest : and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.

55 And the chief priests and all the council sought for witness against Jesus to put him to death ; and found none.

56 For i many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.

7 And there arose certain, and bare witness against him, saying,
8 We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another without hands.

9 But neither so did their witness agree together.

10 And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? What is it which these men testify against thee? c

11 But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?

12 And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

13 Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any other witnesses?

14 Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.

15 And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, & to buffet him, & to say to him, prophesy: and the servants did kick him with the palms of their hands.

16 And as Peter was beneath in the place, there cometh one of the maids of high priest:

17 And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth.

18 But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. If he went out into the porch; and the k crew.

19 And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This man was with him.

20 And he denied it again. And a little while, they that stood by said again to her, Surely thou art one of them; for thou art a Galilean, and thy speech agreeth thereto.

21 But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak.

22 And the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word that was said unto him, Before the cock crowe thou shalt deny me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept.

CHAP. XV.

23 AND straightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.

24 And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he, answering, said unto him, Thou sayest it.

25 And the chief priests accused him of many things: but he answered nothing. And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? Behold how many things they witness against thee.

26 But ye Jesus yet answered nothing; but Pilate marvelled.

27 Now that he saw he could prevail nothing, he said unto him, Wilt thou be a king?

28 And he answered and said unto him, Thou sayest. For this cause the Jews say, King of the Jews: but my kingdom is not of this world.

29 Whereupon Pilate answered and said unto him, What sayest thou? He answered and said, My kingdom is not of this world: for if it were, my servants would have fought against the Jews, that I might not be delivered unto them: but as it is, the kingdom is not of this world: therefore have my servants fought against no man.

b Mat. 27. 47.
Lu. 23. 44.

8 And the multitude, crying aloud, began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

10 (For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy.) b

11 But the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release d Barabbas unto them.

12 And Pilate answered, and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews?

13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.

14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.

15 And so Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.

16 And the soldiers led him away into the hall called Pretorium; and they call together the whole band.

17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head;

18 And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews!

19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and, bowing their knees, worshipped him.

20 And when they had mocked o him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

21 And they compel one Simon a Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross.

22 And q they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull.

23 And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, they s parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.

25 And it was the third hour; and they crucified him.

26 And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 And with him they crucify two thieves; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.

28 And the scripture u was fulfilled, which saith, And he was numbered with the transgressors.

29 And to they that passed by rallied on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou x that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days,

30 Save thyself, and come down from the cross.

31 Likewise also the chief priests mocking, said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others; himself he cannot save.

32 Let Christ the King of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see, a and believe. And they that were crucified with him reviled him.

33 And b when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land, until the ninth hour.

34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, a Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? b

35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he call-eth Elias.

36 And one ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and d gave him to drink, saying, Let alone; let us see whether Elias will come to take him down.

37 And e Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost.

38 And the veil of the temple was rent in twain, from the top to the bottom.

39 And when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God.

The GOSPEL according to ST. LUKE.

CHAP. I.

FORASMUCH as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of those things which are most surely believed among us,

2 Even as they delivered them unto us, which from the beginning a were eyewitnesses, and ministers of b the word ;

3 It seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write unto thee in order, c most excellent Theophilus, d

4 That thou mightest know e the certainty of those things wherein thou hast been instructed.

5 THERE was, in the days of f Herod the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abia : h and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth.

6 And they were both righteous k before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances l of the Lord, blameless.

7 And they had no child, because that Elizabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years.

8 And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course, 9 According to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was o to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying without, q at the time of incense.

11 And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord, standing on the right side of the altar t of incense.

12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, u and fear fell upon him.

13 But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias : for thy prayer is heard ; and thy wife Elizabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name x John.

14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness ; and many shall rejoice y at his birth.

15 For he shall be great z in the sight of the Lord, and shall a drink neither wine nor strong drink ; and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even b from his mother's womb.

16 And many of the children of Israel shall be turn to the Lord their God.

17 And d he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient 9 to the wisdom f of the just ; to make ready a people g prepared for the Lord.

18 And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this ? for i I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.

19 And the angel answering, said unto him, I am Gabriel, l that stand in the presence of God ; and am sent n to speak unto thee, and to show thee these glad tidings.

20 And, behold, thou shalt be o dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

21 And the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them : and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple ; for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pass, that, as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after these days his wife Elizabeth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying, 25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me, in the days wherein he looked on me, to take g away my reproach among men.

26 And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God, unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, 27 To a virgin i espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David ; and the virgin's name was Mary.

28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art 1 highly favoured, m the n Lord is with thee : blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and east in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary ; for thou hast found favour with God.

31 And, behold, thou p shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS.

32 He shall be great, r and shall be called the s Son of the Highest : and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne v of his father David :

33 And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever ; and to of his kingdom there shall be no end.

34 Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man ?

35 And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee ; therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called c the Son of God.

36 And, behold, thy cousin Elizabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age : and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren.

37 For e with God nothing shall be impossible.

38 And Mary said, Behold the handmaid h of the Lord ; be it unto me according h to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

39 And Mary arose in those days, and went into the hill country with haste, into m a city of Juda ;

40 And entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elizabeth.

41 And it came to pass, that, when Elizabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb ; and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost :

42 And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, Blessed p art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

 43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord a should come to me?
 44 For lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.
 45 And blessed is she ¹ that believed: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.
 46 And Mary said, My f soul doth magnify the Lord,
 47 And my spirit hath rejoiced g in God my Saviour.
 48 For he hath regarded the low i estate of his handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me k blessed.
 49 For he that is mighty m hath done to me great things; and n holy o is his name.
 50 And p his mercy is on them that fear him, from generation to generation.
 51 He q hath showed strength with his arm: he hath scattered the r proud in the imagination of their hearts.
 52 He s hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.
 53 He t hath filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he hath sent empty away.
 54 He hath holpen his servant Israel, in u remembrance of his mercy;
 55 As he spake v to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever.
 56 And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house.
 57 Now Elizabeth's full time came, that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son.
 58 And her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had shewed great mercy upon her; and they w rejoiced with her.
 59 And it came to pass, that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.
 60 And his mother answered and said, Not so; but he shall be called John.
 61 And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name.
 62 And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called.
 63 And he asked for a writing-table, and wrote, saying, His name is y John. And they marvelled all.
 64 And his mouth z was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, and praised God.
 65 And fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these 1 sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Judea:
 66 And all they that heard them laid them up c in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be? And the hand d of the Lord was with him.
 67 And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying,
 68 Blessed f be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited & redeemed his people,
 69 And hath raised up an horn of salvation g for us, in the house of his servant David;
 70 As he spake h by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began:
 71 That we should be saved i from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us;
 72 To perform the mercy k promised to our fathers, & to k remember his holy covenant, 73 The oath l which he swore to our father Abraham,

 74 That he would grant unto us, that we, being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, might serve him b without fear,
 75 In c holiness and righteousness before him, all d the days of our life.
 76 And thou, child, shalt be called the Prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go e before the face of the Lord, to prepare his ways;
 77 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people, ² by the remission of their sins,
 78 Through the tender h mercy of our God; whereby the 4 day-spring from on high hath visited us,
 79 To i give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.
 80 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Israel.
 CHAP. III.
 AND it came to pass in those days, that A father went out a decree from Cesar Augustus, that all the world should ³ be taxed.
 2 (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.)
 3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.
 4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, (because he was of the house and lineage of David,)
 5 To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.
 6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.
 7 And she x brought forth her first-born son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.
 8 And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch ⁴ over their flock by night.
 9 And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them; and they were sore afraid.
 10 And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people:
 11 For unto you a is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.
 12 And this shall be a sign unto you: Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.
 13 And suddenly there was with the angel b a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God, and saying,
 14 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, c good will toward men.
 15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the ⁵ shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.
 16 And they came with haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.
 17 And when they had seen d, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.
 18 And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.
 19 But Mary kept all these things and bonded them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

21 And when eight days were accomplished a for the circumcising of the child, his name was called JESUS, which was so named of the angel b before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when c the days of her purification, according to the law of Moses, were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord;

23 (As it is written in the law of the Lord, Every e male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord;)

24 And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtle-doves, or two young pigeons.

25 And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was just and g devout, waiting for the consolation h of Israel: and the Holy Ghost was upon him.

26 And it was revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should not see i death before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

27 And he came by the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law,

28 Then took he him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said,

29 Lord, now m lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, n according to thy word:

30 For mine eyes have seen o thy salvation,

31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people:

32 A light to lighten the q Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.

33 And Joseph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.

34 And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the fall t and rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken u against;

35 (Yea, a sword v shall pierce through thy own soul also,) that x the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.

36 And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanneel, of the tribe of Aser, she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity;

37 And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers a night and day.

38 And she, coming in at that instant, gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all that b looked for redemption in 3 Jerusalem.

39 And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth.

40 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled d with wisdom; and the grace of God was upon him.

41 Now his parents went to Jerusalem every e year at the feast of the passover.

42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem, after the custom of the feast.

43 And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother knew not of it.

44 But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among their kinsfolk and among their acquaintance.

45 And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him.

46 And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions.

47 And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding d and answers.

48 And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing.

49 And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about f my Father's business?

50 And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them.

51 And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them: but his mother kept k all these sayings in her heart.

52 And Jesus increased l in wisdom and stature, 1 and in favour with God and man.

CHAP. III.

NOW in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the tetrarch of Abilene.

2 Annas p and Caiaphas being the high priests, the word of God came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness.

3 And r he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance s for the remission of sins;

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Esaias the prophet, v saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth;

6 And y all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, O z generation of vipers! who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth, therefore, fruits 2 worthy of repentance; and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

9 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: every c tree, therefore, which bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

10 And the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then?

11 He answereth and saith unto them, He f that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12 Then came also publicans g to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do?

13 And he said unto them, Exact h no

CHAP. IV.

AND in Jesus, being full of the Holy Ghost, returned from Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness.

2 Being forty days tempted of the devil. And in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward hungered.

3 And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread.

4 And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.

5 And the devil, taking him up into a high mountain, shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.

6 And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it.

7 If thou, therefore, wilt worship me, all shall be thine.

8 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

9 And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence:

10 For it is written, He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee;

11 And in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

12 And Jesus, answering, said unto him, It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a season.

14 And Jesus went to Nazareth, and there went out a fame of him through all the regions round about.

15 And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all.

16 And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath-day, and stood up for to read.

17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Esaias. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,

18 The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me

18 And he the broken-hearted, a to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering b of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, c
 19 To preach the acceptable year d of the Lord.
 20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.
 21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.
 22 And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious f words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is g not this Joseph's son?
 23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself; whatsoever we have heard done in Capernaum, i do also here in thy country.
 24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, No k prophet is accepted in his own country.
 25 But I tell you of a truth, many l widows were in Israel in the days of Elias, when the heaven was shut up m three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land;
 26 But unto none of them was Elias sent, save unto Sarepta, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow.
 27 And o many lepers were in Israel in the time of Eliseus the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the Syrian.
 28 And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath,
 29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the brow 2 of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down s headlong.
 30 But he, passing t through the midst of them, went his way;
 31 And came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the sabbath days.
 32 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with w power.
 33 And x in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice,
 34 Saying, 3 Let us alone; what y have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I a know thee who thou art: the b Holy One of God.
 35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not.
 36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and e they come out.
 37 And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.
 38 And he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. And g Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her.
 39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she arose, and ministered unto them.
 40 Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every re of them, and healed them.

41 And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And he, rebuking them, suffered them not 2 to speak: for they knew that he was Christ.
 42 And when it was day, he departed, and went into a desert place: and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them.
 43 And he said unto them, I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also; for therefore a am I sent.
 44 And he preached in the synagogues of Galilee.

CHAP. V.

AND h it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Genesaret,
 2 And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.
 3 And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.
 4 Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Launch th out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.
 5 And Simon, answering, said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: p nevertheless, at thy word I will let down the net.
 6 And q when they had this done, they enclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake.
 7 And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help r them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.
 8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down v at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.
 9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes u which they had taken:
 10 And so w also James and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men.
 11 And when they had brought their ships to land, they forsook z all, and followed him.
 12 And c it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold, a man full of leprosy; who seeing Jesus, fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.
 13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be d thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.
 14 And he charged him to tell no man: but go and show thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, f for a testimony unto them.
 15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: and h great multitudes came together, to hear, and to be healed t y him of their infirmities.
 16 And i he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.
 17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that k there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judea, and Jerusalem; and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

13 And, a behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy; and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the house-top, and let him down through the tiling, with his couch, into the midst before Jesus.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.

21 And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?

22 But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he, answering, said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?

24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go unto thine house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, & departed to his own house, glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to-day.

27 And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 And Levi made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them.

30 But their scribes & Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans & sinners?

31 And Jesus, answering, said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick.

32 I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 And they said unto him, Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees; but thine eat and drink?

34 And he said unto them, Can ye make the children of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them?

35 But the days will come when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, & then shall they fast in those days.

36 And he spake also a parable unto them: No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old.

37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new bottles; and both are preserved.

39 No man also having drunk old wine straightway desireth new: for he saith, The old is better.

through the corn-fields; and his disciple plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And certain of the Pharisees said unto them, Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the sabbath-days?

3 And Jesus answering them said, Have ye not read so much as this, what David did, when himself was an hungred, and they which were with him;

4 How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the shew-bread, and gave also to them that were with him; which is not lawful to eat, but for the priests alone?

5 And he said unto them, That the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

6 And it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue, and taught; and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

7 And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath-day, that they might find an accusation against him.

8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose, and stood forth.

9 Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the sabbath-days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?

10 And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

11 And they were filled with madness; and murmured p one with another what they might do to Jesus.

12 And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God.

13 And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples; and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named Apostles;

14 Simon (whom he also named Peter), and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew,

15 Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon called Zelotes, 16 And Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitor.

17 And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;

18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went virtue out of him, and healed them all.

20 And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God.

21 Blessed are ye that hunger i now: for ye shall be filled. k Blessed are ye that weep l now: for ye shall laugh.

22 Blessed are ye when men shall hate m you, and when they shall separate n you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.

23 Rejoice p ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: (for in the like manner r did their fathers unto the prophets.

24 But woe unto you that are a rich ! for ye have received b your consolation.

25 Woe unto you that are full ! c for ye are full hunger.

26 Woe unto you that laugh & weep.

27 But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you ;

28 Bless them that curse you, and i pray for them which despitefully use you.

29 And m unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other ; and him o that taketh away thy cloak forbid not to take thy coat also.

30 Give q to every man that asketh of thee ; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.

31 And r as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

32 For if ye love them which love you, that thank have ye ? for sinners also love those that love them.

33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye ? for sinners also do even the same.

34 And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye ? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

35 But love ye your enemies, v and do good, and lend, u hoping for nothing again ; and your reward shall be great, and x ye shall be the children of the Highest : for he kind unto the unthankful, and to the evil.

36 Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.

37 Judge z not, and ye shall not be judged : condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned : forgive, and ye shall be forgiven :

38 Give, and it shall be given a unto you ; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. b For c with the same measure that ye mete withal, it shall be measured to you again.

39 And he spake a parable unto them : Can d the blind lead the blind ? shall they not both fall into the ditch ?

40 The e disciple is not above his master : but every one 2 that is perfect shall be as his master.

41 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye ?

42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye ? Thou hypocrite ! cast f out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.

43 For g a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit ; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

44 For h every tree is known by his own fruit : for of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes.

45 A i good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good ; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil : for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

46 And why call ye me, o Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say ?

47 Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will shew unto you whom he is like :

48 He d is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock ; and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and g could not shake it ; for it was founded upon a rock. h

49 But he k that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth : against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell ; n and the ruin of that house was great.

CHAP. VII.

NOW p when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Capernaum.

2 And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, & ready to die.

3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

4 And when they came to Jesus, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this :

5 For he loveth t our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.

6 Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble us not thyself ; for I am not worthy that thou shouldst enter under my roof :

7 Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee : but say y in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers : and I say unto 1 one, Go, and he goeth ; and to another, Come, and he cometh ; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9 When Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

11 And it came to pass the day after that he went into a city called Nain ; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow : and much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

14 And he came and touched the 3 bier : and they that bear him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, h Arise.

15 And he that was dead i sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother.

16 And there came a fear on all : and they glorified God, saying, That a great prophet m is risen up among us ; and that n God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judea, and throughout all the region round about.

18 And the disciples of John shewed him of all these things.

19 And b John, calling unto him two of his disciples, sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

21 And in the same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind he gave sight.

22 Then Jesus, answering, said unto them, Go your way, and tell f John what things ye have seen and heard; how g that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor i the gospel is preached.

23 And blessed is he, whosever shall not be offended k in me.

24 And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? n Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

27 This is he of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women, there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

29 And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified r God, being baptized s with the baptism of John.

30 But the Pharisees and lawyers 2 rejected the counsel t of God 3 against themselves, being not baptized of him.

31 And the Lord said, Whereunto u then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?

32 They are like unto children sitting in the market-place, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

33 For John the Baptist came y neither eating bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a devil.

34 The a Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold, a gluttonous man, and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicans and sinners!

35 But d Wisdom is justified of all her children.

36 And e one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat.

37 And, behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, h when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster-box of ointment, 38 And stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if a he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that touched him; for she is a sinner.

40 And Jesus, answering, said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.

41 There was a certain creditor which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred 1 pence, and the other fifty.

42 And when they had nothing e to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me, therefore, which of them will love him most?

43 Simon answered and said, I suppose that he to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly h judged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

45 Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman, since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

46 My l head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.

47 Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.

48 And he said unto her, Thy sins are forgiven.

49 And they that sat at meat with him began to say within themselves, Who is this that forgiveth sins also?

50 And he said to the woman, q Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace.

CHAP. VIII.

AND it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and showing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him;

2 And v certain women which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, out of whom went seven devils,

3 And Joanna the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, which ministered unto him z of their substance.

4 And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:

5 A s sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the wayside; and it was trodden b down, and fowls of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns; f and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundred fold. g And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be?

10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing h they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

11 Now i the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.

12 Those by the way-side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away a the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive c the word with joy; and these have no root, d which for awhile believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with e cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit f to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground are they, which, in an honest and good heart, h having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with i patience.

16 No k man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

17 For m nothing is secret that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid that shall not be known and come abroad.

18 Take o heed therefore how ye hear: for p, whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth ¹ to have.

19 Then r came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press.

20 And it was told him by certain, which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.

21 And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it.

22 Now u it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples; and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

23 But as they sailed, he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to him, and w awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish! Then he arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And they, being afraid, wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this? for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

26 And a they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, which had devils long time, and wore no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the toms.

28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee, torment e me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.)

30 And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him.

31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep. l

32 And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them: and he suffered them.

33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, g and went and told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jesus, and found the man, out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right l mind: and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils was healed.

37 Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes round about besought him n to depart from them, for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the ship, and returned back again.

38 Now the man out of whom the devils were departed, besought him that he might be with q him: but Jesus sent him away, saying,

39 Return to thine own house, s and shew how great things t God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done unto him.

40 And it came to pass, that, when Jesus was returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.

41 And, behold, there v came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue; and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house:

42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went, the people thronged him.

43 And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent x all her living upon physicians, y neither could be healed of any,

44 Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and z immediately her issue of blood stancheth.

45 And Jesus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter, and they that were with him, said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

46 And Jesus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that virtue b is gone out of me.

47 And when the woman saw that shewas not hid, c she came trembling, d and falling down before him, she declared unto him, before all the people, for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort; thy faith hath made thee whole: go in peace.

49 While f he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler g of the synagogue's house saying to him, Thy daughter is dead: trouble not the Master.

50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not i, he believeth, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Pet and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, but sleepeth.

53 And they laughed him to d scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, & called, saying, Maid, arise.

55 And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: and he commanded to give her meat.

56 And her parents were astonished; but he charged a them that they should tell no man what was done.

CHAP. IX.

THEN i he called his twelve disciples together, & gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases. 2 And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

3 And he said unto them, Take k nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.

4 And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city shake o off the very dust from your feet, for a testimony against them.

6 And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where.

7 Now q Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some that John was risen from the dead;

8 And of some, that Elias had appeared; and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again.

9 And Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things? And s he desired to see him.

10 And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place, belonging to the city called Bethsaida.

11 And the people, when they knew u it, followed him: and he received w them, & spake unto them of the kingdom y of God, and healed them that had need z of healing.

12 And a when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert d place.

13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people.

14 (For they were about five thousand men.) And he said to his disciples, g Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes; and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they did eat, and were all i filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them, twelve baskets.

18 And l came to pass, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them saying, Whom say the people that I am?

Ps. 78.8.

19 They answering said, John a the Baptist; but some say, Elias; and others say, That one of the old prophets is risen again.

20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter c answering said, The Christ of God.

21 And he straitly charged them, & commanded them to tell no man that thing;

22 Saying, The f Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day.

23 And he said to them all, If g any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

24 For whosoever will save his life, shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

25 For what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?

26 For l whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels.

27 But m I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here, which shall not a taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

28 And p it came to pass about an eight days after these t sayings, he took Peter and John and James, and went up into a mountain to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.

30 And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias, 31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 But Peter and they that were with him were heavy r with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his f glory, and the two men that stood with him.

33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it v is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing x what he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This b is my beloved Son: hear e him.

36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. And they kept it close, and told no man in those days c any of those things which they had seen.

37 And f it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.

38 And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son; for he is mine h only child:

39 And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth again; and, bruising him hardly, departeth from him.

40 And l besought thy disciples to cast him out; and they could not. k

41 And Jesus answering said, O faithless m and perverse n generation! how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither.

42 And as he was yet a coming the dev-threw him down, and tare him. And Jesus rebuked a the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.

43 And they were all amazed e at the mighty power of God. But while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples,

44 Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for g the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men. h

45 But i they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.

46 Then in there arose a reasoning among them, of which they should be greatest.

47 And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, & set him by him.

48 And said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my name, receiveth me; & whosoever shall receive me, receiveth him that sent me: for q he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 And John answered and said, Master, we s saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbade him, because he followeth not with us.

50 And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for t he that is not against us, is for us.

51 And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem.

52 And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, x to make ready for him.

53 And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.

54 And when his disciples, James & John, saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias c did?

55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.

56 For e the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

57 And g it came to pass, that as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

58 And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

59 And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer j me first to go and bury my father.

60 Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead; but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

61 And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell which are at home at my house.

62 And Jesus said unto him, No man having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

bourers into his harvest.

3 Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.

4 Carry b neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and d salute no man by the way.

5 And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house.

6 And if the son e of peace be there, your peace shall rest f upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again.

7 And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for h the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house i to house.

8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat n such things as are set before you:

9 And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The o kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

10 But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say,

11 Even the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding, be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

12 But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city.

13 Woe v unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for w if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

14 But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment, than for you.

15 And thou, Capernaum, which y art exalted to heaven, shalt be thrust z down to hell.

16 He a that heareth you, heareth me, and he b that despiseth you, despiseth me; and d he that despiseth me, despiseth him that sent me.

17 And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name.

18 And he said unto them, I beheld Satan f as lightning fall from heaven.

19 Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents h and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

20 Notwithstanding, in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written t in heaven.

21 In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight.

22 All i things k are delivered to me of my Father: and no l man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.

23 And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see:

24 For I tell you, that n many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

25 And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master what a shall I do to inherit b eternal life?

26 He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou?

27 And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself.

28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live.

29 But he, willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour?

30 And Jesus answering said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 And by chance there came down a certain priest that way; and when he saw him, he passed by h on the other side.

32 And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked l on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 But a certain Samaritan, m as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion n on him.

34 And went to him, and bound o up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35 And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again I will repay r thee.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy v on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

38 Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman, named Martha, u received him into her house.

39 And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat t at Jesus' feet, and heard his word.

40 But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me.

41 And Jesus answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art z careful and troubled about many things:

42 But one thing a is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

CHAP. XII.

AND it came to pass, that as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples.

2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name: Thy kingdom come: Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

3 Give us a day by day our daily bread:

4 And forgive us our sins; for d we also forgive every one that is indebted to us: And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves;

6 For a friend of mine e is in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him:

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.

8 I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity e he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

9 And I say unto you, Ask, h and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

10 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

11 If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if h he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

12 Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer i him a scorpion?

13 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him!

14 And p he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered.

15 But some of them said, He casteth out devils through q Beelzebub the chief of the devils.

16 And others, tempting h him, q sought of him a sign from heaven.

17 But he, knowing s their thoughts, said unto them, Every t kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house, falleth.

18 If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because y he say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub.

19 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges.

20 But if I with the finger x of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.

21 When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace:

22 But when a stronger y than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.

23 He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me, scattereth.

24 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.

25 And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished.

26 Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse c than the first.

27 And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed e is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked.

28 But he said, Yea, rather blessed f are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

29 And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign; and a there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jonas the prophet.

30 For as Jonas c was a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation.

31 The queen f of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

32 The men of Nineveh shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for i they repented at the preaching of Jonas: and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here.

33 No m man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light.

34 The o light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light: but when thine eye is evil, p thy body also is full of darkness.

35 Take heed, therefore, that the light which is in thee be not darkness.

36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, r having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when 2 the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

37 And as he spake, a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat.

38 And v when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner.

39 And the Lord said unto him, Now do u ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup & the platter; but x your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness.

40 Ye fools, did not he that made that within also?

41 But y rather give alms 4 of such things as ye have; and, behold, all things are clean unto you.

42 But woe a unto you, Pharisees! for ye tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

43 Woe unto you, Pharisees! for e ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

44 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are as f graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

45 Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying, thou reproachest us also.

46 And he said, Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens k with one of your fingers.

47 Woe unto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 Truly ye bear witness that ye allow p the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, q and ye built their sepulchres.

49 Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute;

50 That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of 52 Woe unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: h ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye 1 hindered.

53 And as he said these things unto them, the scribes and Pharisees began to urge him vehemently, and to provoke k him to speak of many things;

54 Laying wait for him, and l seeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him.

CHAP. XII.

IN n the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

2 For q there is nothing covered that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known.

3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear, in closets, shall be proclaimed upon the house-tops.

4 And I say unto you, my t friends, u Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

5 But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him which, after he hath killed, hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him.

6 Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings? 3 and not one of them is forgotten before God:

7 But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not, therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows.

8 Also I say unto you, z Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess b before the angels of God:

9 But he that denieth c me before men, shall be denied before the angels d of God.

10 And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Ghost, it shall not g be forgiven.

11 And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates and powers, take h ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say:

12 For the Holy Ghost shall teach i you in the same hour what ye ought to say.

13 And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me. 1

14 And he said unto him, Man, m who made me a judge or a divider over you?

15 And he said unto them, Take heed and beware of covetousness; n for a man's life o consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully:

17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?

18 And he said, This will r I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, b thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, & drink, and be merry.

20 But God said unto him, Thou fool! this night 1 thy e soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided? f

21 So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, g and is not rich h toward God.

22 And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Take k no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.

24 Consider the ravens: m for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn; & God feedeth them. How much more are ye better than the fowls?

25 And which of you with taking thought can add to his stature one cubit?

26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest?

27 Consider the lilies, how they grow; they toil not, they spin not: and yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grass, which is to-day in the field, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith!

29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, 4 neither be ye of doubtful mind.

30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: & your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.

31 But v rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all u these things shall be added unto you.

32 Fear not, little flock; w for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. x

33 Sell y that ye have, and give alms: provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure a in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

35 Let b your loins be girded about, and your lights c burning;

36 And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding; that, when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.

37 Blessed g are those servants whom the lord, when he cometh, shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them.

38 And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.

39 And this know, that if the good man of the house had known what hour the thief k would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through.

40 Be ye therefore ready l also: for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.

41 Then Peter said unto him, Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to all?

42 And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise steward, a whom h the lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season?

43 Blessed d is that servant, whom his lord, when he cometh, shall find so doing.

44 Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath.

45 But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat i the men-servants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken;

46 The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will 2 cut him in sunder, l and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.

47 And that servant which n knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten o with many stripes.

48 But he p that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For q unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have r committed much, of him they will ask the more.

49 I am come to send fire on the earth; and what will I if it be already kindled?

50 But I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I 3 straitened till it be accomplished!

51 Suppose s ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division:

52 For from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided three against two, and two against three.

53 The father t shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, & the daughter against the mother; the mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, & the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

54 And he said also to the people, When z ye see a cloud rise out of the west, straightway ye say, There cometh a shower: and so it is.

55 And when ye see the south wind blow, ye say, There will be heat: and it cometh to pass.

56 Ye hypocrites! ye can discern the face of the sky, and of the earth; but how is it that ye do not discern this time?

57 Yea, and why even of d yourselves judge ye not what is right?

58 When e thou goest with thine adversary to the magistrate, as thou art in f the way, give diligence that thou mayest be delivered from him; lest he hale thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and the officer cast thee into prison.

59 I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast paid the very 5 last mite.

CHAP. XIII.

THERE were present at that season some that told him of the h Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled i with their sacrifices.

2 And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered such things?

3 I tell you, Nay: but except ye repent, m ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were 6 sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem?

5 I tell you, Nay: but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 He spake also this parable: A b certain man had a fig-tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought e fruit thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig-tree, and find none: cut it down: g why cumbereth it the ground?

8 And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone A this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

9 And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that k thou shalt cut it down.

10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath:

11 And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity i eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself.

12 And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou o art loosed from thine infirmity.

13 And p he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed r on the sabbath-day, and said unto the people, There s are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath-day.

15 The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite! v doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose u his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

16 And ought not this woman, being a daughter x of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, to these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath-day?

17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: z and all the people rejoiced for all the a glorious things that were done by him.

18 Then said he, Unto c what is the kingdom of God like? And whereunto shall I resemble it?

19 It is like a grain of mustard-seed, which a man took and cast into his garden; and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

20 And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God?

21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three 1 measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

22 And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jerusalem.

23 Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, 24 Strive f to enter in at the strait gate: for g many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 When h once the Master of the house is risen up, and hath shut i to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, k Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence ye are:

26 Then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.

27 But a he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are; depart from me, all ye workers c of iniquity.

28 There d shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out.

29 And they f shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God.

30 And, behold, there e are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last.

31 The same day there came certain of the Pharisees, saying unto him, Get thee out, and depart hence: for Herod will kill thee.

32 And he said unto them, Go ye, and tell that fox, m Behold, I cast out devils, and I do cures to-day and to-morrow, and the third day i shall be n perfected.

33 Nevertheless, I must walk to-day, and to-morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that a prophet perish out of Jerusalem.

34 O q Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not!

35 Behold, t your house is left unto you desolate: and verily I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until the time come when ye shall say, Blessed w is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

CHAP. XIV.

AND it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees, to eat bread on the sabbath-day, that they watched y him.

2 And, behold, there was a certain man before him which had the dropsy.

3 And Jesus, answering, spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is b it lawful to heal on the sabbath-day?

4 And they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go;

5 And answered them, saying, d Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the sabbath-day?

6 And they could not answer him again to these things.

7 And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms; saying unto them,

8 When e thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room; lest a most honourable man than thou be bidden of him;

9 And he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.

10 But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher; then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

11 For f whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

12 Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy c rich neighbours ; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompense be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast call the e poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind :

14 And thou shalt be blessed ; for they cannot recompense thee : for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just.

15 And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed g is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.

16 Then said he unto him, A certain man made a great supper, i & bade many :

17 And sent his servants at supper-time to say to them that were bidden, Come, for k all things are now ready.

18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The m first said unto him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it : I pray thee have me excused.

19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them : I pray thee have me excused.

20 And another said, I have o married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things. Then the master of the house, being angry, p said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets & lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, & the maimed, and the halt, & the blind.

22 And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet u there is room.

23 And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel w them to come in, that my house may be filled.

24 For I say unto you, that z none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper.

25 And there went great multitudes with him : and he turned and said unto them,

26 If any man come to me, and z hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life a also, he cannot be my disciple.

27 And b whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.

28 For which of you, intending e to build a tower, sitteth not down first and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it ?

29 Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him, 30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish.

31 Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth i whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand ?

32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace.

33 So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not l that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.

34 Salt n is good ; but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned ?

35 It is neither fit for the land, nor

CHAP. XV.

THEN b drew near unto him all the publicans and sinners, for to hear him.

2 And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth d with them.

3 And he spake this parable unto them, saying,

4 What f man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it ?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me ; for I have found my sheep l which was lost.

7 I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons which n need no repentance.

8 Either what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it ?

9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoice with me ; for I have found the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise I say unto you, q there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

11 And he said, A certain man had two sons :

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living.

13 And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine y in that land ; and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country ; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks c that the swine d did eat : and no man gave unto him.

17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger !

18 I f will arise, and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against Heaven, and before thee, 19 And am so more worthy to be called thy son : make me as one of thy hired servants.

20 And he arose, and came to his father : But when he was yet a great way h off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

21 And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against Heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

22 But the father said to his servants, Bring m forth the best robe, and put it on him ; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet :

23 And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it ; and let us eat and be merry :

24 For a this my son was dead, b and is alive c again; b and was d lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.

25 Now his elder son was in the field; and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard music and dancing: f

26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant.

27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound.

28 And he was angry, l and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and entreated him.

29 And he, answering, said to his father, Lo, these many years do I o serve thee, neither transgressed p I at any time thy commandment: and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends:

30 But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.

31 And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever q with me, and all that I have is thine.

32 R he was meet r that we should make merry, and be glad: s for t this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

CHAP. XVI.

AND he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? Give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do, for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship? I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.

4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?

6 And he said, an hundred ¹ measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred ² measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.

8 And the lord commended the unjust steward because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the d children of light.

9 And I say unto you, Make f to yourselves friends of the ³ mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

10 He h that is faithful in that which is least, is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least, is unjust also in much.

11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous ³ mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?

12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?

13 No l servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

14 And the Pharisees also, who c were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him.

15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves g before men; but God h knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed i among men, is abomination in the sight of God.

16 The k law and the prophets toere until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.

17 And m it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one title of the law to fail.

18 Whosoever n putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband, committeth adultery.

19 There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day:

20 And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores,

21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover, the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it came to pass that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: u the v rich man also died, and was buried;

23 And w in hell he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom:

24 And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; y for I am tormented in this flame. z

25 But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime a receivest thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither b can they pass to us that would come from thence.

27 Then he said, I pray thee, therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house;

28 For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

29 Abraham saith unto him, They c have Moses & the prophets; let them hear them.

30 And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.

31 And he said unto him, If e they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will g they be persuaded though one rose from the dead.

CHAP. XVII.

THEN said he unto the disciples, It is impossible but that offences will come: but woe unto him thro' whom they come!

2 It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.

3 Take heed to yourselves: If thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke k him; and if he repent, forgive him.

4 And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

5 And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase c our faith.

6 And the Lord said, If d ye had faith as a grain of mustard-seed, ye might say unto this sycamore-tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.

7 But which of you, having a servant plowing, or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go, and sit down to meat?

8 And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me till I have eaten & drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat & drink?

9 Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not.

10 So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are i unprofitable servants; we have done that which was our duty to do.

11 And it came to pass, as he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria & Galilee.

12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afar off:

13 And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.

14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go show yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, as p they went, they were cleansed.

15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified g God, 16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: & he was a r Samaritan.

17 And Jesus answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine?

18 There are not s found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger.

19 And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy f faith hath made thee whole.

20 And when he was demanded of the Pharisees when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation:

21 Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, Lo there! for, behold, the y kingdom of God is within you.

22 And he said unto the disciples, The z days will come when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it.

23 And b they shall say to you, See here; or, See there: go not after them, nor follow them.

24 For as the lightning, that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall also the Son of man be in his day.

25 But d first must he suffer many things, and be rejected of this generation.

26 And as it was c in the days of Noe, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.

27 They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all.

28 Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded:

29 But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.

30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed.

31 In that day, he which shall be upon the house-top, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

32 Remember Lot's w wife.

33 Whosoever g shall seek to save his life, shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life, shall preserve it.

34 I tell you, in that night there shall be two w men in one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.

35 Two w women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, & the other left.

36 Two w men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

37 And they answered and said unto him, Where, Lord? And he said unto them, Whosoever the body is, k thither will the eagles be gathered together.

CHAP. XVIII.

AND he spake a parable unto them, A to this end, that men ought m always to pray, and not to faint:

2 Saying, There was 2 in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man:

3 And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary.

4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man;

5 Yet, because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.

6 And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith.

7 And shall not God avenge t his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

8 I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. u Nevertheless, when the Son of man cometh, shall w he find faith on the earth?

9 And he spake this parable unto certain which z trusted in themselves t that they were righteous, and despised others:

10 Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.

11 The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself: God, I thank thee that I am not a as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican:

12 I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.

13 And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote c upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for f every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

15 And g they brought unto him also p fanatics, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, b shall in no wise enter therein.

18 And c a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

19 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? None is good save one, that is, God.

20 Thou knowest the e commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure h in heaven; and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful; for he was very rich.

24 And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How k hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, The o things which are impossible with men, are possible with God.

28 Then Peter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath s left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake.

30 Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life u everlasting.

31 Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and w all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished.

32 For he shall be delivered y unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on:

33 And they shall scourge him, & put him to death: & the third day he shall rise again.

34 And z they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.

35 And it came to pass, that as he was come nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man set by the way-side, begging:

36 And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by.

38 And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy c on me.

39 And they which went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried d so much the more, Thou son of David, have mercy on me.

40 And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he asked him, 41 Saying, What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight.

42 And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight: thy f faith hath saved thee.

43 And immediately he received h his

CHAP. XIX.

AND Jesus entered and passed through A Jericho. d

2 And, behold, there was a man named Zaccheus, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

3 And he sought to see Jesus, who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycamore-tree to see him; for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw f him, and said unto him, Zaccheus, make haste, and come down; for to-day I must abide g at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That i he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

8 And Zaccheus stood, and said unto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor: l and if I have taken any thing from any man by m false accusation, I restore n him four-fold.

9 And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forasmuch as he also is a son p of Abraham.

10 For q the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost. r

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because t they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

12 He said therefore, A certain v noble man went into a far country, to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.

13 And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten 1 pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come.

14 But x his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him to whom he had given the 2 money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.

17 And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been faithful b in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, Behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin:

21 For I feared thee, because thou art *z*n austere man: thou takest up that thou laydest not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.

22 And he saith unto him, Out e of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow.

23 Wherefore g then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I

29 And b he spake to them a parable; Behold the fig-tree, and all the trees;

30 When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand.

31 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.

32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away till all be fulfilled.

33 Heaven e and earth shall pass away; but my word shall not pass away;

34 And take heed g to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, h and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.

35 For a as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

36 Watch I ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted n worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to o stand before p the Son of man.

37 And in the day-time he was teaching in the temple: and at night he went out, and abode in the mount r that is called the mount of Olives.

38 And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, for to hear him.

CHAP. XXII.

NOW t the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover.

2 And u the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people.

3 Then x entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how e might betray him unto them.

5 And they were glad, and covenanted d to give him money.

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them 1 in the absence of the multitude.

7 Then came the day f of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.

8 And he sent Peter & John, saying, Go & prepare us the passover, that we may eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?

10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water: follow him into the house where he entereth in.

11 And ye shall say unto the good man of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

12 And he shall show you a large upper room furnished: there make ready.

13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

14 And k when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

15 And he said unto them, 2 With desire I have desired to eat a the passover with you before I suffer.

16 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until l it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

17 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this and divide it among yourselves:

18 For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.

19 And c he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body, which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me d on the table.

22 And truly the Son of man goeth as it was determined: f but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed!

23 And they began to inquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

24 And i there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.

25 And he said unto them, The m kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called Benefactors.

26 But q ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.

27 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? Is not he that sitteth at meat? But s I am among you as he that serveth.

28 Ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations: v

29 And I appoint unto you a w kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me:

30 That y ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones, judging z the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath a desired to have you, that he may sift b you as wheat:

32 But i c have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art converted, strengthen e thy brethren.

33 And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison and to death.

34 And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

35 And he said unto them, When g I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment and buy one.

37 For I say unto you, That this that is written h must yet be accomplished in me, And he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords: and he said unto them, It is enough.

39 And i he came out, and went, as j he was wont, to the mount of Olives: and his disciples also followed him.

40 And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not k into temptation.

41 And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if thou be 3 willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless, not my will, but thine, be done.

43 And there appeared an angel m unto him from heaven, strengthening him.

44 And a being in an agony, he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow, 46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise & pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 And while he yet spake, behold, a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus, to kiss him.

48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

49 When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?

50 And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

52 Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, z and the power of darkness.

54 Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed afar off.

55 And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them.

56 But s a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him; and said, This man was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 And after a little while z another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of one hour after, another x confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this yellow also was with him; for he is a Galilean.

60 And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew.

61 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. And z Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before a the cock crew, thou shalt deny me thrice.

62 And c Peter went out, & wept bitterly.

63 And d the men that held Jesus mocked him, and smote him.

64 And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophecy, who is it that smote thee?

65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

66 And f as soon as it was day, the elders of the people and the chief priests and the scribes came together, and led him into their council, saying,

67 Art g thou the Christ? tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe:

68 And if I also ask you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go.

69 Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.

70 Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them, Ye say that I am.

71 And they said, What need we any further witness? for we ourselves have heard of his own mouth.

CHAP. XXIII.

AND b the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse c him, saying, We found this yellow e perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cesar, saying, that he h himself is Christ a King.

3 And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And i he answered him, and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pilate to the chief priests and to the people, I find no k fault in this man.

5 And they were the more fierce, l saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place.

6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto Herod's m jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem at that time.

8 And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for o he was desirous to see him of a long season, because p he had heard many things of him: and q he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him.

9 Then he questioned with him in many words; but r he answered him nothing.

10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him.

11 And Herod with his men of war set him at nought, t and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous u robe, & sent him again to Pilate.

12 And the same day Pilate and v Herod were made friends together; for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people,

14 Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me as one that perverteth the people; and, behold, y having examined him before you, have found ac fault in this man, touching those things whereof ye accuse him:

15 No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him: and, io, nothing worthy of death is done unto him.

16 I will therefore chastise b him, and release him.

17 (For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.)

18 And they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas:

19 (Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, e was cast into prison.)

20 Pilate therefore, willing to release Jesus, spake again to them.

21 But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him.

22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.

23 And they were instant h with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed.

24 And Pilate gave sentence that y should be as they a required.

25 And he released unto them b him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will.

26 And d as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus.

27 And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Jesus turning unto them, said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.

29 For, behold, the days h are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.

30 Then k shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.

31 For m if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

32 And there were also two others, malefactors, p led with him to be put to death.

33 And when they were come to the place which is called ¹ Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors; one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

34 Then said Jesus, Father, q forgive them; for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them r derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he be Christ, the chosen of God.

36 And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar.

37 And saying, If thou be the King of the Jews, save thyself.

38 And a superscription also was written over him, in letters of Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 And one v of the malefactors which were hanged, railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thyself and us.

40 But the other answering, rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear u God, seeing thou art in the same x condemnation?

41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing y amiss.

42 And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember a me when thou comest into thy kingdom.

43 And Jesus said unto him, Verily c I say unto thee, To-day shalt thou be with me in paradise. d

44 And it was about the sixth hour, and there was darkness over all ³ the earth until the ninth hour.

45 And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was rent in the midst.

46 And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into f thy hands I commend my spirit: and g having said thus, he gave up the ghost.

47 Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned.

49 And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

50 And, behold, there was a man named Joseph, a counsellor; and he was a good man and a just.

51 (The same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them:) he was of Arimathea, a city of the Jews; who also himself waited for the kingdom of God.

52 This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.

53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a f sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

54 And that day was the g Preparation, and the sabbath drew on.

55 And the women i also, which came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, and j prepared spices & ointment; and rested the sabbath-day, according to the commandment.

CHAP. XXIV.

NOW o upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments:

5 And, as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye ² the living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake t unto you when he was yet in Galilee,

7 Saying, the Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, be crucified, and the third day rise again.

8 And they remembered his words,

9 And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.

10 It was Mary Magdalene, and u Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles.

11 And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.

12 Then b arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

13 And, behold, two e of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs.

14 And they talked together of all these things which had happened.

15 And it came to pass, that, while they communed h together and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them.

16 But their eyes were holden, i that they should not know him.

17 And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad?

18 And the one of them, whose name was Cleopas, k answering said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days?

19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a b prophet mighty c in deed and word before God and all the people:

20 And d how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.

21 But we trusted that it had been f he which should have redeemed Israel: and besides all this, to-day is the third day since these things were done.

22 Yea, and certain women g also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre:

23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.

24 And certain h of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said; but him they saw not.

25 Then he said unto them, m O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken!

26 Ought p not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter q into his glory?

27 And beginning at Moses, t and all the prophets, u he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

28 And they drew nigh unto the village whither they went: and he w made as though he would have gone further.

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us; for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to pass as he sat at meat with them, he x took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.

31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he y vanished out of their sight.

32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn z within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were a with them.

34 Saying The Lord is risen indeed, and hath f appeared to Simon.

36 And a as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace b unto you.

37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed c that they had seen a spirit.

38 And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them d his hands and his feet.

41 And while they yet believed e he not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have f ye here any meat?

45 Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures, 46 And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ m to suffer, and to rise n a from the dead the third day.

47 And that repentance and o remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

48 And ye are witnesses p of these things.

49 And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power q from on high.

50 And he led them out as far as to Bethany; and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them.

51 And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried r up into heaven.

52 And s they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy;

53 And were continually in the temple praising t and blessing God. Amen.

The GOSPEL according to ST. JOHN.

CHAP. I.

In a the beginning was the Word, b and the Word was with c God, and the Word was e God.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

3 All f things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 In him i was life; and the life was the light k of men.

5 And the light shineth in l darkness; and the darkness comprehended m it not.

6 There was a man n sent from God, whose name was John.

7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

8 He o was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

9 That was the true Light, p which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and s the world knew him not.

11 He t came unto his own, and his own received him not.

12 But as many u as received him, to them gave he 2 power to become the sons of God, even to them v that believe on his name:

13 Which were born, to not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the Word x was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and y we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only-begotten of the Father,) full z of grace and truth.

15 John a bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom i spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: for he was before me.

16 And of his fulness b have all we received, and grace for grace.

17 For the law was given by Moses, but grace c and truth came by Jesus Christ.

18 No man hath seen God d at any time; the e only-begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 And this f is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou?

20 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou g that prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?

23 He i said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet h Esaias.

24 And they which were sent were of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet?

26 John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there standeth one n among you, whom ye know not:

27 He it is, who, coming after me, is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet

I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done in Bethabara, d beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 The next day, John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb g of God, which 1 taketh h away the sin of the world!

30 This is he of whom i said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And i knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am i come baptizing with water.

32 And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

33 And i knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining q on him, the same is he which baptizeth r with the Holy Ghost.

34 And i saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.

35 Again, the next day after, John stood, and two of his disciples;

36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God!

37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where dwellest 3 thou?

39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about 4 the tenth hour.

40 One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew Simon Peter's brother.

41 He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messiah, which is, being interpreted, 5 the Christ.

42 And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou g shalt be called Cephas, which is, by interpretation, 6 A stone.

43 The day following, Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

44 Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him of whom Moses h in the law, and the prophets did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.

46 And Nathanael said unto him, I can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see.

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold m an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile!

48 Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig-tree, i saw o thee.

49 Nathanael answered and saith un-him, Rabbi, thou a art the Son of God; thou art the King c of Israel.

50 Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig-tree, believest thou? Thou shalt see greater things than these.

51 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven d open, and the angels e of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

CHAP. II.

AND the third day there was a marriage in Cana g of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there:

2 And both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage. i

3 And k when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine.

4 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? Mine hour is not yet come.

5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatever o he saith unto you, do it.

6 And there were set there six water-pots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.

7 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the water-pots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And he saith unto them, Draw r out now, and bear unto the governor s of the feast. And they bare it.

9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was, (but the u servants which drew the water knew,) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,

10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good w wine until now.

11 This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested x forth his glory; and his disciples believed y on him.

12 After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.

13 And the Jews' passover a was at hand, and Jesus b went up to Jerusalem.

14 And found d in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting:

15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;

16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, k The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

18 Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign k shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

19 Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy m this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

20 Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

21 But he spake of the temple o of his body.

22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered b that he had said this unto them: and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast-day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

24 But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he f knew all men,

25 And needed not that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man.

CHAP. III.

THERE was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, h a ruler of the Jews:

2 The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God; for i no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except m God be with him.

3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, n Except a man be born 1 again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water p and of the Spirit, q he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That t which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born 1 again.

8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so v is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be?

10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, z We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe if I tell you of heavenly things?

13 And c no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

14 And e as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up;

15 That whosoever f believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

16 For g God so loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 For i God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

18 He l that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only-begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, that light n is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20 For every one that doeth evil, hateth

John's Testimony to Christ.

the light, neither a cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reprov'd.

21 But he that doeth c truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest that they are wrought c in God.

22 After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judea; and there he tarried with them, and f baptized.

23 And John also was baptizing in Enon, near to Salim, g because there was much water there; & h they came, & were baptized:

24 For John i was not yet cast into prison.

25 Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews, about purifying.

26 And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou m barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all o men come to him.

27 John answered and said, A p man can a receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.

28 Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, q I am not the Christ, but that r I am sent before him.

29 He that hath the bride s is the bridegroom: but the friend t of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice. This my joy therefore is fulfilled.

30 He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 He that cometh from above, v is above all: he y that is of the earth, is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: he that cometh from heaven, is above all.

32 And what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth; and no a man receiveth his testimony.

33 He that hath received his testimony hath d set to his seal that God is true.

34 For e he whom God hath sent, speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit by measure f unto him.

35 The Father loveth the Son, g and hath given all things into his hand.

36 He i that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not on the Son shall not see life; but the wrath j of God abideth on him.

CHAP. IV.

WHEN therefore the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized n more disciples than John, 2 (Though Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples,)

3 He left Judea, and departed again into Galilee.

4 And he must needs o go through Samaria.

5 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave p to his son Joseph.

6 Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour.

7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water. Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink.

8 (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.)

9 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria?—for the Jews have no dealings s with the Samaritans.

10 Jesus answered and said unto her,

Christ at the Well of Samaria.

If thou knewest the gift b of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living d water.

11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

12 Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, & drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?

13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:

14 But k whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give l him, shall never thirst: but the water that I shall give him shall be in him n a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

15 The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:

18 For thou hast had five husbands: and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly.

19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive u that thou art a prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountain: w and ye say, that in Jerusalem x is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when z ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.

22 Ye worship b ye know not what: we know what we worship; for c salvation is of the Jews.

23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit h and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

24 God k is a Spirit: & they that worship him must worship him in spirit & in truth.

25 The woman saith unto him, I know hat Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.

26 Jesus saith unto her, m I that speak unto thee am he.

27 And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her water-pot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men, 29 Come, see a man, which told me all things that ever I did: Is not this the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

31 In the mean-while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.

33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat?

34 Jesus saith unto them, My e meat k is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish r his work.

35 Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, & look on the fields, for they are white already to f harvest.

36 And he that reaped receiveth wages and gathereth fruit a unto life eternal; that both b he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.

37 And herein is that saying true, One c soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other e men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

39 And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying g of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.

40 So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.

41 And many more believed because of his own word;

42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying; for k we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world.

43 Now after two days he departed thence, and went into Galilee.

44 For Jesus himself testified, that n a prophet hath no honour in his own country.

45 Then, when he was come into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen o all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for q they also went unto the feast.

46 So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain 2 nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum.

47 When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said Jesus unto him, Except ye see signs v & wonders, ye will not believe.

49 The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die.

50 Jesus saith unto him, Go z thy way: thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

52 Then inquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

53 So the father knew that it was at the same b hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, c and his whole house.

54 This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judea into Galilee.

CHAP. V.

AFTER this there was a feast e of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. 2 Now there is at Jerusalem, by the sheep 3 market, a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, & troubled the water: whosoever then first k after the troubling of the water stepped in, was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity m thirty and eight years.

6 When Jesus saw him lie, and n knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have d no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jesus saith unto him, Rise, f take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on h the same day was the sabbath.

10 The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath-day; i it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?

13 And he that was healed wist l not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed m himself away, 1 a multitude being in that place.

14 Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin p no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

15 The man departed, & told the Jews that it was Jesus which had made him whole.

16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath-day.

17 But Jesus answered them, My s Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

18 Therefore t the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making u himself equal with God.

19 Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, 20 The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

20 For y the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even z so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed a all judgment unto the Son:

23 That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son, honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He d that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed f from death unto life.

25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead g shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

26 For as the Father hath life in himself, so hath he given to the Son to have life h in himself;

27 And hath given him authority i to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man.

28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which al that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

29 And shall come forth: they o that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation. a 30 I b can of mine own self do nothing: a I hear I judge: & my judgment is just, because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

 31 If I bear witness d of myself, my witness is not true.
 32 There is another e that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.
 33 Ye sent unto John, and h he bare witness unto the truth.
 34 But I receive not testimony from man: but i these things I say, that ye might be saved.
 35 He was a burning and a shining light: and ye were willing k for a season to rejoice in his light.
 36 But I have greater witness than that of John; for the works n which the Father hath given me to finish, n the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.
 37 And the Father p himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye q have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape.
 38 And ye have not his word r abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.
 39 Search t the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they u use u they which testify of me.
 40 And ye will not come v to me, that ye might have life.
 41 I receive not honour from z men.
 42 But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you.
 43 I am come in my Father's name, and ye perceive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive.
 44 How can ye believe, which y receive honour one of another, and seek z not the honour that cometh from God only?
 45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is a one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust.
 46 For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for he c wrote of me.
 47 But if ye d believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?
 CHAP. VI.

AFTER e these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias.
 2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.
 3 And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.
 4 And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.
 5 When Jesus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?
 6 (And this he said to prove him, for he himself knew what he would do.)
 7 Philip answered him, Two h hundred penny-worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.
 8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, 9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley-loaves and two small fishes: but what are they among i many?

 Ps. 78. 24, 25.

10 And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.
 11 And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.
 12 When they were filled, f he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing g be lost.
 13 Therefore they gathered them together, & filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley-loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.
 14 Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth that h Prophet that should come into the world.
 15 When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.
 16 And o when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea,
 17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.
 18 And the sea arose, s by reason of a great wind that blew.
 19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, & drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid.
 20 But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid.
 21 Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.
 22 The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save that one wherein his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, t yet his disciples were gone away alone.
 23 (Howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias, nigh unto the b place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks;)
 24 When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus.
 25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?
 26 Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.
 27 Labour u not for the meat which perisheth, but for that f meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him g hath God the Father sealed.
 28 Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?
 29 Jesus answered and said unto them, This i is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.
 30 They said therefore unto him, What sign a shewest thou then, that we may see and believe thee? what dost thou work?
 31 Our fathers d did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, m He gave them bread from heaven to eat.
 32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily

Verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my b Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God c is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

34 Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

35 And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he d that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he e that believeth on me shall never thirst.

36 But I said unto you, that ye f also have seen me, and believe not.

37 All i that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him k that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

38 For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but l the will of him that sent me.

39 And this is the Father's will n which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that p every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will r raise him up at the last day.

41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, Is u not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?

43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.

44 No man can come to me, except the Father, which hath sent me, draw w him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 It is written x in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man y therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

46 Not a that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is of God; b he hath seen the Father.

47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, c He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

48 I d am that bread of life.

49 Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and e are dead.

50 This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and h not die.

51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven. If any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, k which I will give for the life l of the world.

52 The Jews therefore strove among themselves, saying, How m can this man give us his flesh to eat?

53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except n ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

54 Whoso p eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, r and my blood is drink indeed.

56 He that eateth s my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth t in me, and I in him.

57 As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father; so u he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers a did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.

59 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying; who can hear it?

61 When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?

62 What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend g up where he was before?

63 It h is the Spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing; the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

64 But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew m from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I o unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.

66 From that time many of his disciples went back, q & walked no more with him.

67 Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the s words of eternal life.

69 And t we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God.

70 Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a u devil?

71 He spake of Judas Iscariot the son of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

CHAP. VIII.

AFTER these things, Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Jewry, because the Jews sought to kill him.

2 Now the Jews' feast y of tabernacles was at hand.

3 His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, shew thyself to the world.

5 For neither did his brethren f believe in him.

6 Then Jesus said unto them, My g time is not yet come: but your time is always ready.

7 The h world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.

8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; for my time is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee.

10 But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then o the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And q there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit, no man spake openly of him, for fear of the Jews.

14 Now about the midst of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.

15 And u the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned?

16 Jesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 If c any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

18 He f that speaketh of himself, seeketh his own glory: but he that a seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

19 Did not Moses i give you the law, and yet none m of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to kill n me?

20 The people answered and said, o Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel.

22 Moses g therefore gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Moses, but r of the fathers;) and ye on the sabbath-day circumcise: a man.

23 If a man on the sabbath-day receive circumcision, t that the law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at ae, because t I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath-day?

24 Judge v not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

25 Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he whom they seek to kill?

26 But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. Do y the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ?

27 Howbeit z we know this man whence he is; but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

28 Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and a I am not come of myself, but he that sent me b is true, whom c ye know not.

29 But d I know him: for I am from him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then f they sought to take him, but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

31 And many g of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done?

32 The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests ent officers to take him.

33 Then said Jesus unto them, Yet h a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.

34 Ye k shall seek me, & shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.

35 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto the dispersed among the q Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles?

36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come?

37 In the last m day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

38 He that believeth on me, as the Scripture hath said, out r of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

39 (But this spake he of the t Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)

40 Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is the Prophet.

41 Others said, This is the d Christ. But some said, Shall e Christ come out of Galilee?

42 Hath not the scripture said, That Christ g cometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, i where David h was?

43 So there was a division among the people because of him.

44 And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

45 Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, Never p man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived?

48 Have any of the rulers s or of the Pharisees believed on him?

49 But this people, who knoweth not the law, are cursed.

50 Nicodemus saith unto them, t u he that came to v Jesus by night, being one of them,

51 Doth to our law judge any man before it hear him, and know what he doeth?

52 They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search and look: for out of Galilee x ariseth no prophet.

53 And every man went unto his own house.

CHAP. VIII.

JESUS went unto the mount of Olives.

2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.

3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst,

4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now e Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?

6 This they said tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, & with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, i let him first cast a stone at her.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last; and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn n thee: go, and sin o no more.

12 Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I q am the light of the world: he that s followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou u bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.

14 Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true : for I know whence I came, and whither I go ; but a ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 Ye judge after the flesh ; I b judge no man.

16 And yet if I judge, my d judgment is true : for e I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 It is also written h in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one i that bear witness of myself, and the Father k that sent me beareth witness of me.

19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father ? Jesus answered, Ye n neither know me, nor my Father : if o ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

20 These words spake Jesus in the treasury, q as he taught in the temple : and no man laid hands on him ; for r his hour was not yet come.

21 Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and ye t shall seek me, and u shall die in your sins : whither I go, ye v cannot come.

22 Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself ? Because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.

23 And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath ; I am from above : ye are of this world ; I am not of this world.

24 I said z therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins : for z if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou ? And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.

26 I have many things to say, and to judge of you : but b he that sent me is true ; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have lifted up d the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself ; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

29 And he that sent me is with me : the Father hath not left me alone ; for I do always those things that please him.

30 As he spake these words, many g believed on him.

31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue h in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed ;

32 And ye shall know i the truth, and the truth shall make you free. l

33 They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in m bondage to any man : how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free ?

34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever o committeth sin, is the servant of sin.

35 And the servant p abideth not in the house for ever : but the Son abideth ever.

36 If q the Son therefore shall make you free, ye r shall be free indeed.

37 I know that ye are Abraham's seed : but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 I s speak that which I have seen with my Father ; and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

39 They answered and said unto him, Abraham u is our father. Jesus saith unto them, If v ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham.

40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God : this c did not Abraham.

41 Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication ; we f have one Father, even God.

42 Jesus said unto them, If g God were your Father, ye would love me : for I proceeded forth and came from God ; neither came I of myself, but i he sent me.

43 Why do ye not understand my speech ? even because ye cannot hear my i word.

44 Ye m are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode p not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own : for he is a liar, and the father of it.

45 And because s I tell you the truth, ye believe e me not.

46 Which of you convinceth v me of sin ? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me ?

47 He that is of God heareth God's words ; ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

48 Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well, that thou art a Samaritan, and y hast a devil ?

49 Jesus answered, I have not a devil ; but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.

50 And I a seek not mine own glory : there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

51 Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.

52 Then said the Jews unto him, No we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, c and the prophets ; and thou sayest, if a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.

53 Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead ? And the prophets are dead : whom makest thou thyself ?

54 Jesus answered, If e I honour myself, my honour is nothing : it is my Father f that honoureth me ; of whom ye say, that he is your God :

55 Yet ye have not known him ; but I know him : and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you : but I know him, and keep his saying.

56 Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day : and he k saw it, and was glad.

57 Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham ?

58 Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I n am.

59 Then took they up stones to cast at him : but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

CHAP. IX.

AND as Jesus passed by, he saw a man A which was blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind ?

3 Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents, but that t the works of God should be made manifest in him.

4 I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day : the night cometh, when no man can work.

Sight given to one born blind.

5 As long as I am in the world, I a am the light of the world.

6 When he had thus spoken, he e spat on the ground, and made clay of the pittle, and he i anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay,

7 And said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, g (which is, by interpretation, Sent.) He i went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

8 The neighbours therefore, & they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?

9 Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.

10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus made clay, m and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.

12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

13 They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind.

14 And it was the sabbath-day when Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes.

15 Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.

16 Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath-day. Others said, How u can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And w there was a division among them.

17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is a prophet. z

18 But the Jews did not believe a concerning him, that he had been blind and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who y e say was born blind? How then doth he now see?

20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.

22 These words spake his parents, because they h feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he i should be put out of the synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.

24 Then again called they the man that was blind, & said unto him, Give God i the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.

25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that whereas I was blind, now I see.

26 Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then they reviled o him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Moses' disciples.

29 We know p that God spake unto

The good Shepherd.

Moses: as for this fellow, we b know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered and said unto them, Why d herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened e mine eyes.

31 Now we know that God f heareth not sinners: but if h any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.

32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

33 If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.

34 They answered and said unto him, Thou k wast altogether born in sins, & dost thou teach us? And they 2 cast him out.

35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out: and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe n on the Son of God?

36 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?

37 And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and o it is he that talketh with thee.

38 And he said, Lord, I believe. p And he worshipped him.

39 And Jesus said, For q judgment I am come into this world; that they which see not r might see, and that they which see might be made blind. s

40 And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, Are we t blind also?

41 Jesus said unto them, If u ye were blind, ye *w*ould have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore x your sin remaineth.

CHAP. X.

VERILY, verily, I say unto you, y He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

2 But he that entereth in by the b door is the shepherd of the sheep.

3 To him c the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth d his own sheep by name, & leadeth e them out.

4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice. f

5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee g from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

7 Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I k am the door of the sheep.

8 All that ever came before me are thieves & robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.

9 I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

11 I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

12 But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth n the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.

13 The hireling fleeth, because he is n hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

14 I am the good shepherd, and a know my sheep, and am known b of mine.

15 As c the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and e I lay down my life for the sheep.

16 And g other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and h there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

17 Therefore doth my Father love me, because k I lay down my life, that I might take it again.

18 No man taketh it from me, but l I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and n have power to take it again. This o commandment have I received of my Father.

19 There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings.

20 And many of them said, He p hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him?

21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. Can a devil open q the eyes of the blind?

22 And it was at Jerusalem the Feast of the Dedication, and it was winter.

23 And Jesus walked in the temple, in Solomon's porch.

24 Then came the Jews round about him; and said unto him, How long dost thou make r us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.

25 Jesus answered them, I told you, & ye believed not: the x works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me.

26 But z ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.

27 My a sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:

28 And I give unto them eternal life; and they b shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.

29 My c Father, which gave d them me, is greater than all; and no e man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.

30 I e and my Father are one.

31 Then f the Jews took up stones again to stone him.

32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?

33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because g that thou, being a man, makest thyself God.

34 Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods?

35 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the Scripture cannot be broken;

36 Say ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified, i and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am l the Son of God?

37 If m I do not the works of my Father, believe me not.

38 But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works; that ye may know, and believe, that the Father n is in me, and I in him.

39 Therefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand;

40 And went away again beyond Jordan, into the place r where John at first baptized; and there he abode.

41 And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no miracle: but all things that John spake t of this man were true.

42 And many believed on him there.

NOW a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of d Mary and her sister Martha.

2 (It was that Mary which f anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he i whom thou lovest is sick.

4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but m for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.

5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judea again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late r sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?

9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If t any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But if a man walk in the night, w he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth; y but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.

13 Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

14 Then said Jesus unto them plainly Lazarus is dead:

15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless, let us go unto him.

16 Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had tien in the grave four days already.

18 (Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, 2 about fifteen furlongs off:)

19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to h comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary set still in the house.

21 Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

22 But I know, that even now, whatsoever k thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.

23 Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again.

24 Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the n resurrection at the last day.

25 Jesus said unto her, I am the o resurrection and the life: p he that believeth in me, though q he were dead, yet shall he live:

26 And whosoever s liveth & believeth in me, shall never die. Believeth thou this?

27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.

28 And when she had so said, she w her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, a saying, The Master b is come, and calleth c for thee.

29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.

31 The Jews g then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave, to weep there.

32 Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if I thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and i was troubled, 34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They say unto him, Lord, come and see.

35 Jesus wept m.

36 Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him!

37 And some of them said, Could not this man, which o opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

38 Jesus therefore, again groaning in himself, cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

39 Jesus said, Take ye away r the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time s he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days.

40 Jesus saith unto her, Said t I not unto thee, that if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God?

41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up u his eyes, and said, v Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the people which stand by, I said w it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

43 And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth!

44 And x he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with grave-clothes; and his face a was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45 Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, and had seen e the things which Jesus did, believed on him.

46 But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

47 Then g gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees z a council, and said, What h do we? for this man doeth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all k n men will believe on him; and the Romans shall come, and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them, named n Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

50 Nor consider that it is p expedient for us that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation;

52 And not r for that nation only, but r that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered d abroad.

53 Then from that day forth they took council together e for to put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly f among the Jews; but went thence into a country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim, h and there continued with his disciples.

55 And i the Jews' passover was nigh at hand; and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passover, to purify themselves.

56 Then k sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

CHAP. XII.

THEN Jesus, six days before the passover, came to Bethany, where n Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 There they made him a supper; and Martha p served: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then q took Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, & given to the poor?

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, u and had the bag, & bare what was put therein.

7 Then said Jesus, Let her alone against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

8 For x the poor always ye have with you; but y me ye have not always.

9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.

10 But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also b to death;

11 Because that c by reason of him many of the Jews went away & believed on Jesus.

12 On d the next day much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 Took branches of palm-trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Israel, that cometh in the name of the Lord!

14 And Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is i written, 15 Fear not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass' colt.

16 These things l understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, n then remembered o they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him, when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.

18 For q this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 For r this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

20 For s this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

21 For t this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

22 For u this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

23 For v this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

24 For w this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

25 For x this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive a ye how ye prevail nothing? behold the world is gone after him.
20 And there were certain c Greeks among them, that d came up to worship at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to e Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.

22 Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again, Andrew and Philip tell Jesus.

23 And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour is h come that the Son of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, i Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone; but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 He l that loveth his life, shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world, shall keep it unto life eternal.

26 If m any man serve me, let him follow me; and where o I am, there shall also my servant be: if p any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

27 Now q is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but t for this cause came I unto this hour.

28 Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a voice v from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.

29 The people therefore that stood by and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him.

30 Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but y for your sakes.

31 Now is the judgment of this world: now shall a the prince of this world be cast out.

32 And I, if I be lifted b up from the earth, will draw all c men unto me.

33 (This he said, signifying d what death he should die.)

34 The people answered him, We have heard e out of the law f that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?

35 Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light h with you. i Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he l that walketh in darkness, knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be m the children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them.

37 But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him:

38 That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, o Lord, who hath believed our report? & to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said q again,

40 He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

41 These things said Esaias, when s he saw his glory, and spake of him:

42 Nevertheless, among the chief rulers also many believed on him, but t because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:

43 For v they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

44 Jesus cried and said, He b that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me.

45 And he that seeth me, seeth him that sent me.

46 I f am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

47 And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came g not to judge the world, but to save the world.

48 He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, i hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.

49 For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.

50 And I know that his commandment n is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

CHAP. XIII.

NOW r before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour s was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having u loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.

2 And supper being ended, (the w devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him.)

3 Jesus knowing x that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that z he was come from God, & went to God;

4 He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself:

5 After that, he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter t saith unto him, Lord, dost g thou wash my feet?

7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do, thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.

8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If a I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands & my head.

10 Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all.

11 For n he knew who should betray him: therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?

13 Ye p call me Master, and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.

14 If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

15 For i have given you an example, that ye r should do as I have done to you.

16 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.

17 If u ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

18 I speak not of you all; I know whom

I have chosen: but that the a scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth bread with me, hath lifted up his heel against me.

19 Now i I tell c you before it come, that when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he.

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, g He that receiveth whomsoever I send, receiveth me; and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me.

21 When h Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one k of his disciples, whom Jesus loved.

24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.

25 He then, lying on Jesus' breast, saith unto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jesus answered, He it is to whom I shall give a 2 sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.

27 And after the sop, Satan n entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.

28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

29 For some of them thought, p because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor.

30 He then, having received the sop, went immediately out: and it was night.

31 Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now s is the Son of man glorified, and God u is glorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.

33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and, x as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come: so now I say unto you.

34 A new z commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another: as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

35 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

36 Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but thou shalt follow me afterwards.

37 Peter said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will d lay down my life for thy sake.

38 Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

CHAP. XIV.

LET e not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe g also in me.

2 In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go i to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will l come again, and receive you unto myself; that m where I am, there ye may be also.

4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

know not whether thou goest, and how can we know the way?

6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the b way, and the truth, d and the life; e no f man cometh unto the Father but by me.

7 If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

8 Philip saith unto him, Lord, show us the Father, and it sufficeth us.

9 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? He i that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Show us the Father?

10 Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? The words that I speak unto you, I speak not of myself: but the Father, that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.

12 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.

13 And m whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

15 If o ye love me, keep my commandments.

16 And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, q that he may abide with you forever;

17 Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and t shall be in you.

18 I will not leave you 2 comfortless: i u will come to you.

19 Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because to I live, ye shall live also.

20 At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.

21 If y that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me; and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father: and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

22 Judas a saith unto him (not Iscariot), Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?

23 Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words; and my Father will love him, and e we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

24 He that loveth me not, keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear, is not mine, but the Father's, which sent me.

25 These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.

26 But f the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he h shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

27 Peace h I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

28 Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I a go unto the Father: for b my Father is greater than I.

29 And now I have told you before it come to pass; that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe.

30 Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince f of this world cometh, and hath nothing g in me.

31 But that the world may know that I love the Father; and as h the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

CHAP. XV.

I AM the true vine, j and my Father is the husbandman. k

2 Every m branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that o beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 Now q ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

4 Abide t in me, and I in you. As u the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: 2 for without me ye can do nothing.

6 If w a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.

10 If a ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that c your joy might be full.

12 This d is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

13 Greater e love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14 Ye have my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

15 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you l friends: for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

16 Ye o have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained p you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain; that whatsoever r ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

17 These s things I command you, that ye love one another.

18 If t the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

19 If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

20 Remember v the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you: if w they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also 22 If d I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but e now they have 1 no cloke for their sin.

23 He that hateth me, hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done among them the works i which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father.

25 But this cometh to pass, that the world might be fulfilled that is written in their law, they l hated me without a cause.

26 But when the Comforter n is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he p shall testify of me:

27 And r ye also shall bear witness, because s ye have been with me from the beginning.

CHAP. XVI.

THESE things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended.

2 They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, v that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service.

3 And x those things will they do unto you, because y they have not known the Father, nor me.

4 But these things have I told you, that, when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now I go my way to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me Whither goest thou?

6 But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow b hath filled your heart.

7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; it is expedient for you that I go away; for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you.

8 And when he is come, he will 3 reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

9 Of sin, f because they believe not on me;

10 Of righteousness, g because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;

11 Of judgment, i because k the prince of this world is judged.

12 I have yet many things to say unto you, but m ye cannot bear them now.

13 Howbeit, when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he n will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he q will shew you things to come.

14 He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

15 All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

16 A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, A little while, 3 ye shall see me; because I go to the Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, A little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?

21 A f woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

22 And k ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and m your heart shall rejoice, and your joy n no man taketh from you.

23 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.

24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, p and ye shall receive, that q your joy may be full.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in ¹ proverbs: but the time cometh when I shall no more speak unto you in ² proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.

26 At t that day ye shall ask in my name: and I will unto you that I will pray the Father for you;

27 For u the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that x I came out from God.

28 I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world. again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

29 His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no ³ proverb.

30 Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God.

31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe?

32 Behold, a the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, ⁴ and shall leave me alone: and yet c I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 These things I have spoken unto you, that in d me ye might have peace. In e the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

CHAP. XVII.

THESE words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the g hour is come: glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee:

2 As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that h he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.

3 And this i is life eternal, that they might know k thee the l only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom m thou hast sent.

4 I n have glorified thee on the earth: I o have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self, with the glory which I q had with thee before the world was.

6 I r have manifested thy name unto the men which thou s gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me: and they have kept u thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me, are of thee.

8 For I have given unto them the word ⁵ which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

9 I pray for them: I pray not for the world, ⁶ but for them which thou has given me; for they are thine.

10 And all g mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I h am glorified in them.

11 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep i through thine own name l those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept; and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture ⁷ o might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I have given them thy word; and r the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldst take them out of the world, but s that thou shouldst keep them from the evil.

16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

17 Sanctify v them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

18 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

19 And y for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be ⁸ sanctified through the truth.

20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through thy word;

21 That they all may be one; z as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

22 And b the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one:

23 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them as thou hast loved me.

24 Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be f with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me; for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.

25 O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me.

26 And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it; that the love, wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them.

CHAP. XVIII.

WHEN Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Cedron, p where was a garden, into the which he entered, & his disciples.

2 And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place; for Jesus oft-times resorted thither with his disciples.

3 Judas ⁹ then, having received a band of men, and officers from the chief priests, and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons.

4 Jesus therefore, knowing b all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jesus of d Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they f went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.

8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, g let these go their way:

9 That the saying might be fulfilled which he spake, i (of them which thou gavest me have I lost none.

10 Then l Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

11 Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the cup m which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him, 13 And led him away to Annas o first; for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest that same year.

14 Now Caiaphas was he which gave counsel r to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 And s Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.

16 But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

17 Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not.

18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

19 The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jesus answered him, I spake w openly to the world: I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort: and y in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by struck z Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but b if well, why smitest thou me?

24 Now a Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest.

25 And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

26 One of the servants of the high priest, (being his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off,) saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied again: and a immediately the cock crew.

28 Then c led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgment: & it was early, and they themselves went not into the judgment-hall, lest e they should be defiled, but that they might eat the passover.

29 Pilate then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us h to put any man to death:

32 That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, k signifying what death he should die.

33 Then Pilate entered into the judgment-hall again; and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews?

34 Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own n nation & the chief priests have delivered thee unto me. What hast thou done?

36 Jesus p answered, My q kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear t witness unto the truth. Every one u that is of the truth, heareth my voice.

38 Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find in him no fault at all.

39 But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

40 Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas! Now Barabbas was a robber.

CHAP. XIX.

THEN v Pilate therefore took Jesus, & scourged x him.

2 And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe,

3 And said, Hail, King of the Jews! And they smote him with their hands.

4 Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that a I find no fault in him.

5 Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold, the man!

6 When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him! Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him and crucify him; for I find no fault in him.

7 The Jews answered him, We c have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because d he made himself the Son of God.

8 When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid;

9 And went again into the judgment ball, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But a Jesus gave him no answer.

10 Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? Knowest b thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?

11 Jesus answered, Thou c couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: g therefore he i that delivered me unto thee hath the greater l sin.

12 And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Cesar's friend: whosoever m maketh himself a king speaketh against Cesar.

13 When n Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment-seat, in a place that is called The Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 And q it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King!

15 But they cried out, Away with him, away with him: crucify him! Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We t have no king but Cesar.

16 Then v delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away.

17 And he bearing his cross, went forth into a place called The place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew, Golgotha;

18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.

19 And z Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin.

21 Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews.

22 Pilate answered, What I have written, I have written.

23 Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, i woven f from the top throughout.

24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, h They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did.

25 Now there stood by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of a Cleopas, k and Mary Magdalene.

26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciples standing by m whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son!

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! p And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own q home.

28 After this, Jesus, knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture s might be fulfilled, saith, r I thirst.

29 Now there was set a vessel, full of s Ps.69.21.

vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and gave it to his mouth.

30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the Ghost.

31 The Jews therefore, because it was the Preparation, f that the bodies should not remain h upon the cross on the sabbath-day, (for k that sabbath-day was a high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs:

34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came thereout blood o and water. p

35 And r he that saw it bare record, and his record is true; and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

36 For these things were done, that the scripture s should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken.

37 And again another scripture u saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 And after this, Joseph of Arimathea (being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly, for x fear of the Jews) besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus.

39 And there came also y Nicodemus, (which at the first came to Jesus by night,) and a brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about an hundred pound weight.

40 Then took they the body of Jesus, and wound b it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.

42 There c laid they Jesus therefore, because d of the Jews preparation-day; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

CHAP. XX.

THE e first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

2 Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom g Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and i we know not where they have laid him.

3 Peter i therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun l Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he, stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes n lying; yet went he not in.

6 Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie;

7 And the napkin, r that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

8 Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

9 For as yet they knew not the a scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

10 Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

11 But Mary stood without at the sepulchre, weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked e into the sepulchre.

12 And seeth two angels in white, sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.

13 And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

14 And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and h saw Jesus standing, and knew not i that it was Jesus.

15 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Mary. I She turned n herself, and saith unto him, Rabbouni; which is to say, Master.

17 Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, q and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, & s your Father; and to my t God, and your u God.

18 Mary Magdalene came v and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

19 Then w the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus, and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

20 And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. Then x were the disciples glad when they saw the Lord.

21 Then said Jesus to them again, Peace y be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so z send I you.

22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive a ye the Holy Ghost.

23 Whose soever b sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

24 But Thomas, c one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he f said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the prin' of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

26 And after eight days, again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace i be unto you.

27 Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, l and thrust it into my side: and be m not faithless, but believing.

28 And Thomas answered and said unto him, My o Lord and my God.

29 Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed q are they that have not seen, and yet believed.

30 And b many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book:

31 But c these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and d that, believing, ye might have life through his name.

CHAP. XXI.

AFTER these things Jesus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias: and on this wise shewed he himself.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and f Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons g of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples knew m not that it was Jesus.

5 Then o Jesus saith unto them, i Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.

6 And he said unto them, Cast p the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea.

8 And the other disciples came in a little ship, (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.

9 As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.

11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Jesus saith unto them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jesus d then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

14 This e is now the third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

15 So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more g than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed h my lambs.

16 He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep k.

17 He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved n because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? and he said unto him, Lord, thou p knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith un o him, Feed my sheep.

18 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, a When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall d gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 This spake he, signifying by what death e he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him,
Follow f me.

20 Then Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved, following, which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 Peter, seeing him, saith to Jesus,
Lord, and what shall this man do?

23 Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him,
He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?

24 This is the disciple which testified of these things, and wrote these things:
and g we know that his testimony is

The ACTS of the APOSTLES.

CHAP. I.

THE former treatise a have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach,

2 Unto d the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost had given commandments g unto the apostles whom he had chosen :

3 To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion, by many h infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God ;

4 And 1 being assembled together with them, commanded h them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye z have heard of me :

5 For John c truly baptized with water ; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost, p not many days hence.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt q thou at this time restore r again the kingdom to Israel ?

7 And he said unto them, It f is not for you to know the times or the seasons which the Father hath put in his own power.

8 But ye shall receive 3 power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you : and ye v shall be witnesses unto me, both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

9 And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up ; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven, as he went up, behold, two y men stood by them in white apparel ;

11 Which also said, Ye men z of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven ? This same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall b so come in like manner as ye have seen him g go into heaven.

12 Then c returned they unto Jerusalem, from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath-day's journey.

13 And when they were come in, they went up into an upper room, where abode both Peter, f and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas the brother of James.

14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the g women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.

15 And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number of the names together were about an hundred and twenty.)

16 Men and brethren ; This scripture must needs have been fulfilled which the Holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake before concerning Judas, which was guide b to them that took Jesus.

17 For he c was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ministry.

18 Now e this man purchased a field with the reward f of iniquity ; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem ; insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to say, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, Let 3 his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein : and, 1 His bishopric 2 let another take.

21 Wherefore of these men m which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, 22 Beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection.

23 And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, s who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.

24 And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, which u knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen, 25 That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.

26 And they gave forth their lots : and the lot fell upon Matthias ; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

CHAP. II.

AND when the day of Pentecost w was fully come, they x were all with one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled a all the house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues, like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them :

4 And they were all filled d with the Holy Ghost, and began e to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem, Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

6 Now 4 when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, 3 because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

7 And they were all amazed, and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak, Galileans ? h

8 And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born ?

9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia,

10 Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, & strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes, 11 Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues b the wonderful works of God.

12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What d meaneth this?

13 Others, mocking, said, These men are full of new wine.

14 But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lift up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing m it is but the third hour of the day.

16 But this is that which was n spoken by the prophet Joel:

17 And it shall come to pass in the last days, (saith God,) I will pour out o of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:

18 And on my servants and on my hand-maidens I will pour out, in those days, of my Spirit; and r they shall prophesy:

19 And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:

20 The t sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:

21 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever v shall call on the name of the Lord, shall be saved.

22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by miracles x & wonders and signs, which God did, by him in the midst of you, as ye z yourselves also know:

23 Him, being a delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye b have taken, and c by wicked hands have crucified and slain:

24 Whom e God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible g that he should be holden of it.

25 For David speaketh h concerning him, I foresaw the Lord always before my face; for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:

26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope:

27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

29 Men and brethren, 2 let me freely speak unto you of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day.

30 Therefore being m a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn n with an oath o to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne;

31 He, seeing this before, q spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption.

32 This r Jesus hath God raised up, whereof s we all are witnesses.

33 Therefore, being by the right hand of God exalted and having t received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this, a which ye now see and hear.

34 For David is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, The Lord c said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 35 Until I make thy foes thy footstool.

36 Therefore let all the house e of Israel know assuredly, that f God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord g and Christ. h

37 Now when they heard this, they were pricked i in their heart, and said unto Peter, and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what k shall we do?

38 Then Peter said unto them, I Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ, for the remission of sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.

39 For the promise p is unto you, and to your children, and q to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

40 And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation.

41 Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

42 And s they continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.

43 And fear came upon every soul: and many u wonders and signs were done by the apostles.

44 And all that believed were together, and to had all things common;

45 And sold their possessions and goods, and y parted them to all men, as every man had need.

46 And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking z bread from house to house, did eat their meal with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 Praising God, and having favour d with all the people. And f the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.

CHAP. III.

NOW Peter and John went up together into the temple at i the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour.

2 And a certain man, lame from his mother's womb, was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple;

3 Who, seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked an alms.

4 And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him, with John, said, Look on us.

5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.

6 Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none: but such as I have give I thee: In l the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk.

7 And he took him by the right hand, and lift him up: and immediately his feet and ankle-bones received strength.

8 And he, leaping p up, stood, & walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 And all the people saw him walking and praising God:

10 And they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 And, as the lame man which was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them, in the porch b that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.

12 And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own e power or holiness we had made this man to walk?

13 The God f of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, g hath glorified h his Son Jesus; whom ye delivered up, & denied i him in the presence of Pilate, when he l was determined to let him go.

14 But ye denied the Holy m One and the Just, n and desired a murderer to be granted unto you;

15 And killed the Prince of life, whom God hath raised p from the dead; whereof q we are witnesses.

16 And his name, through faith in his name, hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know; yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 And now, brethren, I wot that through ignorance t ye did it, as did also your rulers.

18 But those things, which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

19 Repent ye therefore, and be converted, y that your sins may be z blotted out, when the times of refreshing a shall come from the presence of the Lord;

20 And he b shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you:

21 Whom the heaven must receive until the times d of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken e by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.

22 For Moses truly said unto the fathers, A f Prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things, whatsoever he shall say unto you.

23 An it shall come to pass, that every soul which will not hear that Prophet shall be destroyed from among the people.

24 Yea, and all the prophets from Samuel, and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.

25 Ye f are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And n in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

26 Unto o you first, God, having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away p every one of you from his iniquities.

CHAP. IV.

AND as they spake unto the people, the priests, & the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees, r came upon them,

2 Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now even-tide.

4 Howbeit many u of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.

5 And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers and elders, and scribes,

6 And Annas a the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, & Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem.

7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By c what power, or by what name, have ye done this?

8 Then Peter, filled d with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,

9 If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole;

10 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that k by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even l by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

11 This is the stone o which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

12 Neither is there salvation in any other: for r there is none other s name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved.

13 Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned u and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.

14 And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing x against it.

15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves,

16 Saying, What c shall we do to these men? for that indeed d a notable miracle hath been done by them e is manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny f it.

17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that g they speak henceforth to no man in this name.

18 And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.

19 But Peter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God to h hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.

20 For i we cannot but speak the things which k we have seen and heard.

21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because m of the people: for all men glorified God for that which was done.

22 For the man was above forty years old on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 And being let go, they went q to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.

24 And when they heard that, they lift up r the voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, s thou art God, which hast made heaven and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is;

25 Who by the mouth of thy servant David hast said, Why t did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things?

26 The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together, against the Lord, and against his Christ.

27 For of a truth, against thy holy child Jesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod & Pontius Pilate with the Gentiles & the people of Israel¹ were gathered together.

28 For a to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined c before to be done.

29 And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, that with all d boldness they may speak thy word, 30 By stretching forth thine hand to heal; and that signs e and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy child Jesus.

31 And when they had prayed, f the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and i they spake the word of God with boldness.

32 And the multitude of them that believed were of one k heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that aught of the things which he possessed was his own; but m they had all things common.

33 And with great power o gave the apostles witness p of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace q was upon them all.

34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses, sold them, & brought the prices of the things that were sold,

35 And t laid them down at the apostles' feet; and v distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

36 And Joseph, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus, 37 Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

CHAP. V.

BUT a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, 2 And kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought x a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

3 But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan y filled thine heart z to lie to z the Holy Ghost, and a to keep a back part of the price of the land?

4 While it remained, was it not thine *b*yn? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? Why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? Thou has not lied unto men, but c unto God.

5 And Ananias, hearing these words, d fell down, and gave up the ghost: & great fear came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the young men arose, wound e him up, and carried f him out, and buried g him.

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether h ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed i together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband j are at the door, and shall carry thee out.

10 Then k she fell down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in and found her dead, and, carrying l her forth, buried m her by her husband.

11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

12 And by the hands of the apostles were n many signs and wonders wrought among the people; (and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch.

13 And o of the rest durst p no man join himself to them, but q the people magnified them.

14 And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes b both of men and women; y)

15 Inasmuch that they brought forth the sick z into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude a out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing g sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and h they were healed every one.

17 Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees, b) and were filled with a indignation.

18 And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison. n

19 But the angel of the Lord o by night: opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said, 20 Go, stand and speak in the temple x to the people all r the words s of this life.

21 And when they heard t that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But z the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned and told,

23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but u when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the high priest and the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for b they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them,

28 Saying, Did not we f straitly command you, that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood h upon us.

29 Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We thought to do God rather than men.

30 The God of our fathers raised up a Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged k on a tree.

31 Him hath God exalted m with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.

32 And we are his witnesses q of these things; & so is also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 When they heard t that, they were wroth to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.

34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space:

35 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.

36 For before these days a rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who were slain; and all, as many as b obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

37 After this man, rose up Judas of Galilee, in the days of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he d also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if of this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought:

39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it: lest haply ye be found even to fight i against God.

40 And to him they agreed: & when they had called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded m that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, & let them go.

41 And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing n that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name.

42 And daily p in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ.

CHAP. VI.

AND in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians s against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in t the daily ministration.

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It v is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables.

3 Wherefore, brethren, look y ye out among you seven men of b honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and Philip, h and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and k Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch:

6 Whom they set before the apostles: and when l they had prayed, they m laid their hands on them.

7 And o the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company of the priests q were obedient to the faith.

8 And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called The synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia and of Asia, disputing with Stephen.

10 And they were not able t to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.

11 Then they suborned u men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God.

12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council,

13 And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law:

CHAP. VII.

THEN said the high priest, Are these things so?

2 And he said, Men, e brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran.

3 And said g unto him, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which i shall shew thee.

4 Then k came he out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charran: and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell.

5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised o that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.

6 And God spake on this wise, That q his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil four r hundred years.

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and serve u me in this place.

8 And to he gave him the covenant of circumcision. And so z Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day: and Isaac z begat Jacob; and Jacob a begat the twelve patriarchs,

9 And the patriarchs, moved with c envy, sold Joseph into Egypt; but d God was with him,

10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he f made him governor over Egypt and all his house.

11 Now i there came a dearth over all the land of Egypt and Chanaan, and great affliction; and our fathers found no sustenance.

12 But z when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first.

13 And at the second time Joseph p was made known to his brethren; and Joseph's kindred was made known unto Pharaoh.

14 Then sent Joseph, and called his father Jacob to him, and all r his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls.

15 So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he, and our fathers,

16 And were carried over into Sychem, and laid in the sepulchre that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Emmor the father of Sychem.

17 But when the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people v grew and multiplied in Egypt, 18 Till another king arose, which knew not Joseph.

19 The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil-entreated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live.

20 In which time Moses x was born, and was 4 exceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months:

21 And when he was cast out, Pharaoh's laughter took him up, and a nourished him for her own son.

22 And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and b was mighty in words and in deeds.

27 And c when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel.

24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian :

25 For a he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them : but they understood not.

26 And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us ?

28 Wilt thou kill me as thou didst the Egyptian yesterday ?

29 Then fled Moses at this saying ; and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begat two sons.

30 And m when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina, an angel of the Lord, in a flame of fire in a bush.

31 When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight : and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him, 32 Saying, I am the God q of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold.

33 Then said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet ; for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

34 I have seen, I have seen, the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt.

35 This Moses, whom they refused, (saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge ?) the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer, by the hand of the y angel which appeared to him in the bush.

36 He brought them out, after z that he had shewed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red Sea, and in the wilderness, forty c years.

37 This is that Moses which said e unto the children of Israel, A Prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, l like unto me; him g shall ye hear.

38 This h is he that was in the church in the wilderness, with the angel j which spake to him k in the mount Sina, and with our fathers ; who i received m the lively oracles to give unto us :

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt,

40 Saying o unto Aaron, Make us gods to go before us : for as for this Moses, which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

41 And they made a calf q in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

42 Then God turned, and s gave them up to worship the t host of heaven : as it is written u in the book of the prophets, O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts, and sacrifices, by the space of forty years in the wilderness ?

43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made, to worship them : & I will carry you away beyond Babylon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, 1 speaking unto Moses, that d he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen.

45 Which e also our fathers 2 that came after, brought in with Jesus into the possession of the Gentiles, whom f God drove out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of David ;

46 Who found favour g before God, and desired h to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob.

47 But Solomon i built him an house.

48 Howbeit, k the Most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands ; as saith the prophet, 49 Heaven l is my throne, and earth is my footstool : what house will ye build me ? saith the Lord : or what is the place of my rest ?

50 Hath not my hand made all these things ?

51 Ye stiffnecked, n and uncircumcised o in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost : as your fathers did, so do ye.

52 Which p of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted ? And they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of the Just r One, of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers :

53 Who have received the law by s the disposition of angels, and have not kept it.

54 When they heard these things, t they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth.

55 But he, being v full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, 56 And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and x the Son of man standing on the right hand of God.

57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord, 58 And cast a him out of the city, and stoned him : and the witnesses b laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was d Saul.

59 And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive f my spirit !

60 And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay i not this sin to their charge ! And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

CHAP. VIII.

AND Saul n was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem ; and they were all scattered p abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles.

2 And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him.

3 As for Saul, he r made havoc of the church, entering into every house ; and haling men and women, committed them to prison.

4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad, went every where preaching the word.

5 Then Philip a went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them.

6 And the people with one accord b gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing, d and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For e unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, i & that were lame, k were healed.

8 And there was great joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man called Simon, which beforetime in the same city used sorcery, m and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out n that himself was some great one:

10 To whom o they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched p them with sorceries.

12 But when they believed q Philip preaching the things r concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

13 Then Simon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles t and signs which were done.

14 Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John:

15 Who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Ghost:

16 For as yet x he was fallen upon none of them; only they were y baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

17 Then laid a they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost.

18 And when Simon saw, that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Ghost was given, he offered them c money, 19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost.

20 But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because e thou hast thought that the gift f of God may be purchased with money.

21 Thou hast neither part g nor lot in this matter: for h thy heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness; i & pray God, if k perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee:

23 For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, l and m in the bond m of iniquity.

24 Then answered Simon, and said, Pray o ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.

26 And the angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south, unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, s which is desert.

27 And he arose and went: and, behold, a man of Ethiopia, t an u eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come v to Jerusalem for to worship, 28 Was returning; and, sitting, in his chariot, read Esaias the prophet.

29 Then c the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.

30 And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Esaias, and said, Understandest f thou what thou reatest?

31 And he said, How g can I, except some man should guide h me? And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him.

32 The place of the scripture which he read was this, i He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man.

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began s at the same scripture, and t preached unto him Jesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth u hinder me to be baptized?

37 And Philip said, If v thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I w believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him.

39 And when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord z caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.

40 But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through, he preached in all the cities, till he came to Cesarea.

CHAP. IX.

AND Saul, yet d breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,

2 And desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that, if he found any of a this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.

3 And i as he journeyed, he came near Damascus; and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven:

4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? n

5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus, whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kick p against the pricks.

6 And he, trembling and astonished, said, Lord, what q wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

7 And the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but r seeing no man.

8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.

9 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

10 And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; a & to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul of Tarsus: for behold, he prayeth, 12 And hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man e how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem:

14 And here he f hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call h on thy name.

15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for i he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before k the Gentiles, and kings, l and the m children of Israel.

16 For I will shew him how great things he must suffer n for my name's sake.

17 And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; & putting o his hands on him, said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and p be filled with the Holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales; and he received sight forthwith, and arose, & was baptized.

19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard him were v amazed, said, Is not this he who destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, & came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, y and confounded the z Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ.

23 And after that many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel c to kill him.

24 But their laying await was known of Saul. And they watched g the gates day and night, to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night, & let i him down by the wall, in a basket.

26 And when Saul was come k to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

27 But Barnabas m took him, & brought him to the apostles, & declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, & that he had spoken to him, & how he had preached boldly p at Damascus in the name of Jesus.

28 And he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem.

29 And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the Grecians: but q they went about to slay him.

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Cesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 Then r had the churches rest s throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria, and were edified; u and walking v in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort w of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied. z

32 And it came to pass, as Peter passed throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there he found a certain man named Eneas, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy.

34 And Peter said unto him, Eneas, Jesus Christ maketh b thee whole; arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt in Lydda and c Saron saw him, and turned d to the Lord.

36 Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called e Dorcas: this woman was full g of good works and alms-deeds which she did.

37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom, when they had washed, they laid h in an upper chamber.

38 And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring i him that he would not 2 delay to come to them.

39 Then Peter arose, and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made while q she was with them.

40 But Peter put r them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed: and turning him to the body, said, Tabitha, s arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

41 And he gave her his hand, and lift her up: and when he had called the saints and widows, he u presented her alive.

42 And it was known throughout all Joppa; and x many believed in the Lord.

43 And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in Joppa with one Simon a tanner.

CHAP. X.

THERE was a certain man in Cesarea, called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band.

2.2 devout a man, & one that feared b God with all d his house, which gave much alms to e the people, and prayed f to God always.

3 He saw in a vision evidently, about the ninth hour of the day, an angel h of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius.

4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial t before God.

5 And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter.

6 He lodgeth with one Simon n a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: h e shall tell thee o what thou oughtest to do.

7 And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually:

8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

9 On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went t up upon the house top to pray about the sixth hour:

10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance.

11 And saw a heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet, knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth;

12 Wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat.

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is d common or unclean.

15 And the voice spake unto him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, f that call not thou common.

16 This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven.

17 Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius had made inquiry i for Simon's house, and stood before the gate.

18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 While Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit p said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.

20 Arise q therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.

21 Then Peter went down to the men which were sent unto him from Cornelius; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause whereto ye are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius u the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and of good report x among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel, to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain a brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 And the morrow after they entered into Cesarea. And Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends.

25 And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him.

26 But Peter took him up, saying, Stand up; i myself also am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said unto them, Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing g for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but God hath shewed me h that I should not call any man common or unclean.

29 Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying, as soon as I was sent for. I ask, therefore, for what intent ye have sent for me?

30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house; and behold, a man stood before me k in bright clothing.

31 And said, Cornelius, thy l prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter: he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner, by the sea side; who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.

33 Immediately therefore I sent to thee. And thou hast well done that thou art come. Now b therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God c is no respecter of persons:

35 But in e every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

36 The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace g by Jesus Christ; (he is h Lord of all):

37 That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Judea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached:

38 How God anointed h Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power; who i went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed m of the devil: for n God was with him.

39 And we o are witnesses of all things which he did, both in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree.

40 Him God raised up r the third day, and shewed h in openly;

41 Not s to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before t of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.

42 And he commanded us v to preach unto the people, and to testify that u it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead.

43 To him y give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever z believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

44 While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost b fell on all them which heard the word.

45 And they c of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost:

46 For they heard them speak d with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can f any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we?

48 And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

CHAP. XI.

AND the apostles and brethren that were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they i that were of the circumcision contended with him,

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them.

4 But Peter rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it by order unto them, saying,

5 I was in the city of Joppa, praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descended, as it had been a great sheet let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me:

6 Upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

7 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Peter; slay, and eat.

8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And, behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Cesarea unto me.

12 And the Spirit g bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover, these six brethren accompanied me; and we entered into the man's house:

13 And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter;

14 Who shall tell thee these words, h whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, as i on us at the beginning.

16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, John l indeed baptized with water; but m ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost.

17 Forasmuch then as God gave o them the like gift as he did unto us who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, what p was I, that I could withstand God?

18 When they heard these things, they held them peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life.

19 Now they t which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen, travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but u unto the Jews only.

20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which, when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the Grecians, v preaching the Lord Jesus.

21 And the x hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned z unto the Lord.

22 Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, a that he should go as far as Antioch.

23 Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, c and exhorted d them all, that with purpose e of f heart they would cleave unto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full g of the Holy Ghost, and of faith: and h much people was added unto the Lord.

25 Then i departed Barnabas to Tarsus, for to seek Saul:

26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves k with the church, and taught m much people. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

27 And in these days came o prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch.

28 And there stood up one of them, named Agabus, p and signified by the Spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of Claudius Cesar.

20 Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send a relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea:

30 Which also they did, & b sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

CHAP. XII.

NOW about that time, Herod the king stretched 1 forth his hands to vex certain of the church.

2 And he killed James c the brother of John with the sword.

3 And because he saw it pleased d the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter e also. Then were the days f of unleavened bread.

4 And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers, to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

5 Peter therefore was kept in prison; but 2 prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains; and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

7 And, behold, the angel k of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, & raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And n his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals: and so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out, and followed him; and wist not q that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he saw a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city, which opened to them of his own accord; and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety that the Lord hath sent to his angel, and hath y delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

12 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark; where many b were gathered together, praying.

13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came 3 to hearken, named Rhoda.

14 And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, & told how Peter stood before the gate.

15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It is his angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.

17 But he beckoning l unto them with the hand, to hold their peace, declared n unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto James, & to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.

18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judea to Cesarea, and there abode.

20 And Herod a was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus 2 the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace; because their d country was nourished by the king's country.

21 And upon a set day, Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is h the voice of a god, and not of a man.

23 And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

24 But the word of God grew l and multiplied.

25 And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their 4 ministry, and took with them John, whose surname was Mark.

CHAP. XIII.

NOW there were in the church that was at Antioch, certain prophets and teachers, as Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, 6 which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

2 As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate s me Barnabas and Saul for the work u whereunto I have called them.

3 And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

4 So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: & they had also John to their minister.

6 And when they had gone through the isle unto Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-jesus:

7 Which was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.

8 But Elymas the screeer (for so is his name by interpretation) z withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

9 Then Saul (who also is called Paul), filled with the Holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?

11 And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about, seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the deputy, r en he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia; and John departing d from them, returned to Jerusalem.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue f on the sabbath-day,

15 And after the reading a of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have any word b of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand, said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give audience.

17 The God of this people of Israel chose c our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt e as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with an f high arm brought he them out of it.

18 And about the time of forty g years suffered 3 he their manners in the wilderness.

19 And when he had destroyed i seven nations in the land of Canaan, he k divided their land to them by lot.

20 And after that, he gave unto them judges, m about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet.

21 And afterward they n desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul o the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of forty years.

22 And when p he had removed him, he raised up unto them David q to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, I have found David the son of Jesse, a man r after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will.

23 Of this man's seed hath God, according to his promise, t raised up to Israel u a Saviour, Jesus:

24 When John to had first preached, before his coming, the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And as John fulfilled his course, he said, Whom think ye that I am? I am not he: but, behold, there some one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loose.

26 Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you x is the word of this salvation sent.

27 For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath-day, they y have fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate that he should be slain.

29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre.

30 But God raised him from the dead:

31 And he was seen a many days of them which came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses unto the people.

32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise b which was made unto the fathers, 33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou c art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said unto this wise: I will give you the sure 6 mercies of David.

35 Wherefore he saith also in e another psalm, Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

36 For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, a fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption :

37 But he, whom God c raised again, saw no corruption.

38 Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through e this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins :

39 And by him, f all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you which is spoken of in h the prophets;

41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish : for I work a work in your days, a work which you shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

42 And when the Jews were gone out of i the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the j next sabbath.

43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas : who speaking to them, persuaded them to continue m in the grace of God.

44 And the next sabbath-day came almost the whole city together, to hear the word of God.

45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting s and blaspheming.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, it was necessary that the word of God should first u have been spoken to you : but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we x turn to the Gentiles.

47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, y I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldst be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord : and z as many as were ordained to eternal life, believed.

49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and b raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coats.

51 But they shook c off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium.

52 And the disciples were filled with joy, d and with the Holy Ghost.

CHAP. XIV.

AND it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude, both of the Jews and also of the Greeks, believed.

2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil-affected against the brethren.

3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, which g gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided : and h part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles.

5 And when there was an assault, made both of the Gentiles and also of the Jews, with their rulers, to use them despitefully, and to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and fled unto Lystra, and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about :

7 And there they preached the gospel.

8 And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a d cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked :

9 The same heard Paul speak ; who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith g to be healed,

10 Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped i and walked.

11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lift up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The k gods are come down to us, in the likeness of men.

12 And they called Barnabas, Jupiter ; and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and l would have done sacrifice with the people.

14 Which when the apostles, Barnabas & Paul, heard of, they n rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

15 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things ? We o also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you, that ye should turn from these vanities p unto q the living God, which made r heaven and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein :

16 Who t in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 Nevertheless, v he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain to from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

19 And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, and having a stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city : and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and h had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch, 22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue e in the faith, and that f we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

23 And when they had ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia :

26 And thence sailed to Antioch, a from whence they had been recommended to i the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed j all that God had done with them, and how he had opened m the door of faith unto the Gentiles.

28 And there they abode long time with the disciples.

CHAP. XV.

A. D. 53.

AND a certain men, which came down from Judea, taught the brethren, and said, Except c ye be circumcised after d the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved. 2 When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small disension and disputation with them, they determined that e Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem, unto the apostles and elders, about this question. 3 And being g brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice and Samaria, declaring the conversion l of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy m unto all the brethren. 4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles & elders; & they n declared all things that God had done with them. 5 But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying, p That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses. 6 And the apostles and elders came together, q for to consider of this matter. 7 And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know t how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe. 8 And God, which v knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us; 9 And put no difference between us and them, purifying u to their hearts by faith. 10 Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put a yoke x upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? 11 But we believe that through z the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they. 12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought b among the Gentiles by them. 13 And after they had held their peace, James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me: 14 Simeon hath declared c how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name. 15 And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written, f 16 After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up: 17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things. 18 Known k unto God are all his works, from the beginning of the world. 19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles are turned l to God: 20 But that we write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of n idols, and from fornication, o and from things strangled, and from r blood. 21 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being s read in the synagogues every sabbath-day: 22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch, with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed Barsabas, b and Silas, chief men among the brethren: 23 And wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles, and elders, and brethren, send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch, and Syria, and Cilicia: 24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain f which went out from us have troubled h you with words, i subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom k we gave no such commandment: 25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you, with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, 26 Men that have hazarded o their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. 27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by 2 mouth. 28 For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden r than these necessary things; 29 That ye abstain s from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep u yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well. 30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle: 31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the 3 consolation. 32 And Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed y them. 33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let go a in peace from the brethren unto the apostles. 34 Notwithstanding, it pleased Silas to abide there still. 35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also. 36 And some days after, Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren in d every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do. 37 And Barnabas determined to take with them John e whose surname was Mark. 38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, who departed g from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work. 39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: & so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus: 40 And Paul chose Silas, and departed, being recommended i by the brethren unto the grace of God. 41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming k the churches. CHAP. XVI. THEN came he to Derbe m & Lystra: and, behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timotheus, p the son of a q certain woman, which was a Jewess, and believed; but his father was a Greek: 2 Which was well t reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium. 3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and took and circumcised him, a because of the Jews b which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek.

4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, that were ordained c of the apostles and elders which were at Jerusalem.

5 And so were the churches g established in the faith, & increased in number daily.

6 Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia and the region of i Galatia, and were forbidden of k the Holy Ghost to preach the word in l Asia,

7 After they were come to Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia: but the Spirit suffered them not.

8 And they passing by Mysia, came down to o Troas.

9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a man p of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us.

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go s into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

11 Therefore loosing from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis; is 1 the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony. And we were in that city abiding certain days.

13 And on the 2 sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer a was wont to be made: & we sat down, & spake unto the women which resorted thither.

14 And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart b the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul.

15 And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought d us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us.

16 And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed f with a spirit of 2 divination met us, which brought her masters much gain h by soothsaying:

17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high j God, which shew unto us the way of i salvation.

18 And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said m to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ, to come out of her. And n he came out the same hour.

19 And when her masters saw that the hope of their gains o was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into 4 the market-place, unto q the rulers,

20 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble s our city,

21 And teach customs which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans.

22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, & commanded to beat them.

23 And when they had laid many v stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailer to keep them safely:

24 Who having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.

25 And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, c and sang d praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so f that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately h all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed.

27 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

28 But m Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself n no harm; for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, q and fell down before Paul and Silas:

30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what r must I do to be saved?

31 And they said, Believe t on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy u house.

32 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, & to all to that were in his house.

33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat y before them, and rejoiced, z believing in God with all his house.

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the serjeants, saying, Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.

37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, c being Romans, and have cast us into prison: and now do they thrust us out privily? nay, verily; but let them come themselves, e and fetch us out.

38 And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared, when they heard that they were Romans.

39 And they came and besought g them, and brought them out, and desired i them to depart out of the city.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lydia: k and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

CHAP. XVII.

NOW when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews:

2 And Paul, as his manner was, v went in unto them, and three sabbath-days reasoned with them out of the Scriptures.

3 Opening and alleging, that Christ must r needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this 5 Jesus, whom I preach unto you, is Christ.

4 And some t of them believed, and s consorted with Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assailed the house of Jason, se and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These c that have turned the world upside down, are come hither also ;

7 Whom Jason hath received : & these all d : contrary f to the decrees of Cesar, saying, That there is another king, one Jesus.

8 And they troubled h the people, and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go.

10 And the brethren immediately sent away m Paul & Silas by night unto Berea : who coming thither, went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more n noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness q of mind, and searched the scriptures s daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed : also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few.

13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up v the people.

14 And then immediately the brethren sent away w Paul, to go as it were to the sea : but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Athens : and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus x for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, y his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city z wholly given to idolatry.

17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout a persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain philosophers b of the Epicureans, and of the Stoics, encountered him. And some said, What wilt this c babblersay ? Other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods : because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.

19 And they took him, and brought him into d Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new f doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is ?

20 For thou bringest certain i strange things to our ears : we would know therefore what these things mean.

21 (For all the Athenians, and strangers which were there, spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell or to hear some new thing.)

22 Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' g Hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious. h

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, i I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

24 God, k that made the world, and all things therein, seeing that he is l Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth p not in temples made with hands ;

25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though q he needed any thing ; seeing he r giveth to all life, and breath, and a all things ;

26 And hath made of one b blood all nations of men, for to dwell on all the face of the earth ; and hath determined the times d before appointed, and the bounds e of their habitation ;

27 That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though g he be not far from every one of us :

28 For in i him we live, and move, and have our being ; as k certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

29 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not l to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

30 And the times of this ignorance God winked o at, but now p commandeth all men every where to repent :

31 Because he hath appointed r a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness, by that man whom he hath ordained ; whereof he hath given assurance t unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

32 And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, u some mocked : and others said, We will hear thee again v of this matter.

33 So Paul departed from among them. 34 Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed : among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

CHAP. XVIII.

AFTER these things, Paul departed x from Athens, and came to Corinth.

2 And found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla ; (because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome ;) and came unto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and c wrought : for by their occupation they were tent-makers.

4 And he reasoned in the d synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks.

5 And when e Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus was Christ.

6 And when they opposed g themselves, and blasphemed, he shook h his raiment, and said unto them, Your j blood be upon your own heads : i am clean : from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles.

7 And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.

8 And k Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord, with all his house : and many of the Corinthians hearing, believed, and were baptized.

9 Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace :

10 For I m am with thee, and no man shall set on thee, to hurt thee : for I have much people in this city.

11 And he s continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accost against Paul, and brought him to the judgment-seat, a 13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.

14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong, or wicked lawfulness, O ye Jews, I reason would that I should bear with you :

15 But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, I look ye to it ;
for I will be no judge of such matters.

16 And he drave them from the judgment-seat.

17 Then all the Greeks took n Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment-seat. And Gal-lio cared for none of those things.

18 And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila ; having shorn s his head in Cenchrea : t for he had a vow.

19 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there : but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned v with the Jews.

20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not ;

21 But bade them farewell, saying, I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem : y but I will return again unto you, if z God will. And he sailed from Ephesus.

22 And when he had landed at Cosarea, and gone up, and saluted the church, he went down to Antioch.

23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of Galatia h and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples.

24 And a certain Jew named d Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus.

25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord ; and being fervent f in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing g only the baptism of John.

26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue : whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more k perfectly.

27 And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him : who, when he was come, helped m them much which had believed n through grace :

28 For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publicly, shewing by p the scriptures that Jesus i was Christ.

CHAP. XIX.

AND it came to pass, that while Apollos r was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts, came to Ephesus ; and finding certain disciples, q He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed ? And they said unto him, We have not u so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost.

3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized ? And they said,
Unto v John's baptism.

4 Then said Paul, John x verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, y saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.

him, that is, on Christ Jesus.

5 When they heard this, they were baptized in the name b of the Lord Jesus.6 And when Paul had laid c his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them ; d and they spake with tongues, and e prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 And he went into the synagogue, and spoke boldly for the space of three months, disputing, h and persuading i the things concerning the kingdom of God.9 But when divers were hardened, k and believed not, but spake evil of l that m way before the multitude, he departed o from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus.10 And this continued by the space p of two years ; so that all they which dwelt in Asia q heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.11 And God wrought special r miracles by the hands of Paul :12 So that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs u or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.13 Then certain of the vagabond Jews exorcists, took upon them to v call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure x you by Jesus, whom Paul preacheth.14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.15 And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know ; but who are ye ?16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was, leapt a on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus ; and fear c fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.18 And many that believed, came, and confessed, h and shewed their deeds.19 Many also of them which used curious arts, brought their books together, and burned them before all men : and they counted the price of them, and found i fifty thousand pieces of silver.20 So mightily grew s the word of God, and prevailed.21 After t these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome.22 So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timothe-us and Erastus ; q but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.23 And the same time there arose u small stir s about that way.24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for Diana, brought no small t gain unto the craftsmen ;25 Whom he called v together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.26 Moreover, ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and w drew away much people, saying that z the gods which are made with hands

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, c and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world e worshippeth.

28 And when they heard e these sayings, they were full of wrath, g and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians!

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught Gaius h and Aristarchus, h men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring m him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some o therefore cried one thing, and some another; for the assembly was confused: and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander p beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice, about the space of two hours, cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians!

35 And when the town-clerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men q of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is a 1 worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and do e nothing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, who are neither u robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess.

38 Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, 2 the law is open, and there are deputies: let them implead one another.

39 But if ye inquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a 3 lawful assembly.

40 For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly. x

CHAP. XX.

AND after the uproar f was ceased, Paul a called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and departed, for to go h into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much k exhortation, he came into Greece,

3 And there abode three months. And when the Jews laid wait n for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia, Sopater of Berea; and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus q and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe, and r Timotheus; and of Asia, Tychicus s and Trophimus.

5 These going before, tarried for us at Troas.

6 And we sailed away from Philippi after the days a of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas b in five days; where we abode seven days.

7 And upon the first d day of the week, when the disciples came together to break f bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were many lights in the upper i chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down, and fell i on him, and embracing him, said, n Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go about.

14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium; and the next day we came to Miletus.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia; for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to be r at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost.

17 And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,

19 Serving the Lord with all w humility of mind, and with many tears, x and temptations, y which befel me by z the lying in wait of the Jews:

20 And how a I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publicly, and b from house to house,

21 Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance c toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 And now, behold, I go e bound in the Spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing g the things that shall befall me there:

23 Save that the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying i that bonds and afflictions 4 abide me.

24 But none l of things these move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself so that I might m finish my course with joy, and the ministry o which I have received p of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day that I am pure from the blood of all men.

27 For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel u of God.

28 Take heed a therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you e overseers, to feed d the church of God, which he hath purchased e with his own blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves g enter in among you, not sparing h the flock.

30 Also of i your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch, k & remember, that, by the space of three years I ceased not to warn m every one night and day with tears.

32 And now, brethren, I command you to God, and to the word of his grace, which n is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance o among all them which are sanctified.

33 I p have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.

34 Yea, ye yourselves r know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to u support the weak; and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It v is more blessed to give than to receive.

36 And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled y down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all wept sore, and z fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him;

38 Sorrowing most of all for the a words which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

CHAP XXI.

AND it came to pass, that after we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course unto Coos, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara;

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: who said f to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem.

5 And when we had accomplished those days, we departed and went our way: and they all brought us on our way with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and we kneeled h down on the shore, and prayed.

6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned home again.

7 And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day, we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Caesarea: and we entered into the house of Philip n the evangelist, o which was one of the seven; and p abode with him.

9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, which r did prophesy.

10 And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Judea a certain prophet, named Agabus.

11 And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So b shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, f besought him not to go up to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul a answered, What mean ye to weep and to break my heart? for I am ready j not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.

14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.

15 And after those days we took up our carriages, and went up to Jerusalem.

16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Caesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, q with whom we should lodge.

17 And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received s us gladly.

18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto James; t and all the elders were present.

19 And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what v things God had wrought among the Gentiles by x his ministry.

20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord; and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all zealous b of the law:

21 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise c their children, neither to walk after the customs.

22 What is it therefore? The multitude must needs come d together: for they will hear that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this that we say to thee. We have four men which have a vow on them;

24 Them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may shave e their heads: and all may know, that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law.

25 As touching the Gentiles which believe, we g have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul took i the men; and the next day purifying himself with them, entered j into the temple, to signify the accomplishment k of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews (which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid m hands on him.

28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help: this is the man that p teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place; and further, brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 (For they had seen before with him in the city, Trophimus: as Ephesus, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took

Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut.

31 And as they were about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar: 32 Who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.

35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers, for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him!

37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek?

38 Art not thou that Egyptian, which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?

39 But Paul said, I am a man which am a Jew of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people.

40 And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the stairs, & beckoned with the hand unto the people: and when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

CHAP. XXII.

MEN, a brethren, & fathers, hear ye my defence, h which I nakenow untoyou.

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he saith,)

3 I am a verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city, at the feet of d Gamaliel, and taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and was g zealous towards God, as ye h all are this day.

4 And I persecuted i this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, k to bring them which were there, bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished.

6 And it came to pass, that as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

9 And they that were with me saw m indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.

12 And one Ananias, b a devout man according to the law, having a good report of all the Jews which dwell there, 13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

14 And he said, The God of our fathers hath chosen g thee, that thou shouldest know his will, & see h that Just i One, and shouldest hear the voice j of his mouth.

15 For thou k shalt be his witness unto all men, of what thou hast seen and heard.

16 And now, why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash m away thy sins, calling n on the name of the Lord.

17 And it came to pass, that when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance; p

18 And saw r him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord, they s know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee:

20 And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I t also was standing by, and consenting u unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

21 And he said unto me, Depart: for x I will send thee far hence, unto the Gentiles.

22 And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lift up their voices, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for z it is not fit that he should live.

23 And as they cried out, and cast o their clothes, and threw dust into the air, 24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, e and uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have 2 examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because l he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, & commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

CHAP. XXIII.

AND Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, I n have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.

2 And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him to smite him o on the mouth.

3 Then saith Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall : for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and commandest me to be smitten a contrary to the law ?

4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest ?

5 Then said Paul, I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest : for it is written, b Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, I c am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee : of d the hope and resurrection of the dead I e am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees : and the multitude was divided.

8 For the Sadducees e say that there is no resurrection, neither angel nor spirit : but the Pharisees confess both.

9 And there arose a great cry : and the scribes f that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, We find g no evil in this man : but if a spirit h or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not i fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 And the night following, the Lord stood p by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul : for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome. q

12 And when it was day, certain r of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves, s under a curse, saying, that they would neither eat nor drink t till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief u priests, and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore ye, with the council, signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to-morrow, as though ye would inquire something more perfectly concerning him : and we, or ever he come near, are ready y to kill him.

16 And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he a went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then c Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain ; for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner e called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me ?

20 And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to-morrow into the council, as though they would inquire somewhat of him n ore perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield k unto them :

for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him : and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Caesarea, and horsemen three-score and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night ;

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner :

26 Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor Felix sendeth greeting.

27 This man f was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them : then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman.

28 And i when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council :

29 Whom I perceived to be accused of questions l of their law, but to have nothing m laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds.

30 And when n it was told me, how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and gave o commandment to his accusers also, to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle :

33 Who, when they came to Caesarea, and delivered the epistle t to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

34 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of Cilicia ; v

35 I will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers w are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in x Herod's judgment-hall.

CHAP. XXIV.

A N After five days, Ananias z the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed b the governor against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds d are done unto this nation by thy providence,

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.

5 For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, f and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes :

6 Who also hath gone about to profane h the temple : whom we took, and would have judged i according to our law.

7 But the chief j captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers a to come unto thee: by examining of whom, thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

10 Then Paul, after that the 1 governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer c for myself:

11 Because that thou mayest understand that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to d Jerusalem for to worship.

12 And they neither e found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

13 Neither can they prove f the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confess unto thee, that after the way which they call heresy, so h worship I the God of i my fathers, believing all things which are k written in the law and l the prophets:

15 And have hope m toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection n of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

16 And herein do I exercise myself, to have o always a conscience void of offence toward God and toward men.

17 Now, after many years, I came p to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

18 Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult:

19 Who ought to have been here q before thee, *o*bject, if they had aught against me.

20 Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil-doing in me, while I stood before the council:

21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead, I am called in question by you this day.

22 And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them; and said, When Lysias s the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, u and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or to come unto him.

24 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

25 And as he reasoned of v righteousness, temperance, w and judgment x to come, Felix trembled, z and answered, Go a thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.

26 He hoped also that money b should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

27 But after two years, Porcius Festus came into Felix' room: and Felix, willing to shew d the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

ed from Cesarea to Jerusalem.

2 Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,

3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying b wait in the way to kill him.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept a: Cesarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them a more than ten days, he went down unto Cesarea; and the next day, sitting in the judgment-seat, commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which g they could not prove.

8 While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cesar, have I offended any thing a all.

9 But Festus, willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cesar's judgment-seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal r unto Cesar.

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Cesar? unto Cesar shalt thou go.

13 And after certain days, king Agrippa and Bernice came unto Cesarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:

15 About whom, when i I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore when y they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment-seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 But c had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because 3 I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the¹ hearing of Augustus. I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cesar.

22 Then Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man myself. Tomorrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

23 And on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with great a pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Festus' commandment Paul b was brought forth.

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all d the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying that f he ought not to live any longer.

25 But when I found that he had committed nothing h worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed i to Augustus, I have determined to send him.

26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that, after examination had, I might have somewhat to write.

27 For r it seemeth to me unreasonable, to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him.

CHAP. XXVI.

THEN Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself:

2 I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee, touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews:

3 Especially, because I know thee to be expert w in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear y me patiently.

4 My manner z of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews;

5 Which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after the most straitest sect of our religion, I lived a Pharisee. b

6 And now c I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise d made of God unto our fathers:

7 Unto which promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving e God 2 day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews.

8 Why f should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?

9 I i verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

10 Which thing I also did in k Jerusalem: and many of the saints d I shut up in prison, having received authority l from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

11 And I punished them oft in m every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

12 Whereupon as I went n to Damascus, with authority and commission from the chief priests, 13 At mid-day, O king, I saw in this way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister e and a witness e both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto g whom now I send thee;

18 To open h their eyes, and to turn l them from darkness to light, and from the power m of Satan unto God; that they may receive forgiveness n of sins, and inheritance o among them which are p sanctified, by faith q that is in me.

19 Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:

20 But shewed s first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works t meet for repentance.

21 For these causes the Jews u caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which v the prophets and Moses did say should come:

23 That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first x that should rise from the dead, and should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad. a 25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus, but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.

28 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou p persuadest me to be a Christian.

29 And Paul said, I would A to God that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them.

31 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death, or of bonds.

32 Then said Agrippa unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed unto Cesar.

CHAP. XXVII.

AND when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered

Paul a and certain other prisoners unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band.

2 And entering into a ship of Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia; one Aristarchus, f a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under Crete, ¹ over against Salmoke;

8 And, hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called the fair havens; ² nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because the fast ³ was now already past, Paul admonished them,

10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive m that this voyage will be with ³ hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

11 Nevertheless, the centurion n believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crete, r and lieth toward the south-west and north-west.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing s thence, they sailed close by Crete.

14 But not long after there ⁴ arose against it a tempestuous t wind, called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a certain island which is called Claudia, we had much work to come by the boat;

17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and fearing lest they should fall u into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.

18 And being exceedingly tossed v with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;

19 And the third day we cast out w with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither y sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope z that we should be saved was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened b unto me, and not have loosed c from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.

22 And now d I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

23 For there stood by me this night b the angel c of God, whose d I am, and whom e I serve, 24 Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Cesar: and, lo, God hath given thee g all them that sail with thee.

25 Wherefore, Sirs, be of good cheer; for h I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

26 Howbeit, we must be cast upon a certain island. k

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in l Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country:

28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest they should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished l for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship, 31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat; for this o is for your health: for there p shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and q gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.

37 And we were in all in the ship, two hundred threescore and sixteen souls.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the land; but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.

40 And when they had ⁵ taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder-bands, and hoisted up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore.

41 And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' counsel x was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

43 But the centurion, willing to save Paul, a kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so e it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land.

CHAP. XXVIII.

A. D. 62-65.

AND when they were escaped, then a they knew that the island a was called Melita.

2 And the barbarous b people shewed us no little kindness : for they kindled a fire, and received us d every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt h this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

5 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and felt i no harm.

6 Howbeit, they *l*oked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly : but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said m that he was a god.

7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius ; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

8 And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever, and of a bloody flux : to whom r Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid s his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed.

10 Who also honoured u us with many honours ; and when we departed, they laded us with such things u, as were necessary.

11 And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was Castor and Pollux.

12 And landing at Syracuse, we tarried there three days.

13 And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhegium : and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli ;

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days : and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came y to meet us as far as Appii Forum, and the Three Taverns : whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage. z

16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard : but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself b with a soldier that kept him.

17 And it came to pass, that after three days Paul called the chief of the Jews together : and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though c I have committed nothing against the people or customs of our fathers, yet was i delivered e prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans :

18 Who, when f they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to appeal g unto Cæsar ; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you : because that for the hope i of Israel I am bound with this chain. k

21 And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Judea concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came shewed or spake any harm of thee.

22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest : for as concerning this sect, we know that every where n it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging ; o to whom he expounded p and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, both q out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.

24 And some t believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word ; Well spake the Holy Ghost by Esaias v the prophet unto our fathers,

26 Saying, Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand ; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive :

27 For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed ; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

28 Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, x and that they will hear it.

29 And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had great reasoning among themselves.

30 And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and received all that came in unto him, 31 Preaching a the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

The Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the ROMANS.

CHAP. I.

PAUL, a servant of a Jesus Christ, called b to be an apostle, separated c unto the gospel of God,

2 (Which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures,)

3 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made f of the seed of David according to the flesh ;

4 And l declared h to be the Son of God with power, according to the Spirit i of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead :

5 By whom we have received grace and apostleship, a for obedience l to the faith among all nations, for his name :

6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ :

7 To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called n to be saints : Grace o to you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith q is spoken of throughout the whole world.

9 For God is my witness, whom r I serve with 4 my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing s I make mention of you always in my prayers ;

10 Making request if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by t the will of God to come unto you.

11 For u I long to see you, that v I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end you may be established :

12 That is, that I may be comforted together with 4 you by the mutual w faith both of you and me.

13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but was let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit 4 among you also, even as among other Gentiles.

14 I am debtor x both to the Greeks and to the Barbarians, both to the wise and to the unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.

16 For I am not ashamed y of the gospel of Christ : for it is the power z of God unto salvation, to every one that believeth ; b to e the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

17 For therein d is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith : as it is written, e The just shall live by faith.

18 For the wrath f of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness :

19 Because that which may be known of God is manifest in 9 them ; for h God hath shewed it unto them.

20 For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things m that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead ; 10 so that they are without excuse.

21 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful, but became vain d in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened :

22 Professing themselves to be wise, they e became fools,

23 And changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image g made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things.

24 Wherefore God also gave k them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies themselves :

25 Who changed the truth of God m in to a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more 3 than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

26 For this cause God gave them up unto vile p affections : for even their women did change their natural use into that which is against nature :

27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the women, burned in their lust one toward another ; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.

28 And even as they did not like 6 to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to 6 a reprobate mind to do those things which are not convenient ;

29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness ; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity ; whisperers, 30 Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful ; proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

31 Without understanding, covenant-breakers, without 7 natural affection, implacable, unmerciful :

32 Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but 8 have pleasure in them that do them.

CHAP. II.

THEREFORE thou art inexcusable, O man, whosever thou art that judgest : for a wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself ; for thou that judgest, doest the same things.

2 But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth, against them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God ?

4 Or despisest thou the riches g of his goodness and forbearance i and long-suffering, k not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth l thee to repentance ?

5 But, after thy hardness and impenitent heart, treasurest n up unto thyself wrath, against the day of wrath, and o revelation of the righteous judgment of God :

6 Who a will render to every man according to his deeds :

7 To them, who, by patient continuance in well doing, seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life :

8 But unto them that are c contentious, and d do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness ; indignation and wrath,

9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the ¹ Gentile :

10 But glory, g honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the ¹ Gentile :

11 For h there is no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as have sinned without law, shall also perish without law : and as many as have sinned in the law, shall be judged by the law ;

13 (For k not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

14 For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law m unto themselves :

15 Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their ² conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts the ⁴ mean while accusing, or else excusing, one another ;)

16 In the day when God shall judge the secrets o of men, by Jesus Christ, according to my p gospel.

17 Behold, thou q art called a Jew, & restest in the law, and makest thy boast of God,

18 And knowest r his will, and ⁵ approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law ;

19 And art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness,

20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, which hast the form x of knowledge and of the truth in the law :

21 Thou y therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself ? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal ?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery ? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrifice ?

23 Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God ?

24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written, c

25 For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law : but e if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.

26 Therefore if g the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision ?

27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, i judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law ?

28 For he k is not a Jew, which is one outwardly ; neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh :

29 But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly ; and circumcision is that of the heart, m in the spirit, and not in the letter ; whose praise n is not of men, but of God,

WHAT advantage then hath the Jew ? or what profit is there of circumcision ?

2 Much every way : chiefly, because that unto them b were committed the oracles of God.

3 For what, if some c did not believe ? Shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect ?

4 God forbid : yea, let God be true, but every man a liar ; as it is written, f That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

5 But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say ? Is God unrighteous, who taketh vengeance ? (I speak as a man.)

6 God forbid : for then how i shall God judge the world ?

7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory, why yet am I also judged as a sinner ?

8 And not rather (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say) Let us do evil, that good may come ? whose damnation is just.

9 What then ? are we better than they ? No, in no wise : for we have before proved ³ both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin ;

10 As it is written, n There is none righteous, no, not one :

11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable ; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

13 Their t throat is an open sepulchre, with their tongues they have used deceit ; the poison u of asps is under their lips :

14 Whose mouth v is full of cursing and bitterness.

15 Their feet w are swift to shed blood :

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways :

17 And the way of peace have they not known :

18 There z is no fear of God before their eyes.

19 Now we know, that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law ; that every a mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become ⁶ guilty before God.

20 Therefore b by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight : for by the law is the knowledge c of sin.

21 But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law d and the prophets ;

22 Even the righteousness of God, which is by faith f of Jesus Christ, unto all and upon all them that believe : for there is no difference ;

23 For all h have sinned, and come short of the glory of God ;

24 Being justified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus :

25 Whom God hath ⁷ set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the ⁸ remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God ;

26 To declare, i say at this time, his righteousness : that j he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

27 Where k boasting then ? It is at cluded. By what law? of works? Nay; but by the law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude that b a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

29 Is he the God of the Jews only? c is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:

30 Seeing it is one God, which d shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

31 Do we then make void the law through f faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

CHAP. IV.

WHAT shall we then say that Abraham, our father h as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

2 For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath i whereof to glory; but not j before God.

3 For what saith the scripture? o Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

4 Now to him that worketh q is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith t is counted for righteousness.

6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,

7 Saying, v Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.

10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And u he received the sign of circumcision; a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had, yet being uncircumcised; that he might be the father d of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:

12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had, being yet uncircumcised.

13 For the promise, that i he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For if l they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:

15 Because the law n worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all,

17 (As it is written, r I have made thee a father of many nations.) 4 before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those u things which be not as though they were.

18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, a So shall thy seed be.

19 And being not weak in faith he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness c of Sarah's womb:

20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God;

21 And being fully persuaded that what he had promised he was able e also to perform.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

23 Now g it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;

24 But for us i also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe k on him that raised u up Jesus our Lord from the dead; 25 Who was delivered m for our offences, and was raised n again for our justification.

CHAP. V.

THEREFORE p being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:

2 By whom r also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice s in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not only so, but we glory u in tribulations also; knowing that tribulation worketh patience;

4 And patience, experience; and experience, hope;

5 And hope w maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost, x which is given unto us.

6 For when we were yet without strength, y in due time Christ died for the ungodly

7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die; yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

8 But God commendeth his love towards us, in that, while z we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

9 Much more then, being now justified by his blood, b we shall be saved from c wrath through him.

10 For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much e more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by f his life.

11 And not only so, but we also joy in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the 2 atonement.

12 Wherefore, as h by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, 3 for that all have sinned.

13 (For until the law, sin was in the world: but sin is not k imputed when there is no law.)

14 Nevertheless, death reigned m from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who is the p figure of him that was to come:

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead; much more the grace q of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many. s

16 And not as t was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment v was by one to condemnation; but the free gift is of many v offences unto justification.

17 For if 3 by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance a of grace, and of the gift b of righteousness, shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ :) A. D. 60.

18 Therefore, as 1 by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so 2 by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all e men unto justification of life.

19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

20 Moreover, g the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more i abound :

21 That a sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace n reign, through righteousness, unto eternal life, by Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VI.

WHAT shall we say then? Shall n we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

2 God forbid. How shall we, that are dead p to sin, live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not, that so many of us as were 3 baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into r his death?

4 Therefore we are buried s with him by baptism into death; that like t as Christ was raised up from the dead by the u glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness v of life.

5 For if w we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection :

6 Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body z of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

7 For b he that is dead is 6 freed from sin.

8 Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him :

9 Knowing that Christ, d being raised from the dead, dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, he died e unto sin once; but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead h indeed unto sin, but alive i unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let k not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lust thereof.

13 Neither yield ye your members l as instruments 9 of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield m yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

14 For sin shall not have o dominion over you : for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then? Shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that to whom ye q yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin : but ye have obeyed from the heart that form s of 11 doctrine which was delivered you.

18 Being then made free t from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.

19 I speak after the manner of men, because of the infirmity of your flesh : for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity, unto iniquity; y even so now yield your members servants to righteousness, unto holiness.

20 For when ye were the servants c of sin, ye were free 2 from righteousness.

21 What fruit d had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end f of those things is death.

22 But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness; and the end, everlasting life.

23 For h the wages of sin is death; but the gift k of God is eternal life, l through Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VII.

KNOW ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For o the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband, so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

3 So then, if, while q her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress; but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law x by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit y unto God.

5 For when we were in z the flesh, the motions 5 of sin, which were by the law, did work in our members, to bring forth fruit c unto death.

6 But now we are delivered from the law, 7 that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, I had not f known sin, but by the law : for I had not known lust, 8 except the law had said, g Thou shalt not covet.

8 But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For without the law, sin was dead.

9 For I was alive without the law once : but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

10 And the commandment, which was ordained to life, n I found to be unto death.

11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, & by it slew me.

12 Wherefore the law p is holy; and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual; but I am carnal, sold r under sin.

15 For that which I do, I allow 10 not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law, that it is good.

17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that in me, (that is, in my flesh) dwelleth no u good thing: but will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.

19 For a the good that I would, I do not; but the evil which I would not, that I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I find then a law, that when I would do good, evil is present with me.

22 For I delight in the law of God after the inward man:

23 But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.

24 Oh wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death?

25 I thank God, through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then, with the mind I myself serve the law of God, but with the flesh the law of sin.

CHAP. VIII.

THERE is, therefore, now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God, sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin condemned sin in the flesh:

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

6 For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace:

7 Because the carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

15 For ye have not received the Spirit of bondage again, to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

16 The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God.

17 And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; as if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon, that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.

20 For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope;

21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the first-fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

24 For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen, is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doeth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

27 And he searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God.

28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

29 For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the first-born among many brethren.

30 Moreover, whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?

32 He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth.

34 Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

36 As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

37 Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors, through him that loved us.

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

CHAP. IX.

I SAY the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost.

2 That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.

3 For I could wish that myself were accursed ¹ from Christ for my brethren, my kinsman according to the flesh :

4 Who are Israelites ; to whom pertaineth the adoption, ^c and the glory, ^d and the ^e covenants, ^f and the giving of the law, ^g and the ^h service of God, and the promises ; i

5 Whose are the fathers, ^l & of whom, ^m as concerning the flesh, Christ came, who is ⁿ over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.

6 Not as though the word of God hath taken ^q none effect. For ^r they are not all Israel which are of Israel :

7 Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, ^{are} they all children : but, In ^u Isaac shall thy seed be called.

8 That is, they which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God : but the children ^v of the promise are counted for the seed.

9 For this is the word of promise, At ^w this time will I come, & Sarah shall have a son.

10 And not only ^x this ; but when Rebecca ^y also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac ;

11 (For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God, according to election, might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth;) b

12 It was said unto her, The ^z elder shall serve the ^a younger :

13 As it is written, a Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.

14 What shall we say then ? Is ^c there unrighteousness with God ? God forbid.

15 For he saith to Moses, I ^d will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.

17 For the scripture saith ^e unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will ^{have} mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault ? for who ^h hath resisted his will ?

20 Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest ⁱ against God ? Shall ^m the thing formed say to him that formed ^u, Why hast thou made me thus ?

21 Hath not the potter ⁿ power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour ?

22 What ^q if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much long-suffering the vessels ^s of wrath ^a fitted to destruction ;

23 And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which to he had afore prepared unto glory,

24 Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles ?

25 As he saith also in Osee, ^x I will call them my people, which were not my people ; and her beloved, which was not beloved.

place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people ; there shall they be called the children of the living God.

27 Esaias also a crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved.

28 For he will finish ² the work, and cut it short in righteousness : because ^c a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.

29 And as Esaias said before, ^k Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, we ⁿ had been as Sodom, and been made like unto Gomorrah.

30 What shall we say then ? that ^p the Gentiles, which followed : not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith ;

31 But Israel, which ^t followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness.

32 Wherefore ? Because ^{they sought it} not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law : for they stumbled at that stumbling-stone ;

33 As it is written, ^x Behold, I lay in Sion a stumbling-stone and rock of offence : and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ⁴ ashamed.

CHAP. X.

BRETHREN, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

2 For I bear them record, that they have a zeal ^z of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant ^b of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

4 For Christ is the end ^e of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

5 For Moses describeth ^f the righteousness which is of the law, That the man which doeth those things shall live by them.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, Say ^g not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven ? (that is, to bring Christ down from above) :

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep ? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.)

8 But what saith it ? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart :

9 That is, the word of faith which we preach.

10 That if ⁱ thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart ^l that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

11 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness ; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

12 For the scripture saith, ^o Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

13 For ^p there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek : for ^r the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him.

14 For ^t whosoever shall call ^u upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

15 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed ? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard ? and how shall they hear without a preacher ?

16 And how shall they preach, except they be sent ? as it is written, ^y How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But a they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, b Lord, who hath believed 2 our 3 report?

17 So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes, verily, their d sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.

19 But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, f I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish g nation I will anger you.

20 But Esaias is very bold, and saith, h I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

21 But to Israel he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

CHAP. XI.

I SAY then, Hath m God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. n Wot ye not what the scriptures saith 4 of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, o saying,

3 Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life

4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

5 Even so s then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

6 And if by grace, u then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

7 What then? Israel w hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were 8 blinded,

8 (According as it is written, God hath given them the spirit of 9 slumber, z a eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear) unto this day.

9 And David saith, Let b their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumbling-block, and a recompence unto them:

10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, 8 bow down their back alway.

11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, g for to provoke them to jealousy.

12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the 10 diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles, how much more their fulness?

13 For I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as I k am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office;

14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and might save m some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?

16 For if p the first-fruit be holy, the lump is also holy; and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

17 And if some of the branches r be broken off, and thou, s being a wild olive-tree, wert grafted in 1 among them, and with them partakest of the root and fulness of the olive-tree;

18 Boast c not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in. 20 Well; because of unbelief they were broken off; and thou standest by faith. Be not high-minded, but fear: e

21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God; on them which fell, severity; but towards thee, goodness; if i thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou k also shalt be cut off.

23 And they also, if l they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again.

24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive-tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive-tree; how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive-tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits, that blindness 8 in part p is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles becomen.

26 And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, r There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:

27 For t this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved v for the fathers' sakes.

29 For the gifts and calling of God are without 8 repentance.

30 For as ye in times y past have not believed 7 God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief:

31 Even so have these also now not believed, 7 that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.

32 For God c hath 9 concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

33 O d the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable e are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

34 For f who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?

35 Or h who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?

36 For i of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to 11 whom be glory for ever. Amen.

CHAP. XII.

I BESEECH you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies 1 a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

2 And n be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove o what is that good, and acceptable, & perfect will of God.

3 For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself, more q highly than he ought to think; but to 12 think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure a of his faith.

4 For as we have many b members in one body, and all members have not the same office;

5 So we, being many, are one body d in Christ, and every one members one of another.

6 Having then gifts differing f according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;

7 Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering; or he that teacheth, on teaching;

8 Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that ¹ giveth, let him do it ² with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness. k

9 Let love be without dissimulation. l Abhor m that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

10 Be kindly p affectioned one to another ⁴ with brotherly love; in honour preferring s one another;

11 Not slothful in business; u fervent v in spirit; serving w the Lord;

12 Rejoicing y in hope; patient z in tribulation; continuing b instant in prayer;

13 Distributing c to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality. d

14 Bless e them which persecute you: bless, and curse not.

15 Rejoice f with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

16 Be g of the same mind one toward another. Mind h not high things, but condescend ⁶ to men of low estate. i Be not wise in your own conceits.

17 Recompense l to no man evil for evil. Provide m things honest in the sight of all men.

18 If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably p with all men.

19 Dearlly beloved, avenge q not yourselves; but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, r Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

20 Therefore if s thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

21 Be t not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

CHAP. XIII.

LET every soul be subject v unto the higher powers. For there w is no power but of God: the powers that be are ⁹ ordained of God.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? q do y that which is good, & thou shalt have praise of the same:

4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

5 Wherefore *e*ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience's sake.

6 For, for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 Render therefore to all b their dues; tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for c he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

9 For this, Thou e shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, g Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour, therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

11 And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake h out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us n therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put o on the armour of light.

13 Let us walk ³ honestly, q as in the day; not in rioting r and drunkenness, not in chambering t and wantonness, not in strife and envying.

14 But put x ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make a not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

CHAP. XIV.

HIM that is weak in the faith receive ye, but ⁵ not to doubtful disputations.

2 For one believeth that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs.

3 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth; for God hath received him.

4 Who k art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God n is able to make him stand.

5 One o man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully ⁷ persuaded in his own mind.

6 He that ⁸ regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord; for he giveth God thanks: and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not and giveth God thanks.

7 For u none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

9 For x to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.

10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment-seat of Christ.

11 For it is written, z As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

12 So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling-block or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing ¹⁰ unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be ¹⁰ unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 But if thy brother be grieved with the meat, now walkest thou not ¹¹ charitably.

Christianity recommended.

Destroy a not him with thy meal, for whom Christ died.

16 Let not then your good be evil spoken of.

17 For d the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, f and peace, g and joy i in the Holy Ghost.

18 For he that in these things serveth Christ, is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

19 Let i us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and n things wherewith one may edify another.

20 For meat destroy not the work of God. All things indeed are pure; but it is q evil for that man who eateth with offence.

21 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

22 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy t is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

23 And he that d doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever v is not of faith is sin.

CHAP. XV.

WE then that are strong ought to v bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

2 Let every one of us please his neighbour y for his good to edification.

3 For even Christ a pleased not himself; but, as it is written, b The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.

4 For whatsoever d things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.

5 Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like-minded e one toward another, s according to Christ Jesus;

6 That ye may with one g mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received k us, to the glory of God.

8 Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm l the promises made unto the fathers;

9 And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, o For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name.

10 And again he saith, q Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.

11 And again, r Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people.

12 And again Esaias saith, s There shall be a root u of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all v joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power f of the Holy Ghost.

14 And I myself also am persuaded z of *y*u, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, y able also to admonish one another.

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because a of the grace that is given to me of God,

16 That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the i offering b up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified c by the Holy Ghost.

17 I have therefore whereof I may glory e through Jesus Christ in those things h which pertain to God.

18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make k the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed, 19 Through mighty signs m and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I o have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, r lest I should build upon another man's foundation:

21 But, as it is written, s To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand.

22 For which cause also I have been much u hindered u from coming to you; 23 But now having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come unto you;

24 Whensoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be z brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled u with your company.

25 But now I go u unto Jerusalem, to minister unto the saints.

26 For it hath pleased them of Macedonia c and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem.

27 It hath pleased them, verily; and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty f is also o to minister unto them in carnal things.

28 When, therefore, I have performed this, and have sealed to them this fruit, h I will come by you into Spain.

29 And I am sure that, when i I come unto you, I shall come in the fullness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

30 Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the m love of the Spirit, that ye strive n together with me in your prayers to God for me;

31 That p I may be delivered from them that o do not believe in Judea; and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be accepted of the saints;

32 That I may come unto you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed.

33 Now the God of peace t be with you all. Amen.

CHAP. XVI.

I COMMEND unto you Phebe our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at Cenchrea;

2 That ye receive w her in the Lord, as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you: for she hath been a succourer of many, and of myself also.

3 Greet Priscilla z and Aquila, my helpers in Christ Jesus:

4 Who have for my life laid down their own necks: unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles.

5 Likewise greet the church that is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received, not c the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is of God; that e we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

13 Which things also we speak, not f in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

14 But the natural man receiveth h not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 But he i that is spiritual ¹ judgeth all things, yet he himself is ² judged of no man.

16 For who m hath known the mind of the Lord, that he ⁴ may instruct him? But we have n the mind of Christ.

CHAP. III.

AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you as p unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes r in Christ.

2 I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto t ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnal: for whereas u there is among you envying, and strife, & divisions, ⁵ are ye not carnal, & walk ⁶ as men?

4 For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal?

5 Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even x as the Lord gave to every man?

6 I have planted, Apollos watered; but God z gave the increase.

7 So then neither a is he that planteth any thing, neither b he that watereth, but God that giveth the increase.

8 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man c shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

9 For we are labourers together d with God: ye are God's ⁹ husbandry, ye are God's building, f

10 According g to the grace of God which is given unto me, ¹⁰ as a wise master-builder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

11 For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, i which is Jesus Christ.

12 Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

13 Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall ¹⁴ be revealed by fire; & the l fire shall try every man's work, of what sort it is.

14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.

16 Know ye not that ye p are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man ¹⁷ defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

18 Let no man deceive himself. q If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God: for it is written, s Ho taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

20 And again, b The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.21 Therefore let d no man glory in men: for all things are yours;

22 Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours;

23 And ye g are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

CHAP. IV.

LET a man so account of us, as of the ministers i of Christ, and stewards n the mysteries of God.

2 Moreover, it is required in stewards, k that a man be found faithful.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that ¹ should be judged of you, or of man's judgment; yea, I judge not mine own self;

4 For I know nothing by myself; o yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

5 Therefore judge q nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who s both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God.

6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes; that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.

7 For who ⁷ maketh thee to differ from another? y and what y hast thou that thou didst not receive? Now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?

8 Now ye are full, now ye are rich, b ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For I think that God hath set forth us the 8 apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we e are made a ¹⁰ spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

10 We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised.

11 Even unto this present hour we both hunger and thirst, h & are naked, h & are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling-place;

12 And labour, j working with our own hands: being reviled, k we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it:

13 Being defamed, we entreat: we are made as the filth of the earth, and are the off-scouring m of all things unto this day.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons, n I warn you.

15 For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers; for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.

16 Wherefore, I beseech you, be ye followers of me.

17 For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach every-where in every church.

18 Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you.

19 But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will; and will know, not the speech of them, which are puffed up, but a the power.

20 For the kingdom b of God is not in word, but in power.

21 What will ye? shall e I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

CHAP. V.

IT is reported commonly that there is f fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that g one should have his father's wife.

2 And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, h that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.

3 For I verily, as absent k in body, but present in spirit, have i judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed;

4 In the name o of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power p of our Lord Jesus Christ,

5 To deliver s such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the u spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

6 Your glorying y is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven z leaveneth the whole lump?

7 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ b our passover is a sacrificed for us:

8 Therefore let us keep 4 the feast, c not with old leaven, neither with the e leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in an epistle h not to company with fornicators:

10 Yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world.

11 But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if l any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat.

12 For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? o do not ye judge them that are within?

13 But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore put away p from among yourselves that wicked person.

CHAP. VI.

DARE any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?

2 Do ye not know that the saints r shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?

4 If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. Why do ye not rather take c wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded? d

8 Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren.

9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived; neither f fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And such i were some of you; but ye are washed, j but ye are sanctified, m but ye are justified n in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not 2 expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power q of any.

13 Meats r for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both t and them. Now the body is not for f fornication, but for the Lord, v and the Lord w for the body.

14 And God x hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power.

15 Know ye not that your bodies are the members a of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid!

16 What! know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? for two, d saith he shall be one flesh.

17 But he that is joined unto the Lord is one f spirit.

18 Flee g fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body.

19 What! know ye not that your i body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not k your own?

20 For ye are bought m with a price: therefore glorify n God in your body and in your spirit, which are God's.

CHAP. VII.

NOW concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 Let the q husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4 The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

5 Defraud ye not one the other, except it be s with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that t Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.

6 But I speak this by permission, and not of commandment.

7 For I would that all men were even as I myself. But u every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, It is good for them if they abide even as I.

9 But if they cannot contain, let v them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn sacrifice to idols is any thing?

20 But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, b and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.

21 Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup c of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.

22 Do we d provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he?

23 All f things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.

24 Let g no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth.

25 Whatsoever A is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience' sake:

26 For h the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.

27 If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go; whatsoever n is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake.

28 But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not, o for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake: for q the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof:

29 Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other: for why is my liberty judged of another man's conscience?

30 For if I by e grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks? s

31 Whether u therefore ye eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.

32 Give v none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the 7 Gentiles; nor to the burch of God:

33 Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

CHAP. XI.

BE ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.

2 Now I praise you, brethren, that x ye remember me in all things, and keep y the ordinances, 10 as I delivered them to you.

3 But I would have you know, that the head a of every man is Christ; b and the head of the woman is the man; d and the head of Christ is God.

4 Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head.

5 But every woman f that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered, dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were shaven.

6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: A but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the image h and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man;

8 For i the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man,

9 Neither was the man created for the woman, but the woman for the man.

10 For this cause ought the woman to have power 18 on her head, because of the angels.

11 Nevertheless, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman but all things of God.

13 Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?

14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a i covering.

16 But e if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.

17 Now in this that I declare unto you, I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear: that there be divisions 2 among you; and I partly believe it.

19 For there must I be also 3 because among you, that m they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, 4 this is not to eat the Lord's supper.

21 For in eating, every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and p another is drunken.

22 What! have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and shame them that 8 have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For r I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus, t the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread:

24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat; this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in 8 remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, 9 ye do shew the Lord's death till he come. z

27 Wherefore, whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, c shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 But let a man examine e himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh 11 damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

31 For if g we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, we i are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

34 And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto condemnation. 15 And the rest will I set in order when I come.

CHAP. XII.

NOW concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

2 Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man c speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus ¹ accursed: and e that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.

4 Now there are diversities k of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are differences of ⁴ administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities l of operations; but it is the same God which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit o withal.

8 For to one is given, by the Spirit, q the word of wisdom; s to another the word of knowledge, t by the same Spirit;

9 To another faith, u by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing, w by the same Spirit;

10 To another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; a to another divers kinds of tongues; c to another the interpretation of tongues:

11 But all these worketh that one and the self-same Spirit, dividing e to every man severally as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body; so k also is Christ.

13 For by one Spirit are we all m baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, ⁷ whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink r into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God set u the members every one of them in the body as v it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again, the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay much more, those y members of the body which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

23 And those members of the body which we think to be less honourable, upon these we ¹⁰ bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:

25 That there should be no ¹² schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now ye are the body of Christ, and members d in particular.

28 And God hath set some in the church;

first, apostles; ² a secondarily, prophets; ³ thirdly, teachers; after that, miracles; d then gifts of healings, f helps, g governments, h ² diversities of tongues. ¹

29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all ³ workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

31 But covet m earnestly the best n gifts: & yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

CHAP. XIII.

THOUGH I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, p and have not charity, ⁷ I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift of prophecy, v and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove x mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing. y

3 And though z I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though b I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Charity suffereth d long, and is kind; charity envieth f not; charity ⁵ vaunteth not itself, is not puffed g up,

5 Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not h her own, is not i easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

6 Rejoiceth l not in iniquity, but rejoiceth ⁶ in the truth;

7 Beareth n all things, believeth o all things, hopeth p all things, endureth q all things.

8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 For we know in part, s and we prophesy in part;

10 But t when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I ⁸ thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see through a glass, v darkly; ⁹ but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, x hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

CHAP. XIV.

FOLLOW after charity, and desire spiritual z gifts; but rather that ye may prophesy.

2 For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue, a speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for b no man ¹¹ understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

3 But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.

5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying. c

6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, a or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the i sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

8 For if the trumpet c give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?

9 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words o easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.

10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.

11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian; a and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.

12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of a spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.

13 Wherefore, let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue, pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prays; but my understanding is unfruitful.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, n and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing o with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding q also.

16 Else, when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned, say Amen at thy giving: of thanks? seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest.

17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:

19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, than by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren, be not y children in understanding: howbeit in malice be a ye children, but in understanding be i men.

21 In the law d it is written, c With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, f not to them g that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad? a

24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:

25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so, falling down on his face, he will worship God, and report that God is m in you of a truth.

26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, p hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath a interpretation. Let r all things be done unto edifying.

27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most, by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself and to God.

29 Let b the prophets speak: two or three, and let the other judge.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the d first hold his peace.

31 For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, & all may be comforted.

32 And the spirits e of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

33 For God is not the author of a confusion, but of peace, as f in all churches of the saints.

34 Let g your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be A under obedience, as also saith i the law.

35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

36 What! came the word of God out from you? or i came it unto you only?

37 If m any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that i write unto you are the commandments of the Lord.

38 But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore, brethren, covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.

40 Let p all things be done decently and in order.

CHAP. XV.

MOREOVER, brethren, r declare unto you the gospel which i preached unto you, which t also ye have received, and wherein u ye stand:

2 By which also ye are saved, if v ye keep o in memory o what i preached unto you, unless v ye have believed in vain.

3 For i delivered unto you first of all that which i also received, how that Christ died for our sins according x to the scriptures;

4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according x to the scriptures;

5 And that he was seen of c Cephus, then of the twelve:

6 After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

7 After that, he was seen of James; then of all the apostles.

8 And last a of all he was seen of me also, as of a one born out of due time.

9 For i am the least i of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because i persecuted the church of God.

10 But by the grace of God i am what i am: and his grace which was best toward upon me was not in vain; but i laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not i, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Therefore whether it seem i or they, so we preached, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how n say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if o there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen.

14 And if q Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ; whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith b is vain; ye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.

19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we f are of all men most miserable.

20 But now is g Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits h of them that slept.

21 For i since by man came death, k by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But m every man in his own order; Christ the first-fruits; afterward they that are Christ's, at his coming.

24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom p to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

25 For he q must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed s is death.

27 For he u hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith, All things are put under him; it is manifest that he is excepted which did put all things under him.

28 And when all things shall be subdued x unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him z that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do which a are baptized for the dead; if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And why stand we in c jeopardy every hour?

31 I protest by 2 your rejoicing e which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, it is daily.

32 If 3 after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantage it me, if the dead rise not? Let us m eat and drink, for to-morrow we die.

33 Be not deceived: evil n communications corrupt good manners.

34 Awake o to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God: i p speak this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, How q are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

36 Thou fool! that t which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die:

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be; but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:

38 But God v giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, & to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There x are also celestial bodies, & bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 So a so is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:

43 It a is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual c body.

45 And so it is written, d The first man Adam was made a living soul; the e last Adam was made a quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 The f first man is of the earth, earthy; the second man is the Lord from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also n bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that o flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery. We r shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, 52 In a moment, t in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump; for the v trumpet shall sound, and the dead z shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal y must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death b is swallowed up in victory.

55 O d death, where is thy sting? O grave, i where is thy victory?

56 The f sting of death is sin; and g the strength of sin is the law.

57 But thanks i be to God, which giveth us the victory k thro' our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, l be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abiding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

CHAP. XVI.

NOW concerning the collection for the saints, as r I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye.

2 Upon the first s day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I come, whomsoever u ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your 4 liberality unto Jerusalem.

4 And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

5 Now I will come unto you, w when I shall pass through Macedonia: for I do pass through Macedonia.

6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may bring me on my journey whithersoever I go.

7 For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost:

9 For a great door z and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries. a

10 Now if Timotheus b come, see that he may be with you without fear: for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.

11 Let no man therefore despise c him: but conduct g him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

13 Watch I ye, stand m fast in the faith, quit you like men, n be strong. o

14 Let q all your things be done with charity.

15 I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the u first-fruits of Achaia, & that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints,)

16 That ye submit v yourselves unto such, and to every one that kelpeth with us, and laboureth.

The Second Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the CORINTHIANS.

CHAP. I.

PAUL, an apostle a of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints c which are in all Achaia:

2 Grace e be to you, and peace, from God our Father, & from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed f be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;

4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

5 For as the sufferings h of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for t your consolation and salvation, which is 2 effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

7 And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing, that as m ye are partakers of the sufferings so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life:

9 But we had the 4 sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust r in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead:

10 Who delivered u us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us;

11 Ye also helping x together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons, thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

12 For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not b with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of d God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.

13 For we write none other things unto you than what ye read or acknowledge; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end;

14 As also ye have acknowledged us in part, that g we are your rejoicing, even as ye also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence I was minded to come unto you before, that ye might have a second 1 benefit;

16 And to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my 1 way toward Judea.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according 1 to the flesh, that with me there should be yea, yea, and nay, nay?

18 But as God is true, our 2 word toward you was not yea n and nay.

19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ who was preached among you by us, even by me and Silvanus and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea.

20 For all the promises of God in q him are yea, and in him amen, unto the glory of God by us.

21 Now he which stablisheth s us with you in Christ, and hath anointed t us, is God;

22 Who hath also sealed u us, and given the earnest of the Spirit so in our hearts.

23 Moreover I call God for a record up on my soul, that to spare you, I came not as yet unto Corinth.

24 Not for that we have a dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy : for by e faith ye stand.

CHAP. II.

BUT I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness. i

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me ?

3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice ; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears ; not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love m which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But if n any have caused grief, he hath not grieved me, o but in part ; that I may not overcharge you all.

6 Sufficient to such a man is this ² punishment, which was inflicted q of many.

7 So r that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him.

9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient u in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also : for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgive I it in the ⁴ person of Christ ;

11 Lest Satan should get an advantage of us : for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, when y I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and a z door was opened unto me of the Lord, 13 I had no rest d in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother : but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be unto God, f which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour g of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them i that are saved, and in them that perish :

16 To k the one we are the savour of death unto death ; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And who m is sufficient for these things ?

17 For we are not as many, which corrupt ⁷ the word of God : but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight p of God, speak we ⁸ in Christ.

CHAP. III.

DO we begin again to commend ourselves ? or need we, as some others, epistles s of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you ?

2 Ye t are our epistle, written in our hearts, known and read of all men :

3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God ; not in tables of stone, w but x in fleshly tables of the heart.

4 And such trust have we through Christ to God-wad :

5 Not that we are sufficient of y ourselves to think any thing, as of ourselves ; but d our sufficiency is of God ;

6 Who also hath made us able e ministers of the new f testament ; not of the letter, g but of the spirit : for the h letter killeth, but k the spirit ¹ giveth life.

7 But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for l the glory of his countenance ; which glory was to be done away ;

8 How shall not the ministration of the Spirit be rather glorious ?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if p that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great ³ plainness of speech :

13 And not as Moses, which put a veil over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end s of that which is abolished :

14 But their minds were blinded ; t for until this day remaineth the same veil untaken away in the reading of the old testament : which veil is done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the veil is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless, when it shall turn to the Lord, the veil shall be taken away. v

17 Now the Lord w is that Spirit : an where the x Spirit of the Lord is, there i liberty.

18 But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass a the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same b image from c glory to glory even as ⁵ by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAP. IV.

THEREFORE, seeing we have this ministry, as we have received e mercy, ye faint not ;

2 But have renounced the hidden things of ⁶ dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully, h but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

3 But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them l that are lost :

4 In whom the god n of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image o of God, should shine unto them.

5 For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord ; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.

6 For God, who commanded r the light to shine out of darkness, ⁹ hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency u of the power may be of God, and not of us.

8 We are troubled v on every side, yet not distressed ; we are perplexed, but not ¹⁰ in despair :

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken ; cast down, but not destroyed ;

10 Always bearing a about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that b the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live are c always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12 So then d death worketh in us, but life in you.

13 We having the same e spirit of faith, according as it is written, f I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

14 Knowing g that he which raised up the Lord Jesus, shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

15 For m all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace n might, through the thanksgiving of many, redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause p we faint not; yet though our outward man perish, but the inward q man is renewed day by day.

17 For s our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not v seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

CHAP. V.

FOR we know, that if our earthly house of this tabernacle w were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house a not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this we groan, b earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

3 If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked. c

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality g might be swallowed up of life.

5 Now he that hath wrought h us for the self-same thing, is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest i of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord;

7 (For n we walk by faith, not by sight:)

8 We are confident, I say, and p willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

10 For s we must all appear before the judgment-seat of Christ; that every one may receive v the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the terror w of the Lord, we persuade men; but x we are made manifest unto God, and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For z we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory in the appearance, and not in heart.

13 For whether we be beside a ourselves it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

14 For the love of Christ b constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then c were all dead

15 And that he died for all, that d they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

16 Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new i creature: old things are passed away; behold, j all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;

19 To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses o unto them; and hath 2 committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are r ambassadors for Christ; as though God did beseech you by us, we pray you in Christ's stead, Be ye reconciled to God.

21 For t he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made u the righteousness of God in him.

CHAP. VI.

WE then, as workers to together with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain. x

2 (For he saith, z I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

3 Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:

4 But in all things approving 2 ourselves as the ministers e of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, f in imprisonments, 4 in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings,

6 By pureness, by knowledge, by long-suffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned,

7 By the word k of truth, by the l power of God, by the armour m of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, o and yet true;

9 As q unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and, behold, we live: r as chastened, and not killed;

10 As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our u heart is enlarged.

12 Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own bowels.

13 Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged.

14 Be ye y ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers; for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?

16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God ; as God hath said, a I will dwell in them, and walk in them ; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 Wherefore c come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing ; and I will receive you,

18 And e will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

CHAP. VII.

HAVING therefore these g promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse h ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Receive us ; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, h we have defrauded no man.

3 I speak not this to condemn you ; for I have said l before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.

4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great m is my glorying of you : I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful o in all our tribulation.

5 For, when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side ; without q were fightings, within u re fears.

6 Nevertheless God that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus ; s

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me ; so that I rejoiced the more.

8 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though : I x did repent : for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance : for ye were made sorry, 4 after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 For godly sorrow z worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of : but the sorrow of the world a worketh death.

11 For behold this self-same thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly c sort, what carefulness d it wrought in you, yea, what clearing e of yourselves, yea, what indignation, f yea, what fear, g yea, what vehement desire, h yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge ! i In all things ye have approved yourselves k to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care n for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort : yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed q by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed ; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth.

15 And his b inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembreth the obedience of you all, how with fear s and trembling ye received him.

CHAP. VIII.

MOREOVER, brethren, we do you to the wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia ; d

2 How that, in a great trial of affliction, the abundance of their joy and their deep f poverty abounded unto the riches of their l liberality.

3 For to their power (I bear record) yea, and beyond their power, they were willing of themselves ;

4 Praying us with much entreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship i of the ministering to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

6 Inasmuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same 2 grace also.

7 Therefore, as ye abound n in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also.

8 I speak not p by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was r rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, t that ye through his poverty might be rich. u

10 And herein I give my advice : for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be 2 forward a year ago.

11 Now therefore perform v one doing of it ; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

12 For if y there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened :

14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want, that there may be equality :

15 As it is written, b Me that had gathered much had nothing over ; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

17 For indeed he accepted the exhortation ; l but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

18 And we have sent with him the brother, m whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches ;

19 And not that only, but who was also chosen o of the churches to travel with us with this 5 grace, which is administered by us to p the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind :

20 Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us :

21 Providing for honest r things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which ¹ I have in you.

23 Whether any do inquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellow-helper concerning you : or our brethren be inquired of, they are the messengers ^e of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting ⁱ on your behalf.

CHAP. IX.

FOR as touching the ministering ^m to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you :

2 For I know the forwardness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago ; and your zeal hath provoked very many.

3 Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf ; that, as I said, ye may be ready :

4 Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting. ^r

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your ^s bounty, ⁶ whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready ; as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.

6 But this I say, He ^t which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly ; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

7 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give ; not with grudgingly, or of necessity : for God loveth a cheerful to give.

8 And ^x God is able to make all grace abound toward you : that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work :

9 (As it is written, ^y He hath dispersed abroad ; he hath given to the poor : his righteousness remaineth for ever.

10 Now he ^z that ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits ^b of your righteousness ;)

11 Being enriched in every thing to all bountiffulness, ¹⁰ which ^c causeth through us thanksgiving to God.

12 For the administration of this service not only supplieth ^e the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God ;

13 Whiles by the experiment of this ministration they glorify ^g God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men ;

14 And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding grace ^h of God in you.

15 Thanks ^k be unto God for his unspeakable gift. ^m

CHAP. X.

NOW I Paul myself beseech ⁿ you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who ¹³ in presence ^o am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you :

2 But I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith ^q I think to be bold against some, which ¹⁴ think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after ^a the flesh :

4 (For the weapons ^b of our warfare ^c are not carnal, but mighty ² through ^d God to the pulling down ^f of strong holds ;)

5 Casting down ³ imaginations, ^g and every high ^h thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge ⁱ of God, and bringing into captivity ^k every thought to ^l the obedience of Christ ;

6 And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience ⁿ is fulfilled.

7 Do ye look on things after the outward ^o appearance ? If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, ^p which the Lord hath given us for edification, ^q and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed :

9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.

10 For his letters ⁴ say they, are weighty and powerful ; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.

11 Let such an one think this, that such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.

12 For ^s we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves : but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, ⁷ are not wise. ¹²

13 But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the ⁸ rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you : for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ :

15 Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of a other men's labours ; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be ⁹ enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly,

16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's line ¹¹ of things made ready to your hand.

17 But ^d he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

18 For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but ^f whom the Lord commendeth.

CHAP. XI.

WOULD to God ye could bear with me a little in my folly : and indeed bear ¹² with me.

2 For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy : for I have espoused you ⁱ to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin ^l to Christ.

3 But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another ^p gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear ¹⁵ with him.

5 For I suppose I a was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

6 But though d I be rude in speech, yet not e in knowledge; but we have been thoroughly made manifest g among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, I m was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me, the n brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.

10 As the truth of Christ is in me, o no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? because I love you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them p which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 For such are false q apostles, deceitful s workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

14 And no marvel; for Satan u himself is transformed into an angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end v shall be according to their works.

16 I say again, Let no man think me a fool: w if otherwise, yet as a fool x receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

17 That which I speak, I speak it z not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence a of boasting.

18 Seeing b that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

19 For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye y yourselves are wise.

20 For ye suffer, if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

21 I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. Howbeit whereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.

22 Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I.

23 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labours g more abundant, in stripes h above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths k oft.

24 Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes m save one.

25 Thrice was I beaten n with rods, once was I o stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night p and a day I have been in the deep;

26 In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils r by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren;

27 In weariness and painfulness, in watchings t often, in hunger u and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

28 Besides those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care b of all the churches.

29 Who c is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not?

30 If I must needs glory, I will f glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.

31 The God h and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which i is blessed for evermore, knowing k that I lie not.

32 In Damascus l the governor under Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascus with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me:

33 And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAP. XII.

IT is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. i I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I knew a man in o Christ about fourteen q years ago, (whether in the body I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;)

4 How that he was caught up into paradise, r and heard unspeakable words, which it is not s lawful for a man to utter.

5 Of such an one will I glory: yet t of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but u now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he hearth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn y in the flesh, the z messenger of Satan, to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 For this c thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory d in mine infirmities, that the power e of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become a fool in glorying: ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for f in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though i I be nothing.

12 Truly the signs l of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 For what is it wherein you were inferior to other churches, except t be that I q myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.

14 Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for s I seek not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And I will very gladly spend and be spent for u you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

16 But be it so, I did not burden you:

nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.

17 Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

18 I desired Titus, a and with him I sent a brother: c Did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves f unto you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I fear lest, when g I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:

21 And lest, when I come again, my God will humble i me among you, and that I shall bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repented l of the uncleanness, and fornication, m and lasciviousness which they have committed.

CHAP. XIII.

THIS is the third time I am coming to you. In p the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 I told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them t which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, I will not spare:

3 Since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty to in you.

4 For though x he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth by the power of God. For we also are weak i in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.

5 Examine b yourselves whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ d is in you, except ye be reprobates? e

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though we be as reprobates.

8 For h we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

9 For we are glad, when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, even your perfection. k

10 Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, n according o to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction.

11 Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, q be of good comfort, be r of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.

13 All the saints salute you.

The second epistle to the Corinthians was written from Philippi, a city of Macedonia, by Titus and Lucas.

The Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the GALATIANS.

CHAP. I.

PAUL, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but b by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who c raised him from the dead;)

2 And all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of Galatia: e

3 Grace f be to you, and peace, from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ,

4 Who gave h himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil h world, according to the will of God and our Father:

5 To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are so soon removed n from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

7 Which o is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert q the gospel of Christ.

8 But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let t him be accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other u gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

10 For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to x please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not y be the servant of Christ.

11 But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me, is not after man.

12 For a I neither received it of man, neither was I taught i, but by the revelation b of Jesus Christ.

13 For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church d of God, and wasted it;

14 And profited in the Jews' religion above many my 2 equals in mine own nation, being f more exceedingly zealous of the traditions g of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God, h who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace,

16 To reveal l his Son in me, that m I might preach him among the heathen; immediately l conferred not with flesh and n blood:

17 Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went unto Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.

18 Then p after three years I went 3 up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days.

19 But other of the apostles saw I none, save James q the Lord's brother.

20 Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not.

21 Afterwards l I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia;

22 And was unknown by face unto the churches 2 of Judea which were in Christ:

CHAP. II.

THEN, fourteen years after. g I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.

2 And I went up by revelation, and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles; but 1 privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means l m should run, or had run, in vain.

3 But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:

4 And that because of false p brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty r which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage: s

5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6 But of these who seemed v to be somewhat, whatsoever they were, t maketh no matter to me: God to accepteth no man's person: for they who seemed to be somewhat, in conference added nothing to me;

7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, z as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter;

8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles;)

9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, c perceived the grace e that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; but that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

10 Only they would that we should remember the poor; the same which i l also was forward to do.

11 But when Peter was come to k Antioch, l withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certain came from James, he did eat o with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth r of the gospel, I said unto Peter s before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

15 We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners v of the Gentiles,

16 Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for e by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? For God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

19 For I k through the law am dead to the law, that I might live m unto God.

20 I am crucified n with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in q me: and the life which I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself r for me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if v righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

CHAP. III.

O FOOLISH y Galatians, who z hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

2 This only would I learn of you, Received b ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or c by the hearing of faith?

3 Are ye so foolish? having d begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect e by the flesh?

4 Have ye suffered so f many things in vain? g if it be yet in vain.

5 He therefore that ministereth i to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth h it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as Abraham j believed God, and it was k counted to him for righteousness.

7 Know ye therefore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children o of Abraham.

8 And the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify p the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, q In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then r they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law, are under the curse: for it is written, s Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The t just shall live by faith.

12 And the law v is not of faith: but, The w man that doeth them shall live in them.

13 Christ x hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, y Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

14 That z the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise a of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though b it be but a man's c covenant, yet if d it be confirmed, no man can disannulleth, or addeth thereto k testament.

16 Now to Abraham h and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.

17 And this I say, That the covenant that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which f was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if h the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave i it to Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serveth the law? t It was added because of transgressions, till the seed l should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels o in the hand p of a mediator.

20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God r is one.

21 Is the law then against s the promises of God? God forbid: for if t there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

22 But the scripture hath concluded all u under sin, that the promise x by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterward be revealed.

24 Wherefore the law a was our school-master to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a school-master.

26 For ye are all the children f of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

27 For h as many of you as have been baptized into Christ, have put on Christ.

28 There is k neither Jew nor Greek: there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.

29 And if ye be Christ's, then m are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs n according to the promise.

CHAP. IV.

NOW I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;

2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father.

3 Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the 3 elements of the world:

4 But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law,

5 To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons.

6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit u of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.

7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir a of God through Christ.

8 Howbeit then when ye know b God, ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

9 But now, after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye d again to the weak and beggarly 5 elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

10 Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years.

11 I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are: ye have not injured me at all.

13 Ye know how through d infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you at the first:

14 And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected: but received me as an angel f of God, even as Christ h Jesus.

15 Where ² is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

17 They zealously affect you, but m not well; yea, they would exclude ³ you, that ye might affect them.

18 But it is good to be zealously affected always o in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

19 My q little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you, 20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for ⁴ I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?

22 For it is written, That Abraham had two sons; the one u by a bond-maid, the other v by a free woman.

23 But he who was of the x bond-woman was born after the flesh; but he of the free woman was by promise.

24 Which things are an allegory: a for these are the two ⁶ covenants; the one from the mount ⁷ Sinai, c which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar.

25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and ⁸ answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

26 But Jerusalem d which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

27 For it is written, e Rejoice thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not; for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.

28 Now we, g brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise.

29 But as then he i that was born after the flesh, persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so k it is now.

30 Nevertheless what saith l the scripture? Cast out the bond-woman and her son: for the son of the bond-woman shall not be heir with the son of the free woman.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bond-woman, but of the free.

CHAP. V.

STAND o fast therefore in the p liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, That if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

3 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law.

4 Christ is become of no effect t unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law: ye are fallen v from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit want a lot the hope of righteousness b by faith.

6 For in Jesus Christ neither c circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which e worketh by love.

7 Ye did run well; who did ² hinder you that ye should not obey the truth?

8 This persuasion cometh not of him that calleth you.

9 A little g leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

10 I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you shall bear i his judgment, whosoever he be.

11 And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? k then is the offence l of the cross ceased.

12 I would they were even cut off which trouble you.

13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not n liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve p one another.

14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this, r Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 This I say then, Walk s in the Spirit, and tye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

17 For t the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary w the one to the other; so that y e cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But if z ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

19 Now the works of the flesh b are manifest; which are these: Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,

21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But the fruit f of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, 23 Meekness, temperance: against h such there is no law.

24 And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the ⁹ affections and lusts.

25 If m we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

26 Let n us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

CHAP. VI.

BRETHREN, ¹⁰ if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual restore q such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.

2 Bear r ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

3 For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

4 But let every man prove s his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself u alone, and not in another:

5 For every man shall bear his own burden.

* F 2

6 Let a him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.
 7 Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.
 8 For he that soweth to his b flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit, d shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.
 9 And let f us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if h we faint not.
 10 As we have therefore opportunity, k let us do good unto all i men, especially to them m who are of the household of faith.
 11 Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.
 12 As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.

The Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the EPHESIANS.

CHAP. I.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints b which are at Ephesus, c and to the faithful d in Christ Jesus :

2 Grace f be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed h be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly 2 places in Christ :

4 According as he hath chosen j us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy, k and without blame before him in love :

5 Having predestinated m us unto the adoption n of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure p of his will,

6 To the praise q of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted r in the Beloved :

7 In whom u we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace ;

8 Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence ;

9 Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he hath y purposed in himself :

10 That in the dispensation of the fulness of times, he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in 4 heaven and which are on earth : even in him,

11 In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, d being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will ;

12 That we should be to the praise of his glory who first 6 trusted in Christ.

13 In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard i the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation : in whom also, after that ye believed, ye were sealed k with that Holy Spirit of promise, 14 Which is the earnest l of our inheritance, until the redemption m of the purchased o possession, unto the p praise of his glory.

15 Wherefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all the saints,

16 Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers ;

17 That the God q of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom r and revelation s in the knowledge of him :

18 The eyes s of your understanding being enlightened ; that ye may know what is the hope t of his calling, and what the riches a of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,

19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power e to us-ward who believe, according to the working 1 of his mighty power,

20 Which he wrought in Christ, when he g raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,

21 Far i above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come ;

22 And hath put l all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church,

23 Which is his body, o the fulness of him that filleth all in all.

CHAP. II.

AND you r hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins ;

2 Wherein t in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince v of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children w of disobedience :

3 Among whom also we x all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the 3 desires of the flesh and of the mind ; and were by nature z the children of wrath, even as others.

4 But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 Even a when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by 5 grace b ye are saved) :

6 And hath raised c us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus ;

7 That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace, in his kindness e toward us through Christ Jesus.

8 For by grace f are ye saved through faith ; g and that not h of yourselves ; it is the gift of God :

9 Not of works, lest any man should boast.

10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which n God hath before 7 ordained that we should walk in them.

11 Wherefore remember, that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands ;

12 That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world :

13 But now, in Christ Jesus, ye who sometimes were far off, are made nigh by the blood u of Christ.

14 For he a is our peace, who hath made both of one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us ;

15 Having abolished f in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances ; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace ;

16 And that he might reconcile i both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity ¹ thereby ;

17 And came and preached peace to you l which were afar off and to them that were nigh.

18 For through n him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father.

19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens o with the saints, and of the household p of God ;

20 And are built q upon the r foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief t corner-stone ;

21 In whom all the building, fitly framed together, groweth unto an holy v temple in the Lord :

22 In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit.

CHAP. III.

FOR this cause I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles,

2 (If ye have heard of the dispensation x of the grace y of God, which is given me to you-ward :

3 How that by revelation a he made known unto me the mystery ; as I wrote afore ⁵ in few words,

4 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the c mystery of Christ ;

5 Which in other ages was not d made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto the holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit ;

6 That the Gentiles should be fellow-heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel ;

7 Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual f working of his power.

8 Unto me, who am less h than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the insearchable riches k of Christ ;

9 And to make all men see, what is the fellowship of the mystery, l which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by n Jesus Christ :

10 To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known, by the church, the manifold wisdom q of God,

11 According to the eternal s purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord :

12 In whom we have boldness t and access with confidence by the faith of him.

13 Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulation for you, which u is your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,

CHAP. IV.

THEREFORE, the prisoner ² of the a Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called.

2 With all lowliness u and meekness, with long-suffering, forbearing one another in love ;

3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

4 There is one body and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling ;

5 One Lord, one faith, one baptism,

6 One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

7 But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure z of the gift of Christ.

8 Wherefore he saith, b When he ascended up on high, he led ⁴ captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.

9 (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth ?

10 He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might ⁵ fill all things.)

11 And e he gave some, apostles ; and some, prophets ; and some, evangelists ; and *o*me, pastors and teachers :

12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ :

13 Till we all come ⁶ in the unity g of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect i man, unto the measure of the ⁷ stature of the fulness of Christ :

14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried m about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive ;

15 But, ⁸ speaking the truth o in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, p even Christ :

16 From whom ⁹ the whole body fitly joined together, and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase ¹⁰ of the body, unto the edifying of itself in love.

17 This I say therefore, and testify is the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind,

18 Having the understanding v darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the ¹¹ blindness of their heart.

19 Who being past feeling, have a given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.
 20 But ye have not so learned Christ;
 21 If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus:
 22 That ye put d off, concerning the former conversation, the old f man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;
 23 And be renewed h in the spirit of your mind;
 24 And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created k in righteousness and 2 true holiness.
 25 Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth o with his neighbour: for we p are members one of another.
 26 Be ye angry and sin not; let r not the sun go down upon your wrath:
 27 Neither s give place to the devil.
 28 Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let t him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to 2 give to him that needeth.
 29 Let v no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good 4 to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.
 30 And grieve w not the Holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed x unto the day of redemption.
 31 Let all bitterness, y and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and z evil-speaking, be put away from you, with all malice:
 32 And be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving b one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

CHAP. V.

BE ye therefore followers of God, as dear children;
 2 And walk in love, e as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for a, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling savour.
 3 But fornication, g and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named i among you, as becometh saints;
 4 Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which l are not convenient; but rather giving of thanks.
 5 For this ye know, that n no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who o is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.
 6 Let no man deceive p you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of 5 disobedience.
 7 Be not ye therefore partakers with them.
 8 For s ye were sometime darkness, but now are ye light t in the Lord: walk as children u of light;
 9 (For the fruit v of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth);
 10 Proving w what is acceptable unto the Lord.
 11 And have x no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove z them.
 12 For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.
 13 But all things that are 6 reprov'd are made manifest a by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.

14 Wherefore 1 he saith, b Awake thou that sleepest, and rise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light,
 15 See then that ye walk c circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise,
 16 Redeeming the time, because the days are evil. e
 17 Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what g the will of the Lord is.
 18 And be not drunk i with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit;
 19 Speaking to yourselves in l psalms and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing m an making melody in your n heart to the Lord;
 20 Giving thanks q always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ;
 21 Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.
 22 Wives, u submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.
 23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the Saviour of the body.
 24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.
 25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it;
 26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing a of water by the word:
 27 That he might present c it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.
 28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies; he that loveth his wife loveth himself.
 29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth & cherisheth it; even as the Lord the church:
 30 For we are members h of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.
 31 For k this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two m shall be one flesh.
 32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.
 33 Nevertheless, let every one of you in particular, so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

CHAP. VI.

CHILDREN, q obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.
 2 Honour r thy father and mother, (which is the first commandment with promise,)
 3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.
 4 And ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.
 5 Servants, y be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ.
 6 Not with eye-service, as men-pleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;

7 With good-will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men;

8 Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.

9 And ye masters, do the same things unto them, ¹ forbearing threatening: knowing that ² your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect ^f of persons with him.

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

11 Put on the whole armour ^g of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

12 For we wrestle not against ^h flesh and blood, but against principalities, ^k against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against ^l spiritual wickedness in ¹ high places.

13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and, having done ^h all, to stand.

14 Stand therefore, having your loins girt ^a about with truth, and having on the breast-plate of righteousness;

15 And your feet ^o shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

16 Above all, taking the shield of faith, ^p wherewith ye shall be able to Written from Rome unto the Ephesians by Tychicus.

The Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the PHILIPPIANS.

CHAP. I.

PAUL and Timotheus, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, b with the bishops and deacons;

2 Grace c be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I thank my God upon every 1 remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer f of mine for you all making request with joy,

5 For your fellowship in the gospel, from the first day until now;

6 Being confident g of this very thing, that he h which hath begun a good i work in you will 2 perform it until the day k of Jesus Christ:

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because 3 I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defence m and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers 4 of my grace.

8 For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your love may abound s yet more and more in knowledge and m all 5 judgment;

10 That u ye may 6 approve things that are 7 excellent; that ye may be v sincere and without offence till the day of Christ;

11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ unto the glory x and praise of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;

13 So that my bonds 8 in Christ are manifest in all 9 the palace, and 10 in all other places;

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife, and some also of good will.

16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds;

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel.

18 What then? notwithstanding every way, whether in pretence or in truth,
Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

19 For I know that this k shall turn to my salvation through m your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,

20 According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, o but that with all boldness, p as always, so now also, Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether r it be by life or by death.

21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die
a is gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not.

23 For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire d to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better: e

24 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.

25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all, for your furtherance and joy of faith;

26 That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me, by my coming to you again.

27 Only I let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ; that, whether I come and see you, or else be absent,
I may hear of your affairs, that ye n stand fast in one spirit, with one mind, striving o together for the faith of the gospel;

28 And in nothing terrified p by your adversaries: which q is to them an evident token of perdition, but r to you of salvation, and that of God.

29 For unto you it is given t in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;

30 Having the same conflict which ye saw w in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAP. II.

IF there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels y
and mercies,

2 Fulfil z ye my joy, that ye be a like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

3 Let nothing b be done through strife or vain glory; but in lowliness of mind let each c esteem other better than themselves.

4 Look not every man on his d own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5 Let this e mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

6 Who, being f in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal g with God;

7 But h made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, i and was made in the 11 likeness of men:

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself and became l obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

9 Wherefore n God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name.

10 That at the name of Jesus every q knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth.

11 And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, a to the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work d out your own salvation with fear e and trembling :

13 For it is God g which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

14 Do all things without murmurings k and disputings ; l

15 That ye may be blameless and i harmless, the sons n of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked o and perverse nation, among whom 2 ye shine as lights p in the world ;

16 Holding forth the word of life ; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, s neither laboured in vain.

17 Yea, and if I be 3 offered t upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all.

18 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.

19 4 Put I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timotheus to shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

20 For I have no man 5 like-minded, who will naturally care for your state.

21 For all seek their own, y not the things which are Jesus Christ's.

22 But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.

24 But c I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.

25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, f my brother, and companion in labour, and fellow-soldier, g but your messenger, and he that ministered to my wants.

26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death : but God had mercy on him ; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness ; and 6 hold such in reputation :

30 Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life t to supply your lack of service toward me.

CHAP. III.

FINALLY, my brethren, rejoice v in the Lord. To write the same w things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2 Beware of dogs, x beware of y evil workers, beware of the z concision.

3 For we a are the circumcision, which worship God in the Spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh :

4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more :

6 Concerning zeal, c persecuting the church ; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless. f

7 But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss h for Christ.

8 Yea, doubtless, and I count all things but loss for i the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord : for whom I have m suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ.

9 And be found in him, not having mine own q righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness r which is of God by faith :

10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the u fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death ;

11 If by any means I might v attain unto the resurrection of the dead.

12 Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect : x but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended : but this one thing I do, forgetting z those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before,

14 I press a toward the mark for the prize of the high b calling of God in Christ Jesus.

15 Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, d be thus e minded : and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, h let us mind the same thing.

17 Brethren, be followers i together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us k for an ensample.

18 (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies l of the cross of Christ ;

19 Whose end m is destruction, whose God n is their belly, and whose glory o is in their shame, who mind earthly things.)

20 For our conversation p is in heaven ; from whence also we look q for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ ;

21 Who shall change r our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working s whereby he is able even u to subdue all things unto himself.

CHAP. IV.

THEREFORE, my brethren, dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

2 I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord.

3 And I entreat thee also, true yoke-fellow, help those women which laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow-labourers, whose names are in the book of life.

4 Rejoice a in the Lord always : and again I say, Rejoice.

5 Let your moderation c be known unto all men : The Lord d is at hand.

6 Be careful e for nothing ; but in every thing by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God :

7 And the peace g of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, h whatsoever things are honest, i whatsoever things are just, k whatsoever things are pure, l whatsoever things are lovely, m whatsoever things are of good report ; n if there be any virtue, o and if there be any praise, p think on these things.

9 Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do : and the God r of peace shall be with you.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me 3 hath flourished again ; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity. v

11 Not that I speak in respect of want : for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content. w

12 I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound : every where, and in all things, I am instructed, both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things through b Christ which strengtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding, ye have well done that ye did communicate with my affliction.

15 Now, ye Philippians, know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no f church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.

16 For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my necessity.

17 Not because I desire a gift ; but I desire fruit that may abound to your account.

18 But I 2 have all, and abound : I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice q acceptable, well-pleasing to God.

19 But my God shall supply s all your need, according to his riches t in glory by Christ Jesus.

20 Now u unto God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren which are with me greet you.

22 All the saints salute you, chiefly they that are of Cesar's household.

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

The Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the COLOSSIANS.

CHAP. I.

PAUL, b an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother,

2 To the saints d and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colosse: e Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We f give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,

4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints;

5 For the hope which is laid up h for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel.

6 Which is come unto you, as it is in all k the world; and bringeth l forth fruit as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard n of it, and knew the o grace of God in truth, p

7 As ye also learned of q Epaphras our dear fellow-servant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ;

8 Who also declared unto us your love s in the Spirit.

9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard t, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will, u in all wisdom w and spiritual understanding; x

10 That ye might walk worthy z of the Lord unto all pleasing, a being b fruitful in every good work, and increasing c in the knowledge of God;

11 Strengthened d with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience g and long-suffering with joyfulness; i

12 Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet l to be partakers of the inheritance n of the saints in light;

13 Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, o and hath translated us into the kingdom of e his dear Son;

14 In p whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins;

15 Who is the image r of the invisible God, the first-born of every creature:

16 For by him u were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by w him, and for him:

17 And he is before x all things, and by him all things consist;

18 And he is the head z of the body, the church; who is the beginning, a the first-born from the dead; that s in all things he might have the pre-eminence:

19 For it pleased the Father that in him a should all fulness dwell:

20 And, t having made c peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, i say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.

21 And you, that were sometime alienated, and enemies 2 in your mind 3 by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled,

22 In the body of his flesh through death, to present g you holy and unblameable and unreprieveable in his sight;

23 If ye continue i in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every m creature which is under heaven; whereof i Paul am made a minister;

24 Who now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions r of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the church;

25 Whereof i am made a minister, according to the dispensation of God which is given to me for: you 4 to fulfil the word of God;

26 Even the mystery t which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now y is made manifest to his saints:

27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ 6 in you, the a hope of glory;

28 Whom we preach, warning f every man, and teaching h every man in all wisdom; that k we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus:

29 Whereunto m i also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

CHAP. II.

FOR i would that ye knew what great 7 conflict i have for you, and for them at Laodicea, q and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;

2 That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, s and unto all riches of the full t assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgment of the mystery v of God, and of the Father, and of Christ;

3 In 8 whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

4 And this i say, lest any man should beguile y you with enticing words.

5 For though i be absent in the flesh, yet am i with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ.

6 As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk b ye in him

7 Rooted a and built up in him, b and established in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

8 Beware d lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, and the ¹ rudiments of the world, and not after Christ : 9 For in him e dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.

10 And ye are complete g in him, which is the head h of all principality and power ;

11 In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision f made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ ;

12 Buried k with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation l of God, who hath raised him from the dead.

13 And n you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses ;

14 Blotting p out the hand-writing of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross ;

15 And having t spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in ³ it.

16 Let no man therefore judge u you in ⁴ meat, or in drink, or in ⁵ respect of an holy day, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days ;

17 Which are a shadow y of things to come ; but the body z of Christ.

18 Let z no man ⁶ beguile you of your reward, ⁷ in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding b into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind ;

19 And not holding the Head, d from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.

20 Wherefore, if ye be dead with Christ from the ⁸ rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances,

21 (Touch not ; ⁹ taste not ; handle not ;

22 Which all are to perish with the using ;) after the commandments and doctrines of men ?

23 Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in will-worship, and humility, and ⁹ neglecting of the body ; not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh.

CHAP. III.

IF ye then be risen g with Christ, seek ¹ those things which are above, where Christ h sitteth on the right hand of God

2 Set your ¹⁰ affection on things above, not k on things on the earth.

3 For m ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 When n Christ, who is o our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory.

5 Mortify q therefore your members which are upon the earth ; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry :

6 For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience,

8 But now ye also put off all these ; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.

9 Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds ;

10 And have put on the new man, which is renewed f in knowledge after the image of him that created him :

11 Where i there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free : but Christ is all, and in all.

12 Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, long-suffering ;

13 Forbearing m one another, and forgiving o one another, if any man have a quarrel ² against any : even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.

14 And above all these things put on charity, q which is r the bond of perfectness.

15 And let the peace s of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body ; and be ye thankful.

16 Let the word u of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom ; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms v and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

17 And whatsoever x ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

18 Wives, a submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.

19 Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them.

20 Children, c obey your parents in all things : for this is well pleasing unto the Lord.

21 Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

22 Servants, e obey in all things your masters according to the flesh : not with eye-service, as men-pleasers ; but in singleness of heart, fearing God :

23 And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord and not unto men ;

24 Knowing, that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance : for ye serve the Lord Christ.

25 But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done ; and there is no respect of persons.

CHAP. IV.

MASTERS, f give unto your servants that which is just and equal ; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.

2 Continue i in prayer, and watch j in the same with thanksgiving ;

3 Withal praying also for us, that God would open l unto us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds :

4 That I may make it manifest as I ought to speak.

5 Walk in wisdom p toward them that are without, redeeming the time.

6 Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned r with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.

7 All s my state shall Tychicus declare unto you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and fellow-servant in the Lord :

18 The salutation i by the hand of me Paul. Remember k my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen.

Written from Rome to the Colossians, by Tychicus and Onesimus.

The First Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the THESSALONIANS.

CHAP. I.

PAUL, and Silvanus, a and Timotheus, unto the church of the b Thessalonians which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace c be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers; 3 Remembering without ceasing your work f of faith, and labour g of love, and patience h of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father;

4 Knowing, brethren, I beloved, your election of God.

5 For our gospel came l not unto you in word only, but also in power, m and in the n Holy Ghost, and in much assurance; o as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

6 And ye became p followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy r of the Holy Ghost;

7 So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you sounded u out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place w your faith to God-ward is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing.

9 For they themselves shew of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God x from idols, to serve the living and true God;

10 And to wait y for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath b to come.

CHAP. II.

FOR yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:

2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, e we were f bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention. g

3 For our exhortation was not of deceit, h nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:

4 But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust k with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts.

5 For neither m at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness; God is witness:

6 Nor of men o sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have 4 been burdensome, q as the apostles of Christ.

7 But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

8 So, being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have s imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour v and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe: 11 As ye know how we exhorted, and comforted, and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children, 12 That ye would walk d worthy of God, who e hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not i as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh k also in you that believe.

14 For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God which in Judea are in Christ Jesus; for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews;

15 Who both killed the Lord Jesus and their q own prophets, and have 2 persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men;

16 Forbidding s us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sin; u away; for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost. v

17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.

18 Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again: but Satan hindered us.

19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of 3 rejoicing? Are not even ye in z the presence a of our Lord Jesus Christ at his c coming?

20 For ye are our joy and joy.

CHAP. III.

WHEREFORE when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone;

2 And sent d Timotheus, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellow-labourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith;

3 That i no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we l are appointed thereunto.

4 For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

5 For this cause, when n I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest p by some means the tempter have tempted you, and our labour r be in vain.

6 But now when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring t greatly to see us, as we also to see you;

7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted u over you, in all our affliction and distress, by your faith:

8 For now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith Destination of departed Saints.

we joy for your sakes before our God ;

10 Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect a that which is lacking in your faith ?

11 Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹ direct our way unto you.

12 And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love c one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you ;

13 To the end he may establish your hearts f unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming g of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints :

CHAP. IV.

FURTHERMORE then we ² beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk k and to please God, so ye would abound l more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is the will of God, *e*ven your sanctification, that n ye should abstain from fornication :

4 That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour ;

5 Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles q which know not God :

6 That no man go beyond and ⁴ defraud his brother in s any matter ; because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.

7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but r unto holiness.

8 He therefore that ⁵ despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his Holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love, ye need not that I write unto you ; for ye yourselves are taught u of God to love one another.

10 And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia : but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more :

11 And that ye study to be quiet, and to a do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you ;

12 That ye may walk honestly d toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of ¹⁰ nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.

14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so l them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

15 For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive, and remain unto the coming of the Lord, shall not prevent them which are asleep.

16 For o the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God : and the dead in Christ shall rise first : p

17 Then we which are alive and remain, shall be caught up together with them in q the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air : and so shall we ever be r with the Lord.

18. Wherefore ¹² comfort one another with these words.

Exhortations to Faith and Holiness.

CHAP. V.

BUT of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh b as a thief in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety ; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail d upon a woman with child ; and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, e brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day : we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

6 Therefore h let us not sleep, as do others ; but let us watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleep, sleep in the night ; and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

8 But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breast-plate m of faith and love ; and for an helmet, the hope of salvation.

9 For God hath not appointed o us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ,

10 Who died for us, that, whether g we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.

11 Wherefore ⁶ comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as h ye do.

12 And we beseech you, brethren, to know them s which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you ;

13 And to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. And be t at peace among yourselves.

14 Now we ⁸ exhort you, brethren, warn them that are ⁹ unruly, v comfort the feeble-minded, support the weak, be patient x toward all men.

15 See that none render y evil for evil unto any man ; but ever follow z that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men.

16 Rejoice b evermore.

17 Pray c without ceasing.

18 In e every thing give thanks : for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.

19 Quench f not the Spirit.

20 Despise g not prophesyings.

21 Prove h all things ; hold i fast that which is good.

22 Abstain k from all appearance of evil.

23 And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly : and l pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless m unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Faithful is he n that calleth you, who also will do it.

25 Brethren, pray for us.

26 Greet all the brethren with an holy kiss.

27 I ¹¹ charge you by the Lord, that the epistle be read unto all the holy brethren.

28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

The first epistle unto the Thessalonians was written from Athens.

The Second Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the THESSALONIANS.

CHAP. I.

PAUL, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto a the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Grace b unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth:

4 So that we ourselves glory g in you in the churches of God, for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure; h

5 Which i is a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer: l

6 Seeing m it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you;

7 And to you who are troubled, o rest with us; when the Lord Jesus q shall be revealed from heaven with 2 his mighty angels,

8 In s flaming fire, 3 taking t vengeance on them that know u not God, and v that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ:

9 Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction z from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory z of his power;

10 When he shall come to be b glorified in his saints, and to be admired c in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

11 Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would 4 count you worthy e of this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power;

12 That g the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him: according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAP. II.

NOW we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him,

2 That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter, as from us, as i that the day of Christ is at hand.

3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except m there come a falling away first, and that man of sin n be revealed, the o son of perdition:

4 Who opposeth and exalteth q himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he, as God, sitteth r in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what 1 withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For the mystery of iniquity doth already c work: only he who now letteth, will let, until he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall d consume with the spirit e of his mouth, and shall destroy f with the brightness of his coming.

9 Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan, with all power and signs and lying wonders,

10 And with all deceivableness j of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love k of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, n that they should believe a lie:

12 That p they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 But we r are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen v you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth;

14 Whereunto y he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory a of our Lord Jesus Christ.

15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word or our epistle.

16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God even our Father, which d hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope f through grace, 17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work.

CHAP. III.

FINALLY, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may 8 have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you:

2 And that we may be delivered from unreasonable 6 and wicked men: for all men have not faith.

3 But the Lord h is faithful, who shall stablish you, and keep k you from evil.

4 And we have confidence l in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.

5 And the Lord direct p your hearts into the love of God, and into the 7 patient waiting for Christ.

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw r yourselves from every brother a that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which ye received of us.

7 For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you;

8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought e with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you:

9 Not because we have not power, g but to make ourselves an example unto you to follow us.

10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that k if any would not work, neither should he eat.

11 For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies. m

12 Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus

15 Yet count him not as an enemy, out admonish him as a brother. f

16 Now the Lord h of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all.

17 The salutation i of Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write.

18 The l grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

The second epistle to the Thessalonians was written from Athens.

The First Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to TIMOTHY.

CHAP. I.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ, a by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope. c

2 Unto Timothy, d my own son e in the faith: Grace, g mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I went i into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine,

4 Neither give heed k to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith; so do.

5 Now the end m of the commandment is charity, out of a pure n heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned:

6 From which some 3 having swerved, o have turned aside unto vain jangling;

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding q neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that the law is good, s if a man use it lawfully;

9 Knowing this, that u the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for men-stealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound z doctrine;

11 According to the glorious gospel of the blessed a God, which b was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled c me, for that he counted me faithful, d putting e me into the ministry;

13 Who was before g a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly h in unbelief.

14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

15 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came k into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all long-suffering, for a pattern m to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

17 Now unto the King o eternal, immortal, p invisible, q the only wise r God, be honour s and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according b to the prophecies which went before on thee, (that thou by them mightest war a good warfare;

19 Holding f faith, and a good conscience, which some having put away, concerning faith have made shipwreck:

20 Of whom is Hymeneus and Alexander; whom I have delivered h unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

CHAP. II.

EXHORT i therefore, that, first of all, j supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men;

2 For kings, l and for all that are in authority: 2 that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour;

4 Who p will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

5 For there is one r God, and one mediator t between God and men, the man Christ Jesus;

6 Who gave himself a ransom w for all to 4 be testified in due time.

7 Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not;) a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that men pray everywhere, lifting up holy y hands, without wrath and doubting.

9 In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with 5 brodered hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

10 But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

11 Let the women f learn in silence with all subjection.

12 But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

13 For Adam was first formed, then Eve.

14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived, was in the transgression.

15 Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

CHAP. III.

THIS is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, l he desireth a good work.

2 A bishop n then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of 6 good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach:

3 Not 7 given to wine, not striker; not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, a not a brawler, not covetous;

4 One that ruleth well b his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity:

5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)

6 Not a a novice, lest being lifted up with pride e he fall into the condemnation of the devil, g

7 Moreover, he must have a good report of them i which are without; lest he fall into reproach, and the snare k of the devil.

8 Likewise must the deacons l be grave, not double-tongued, not m given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;

9 Holding o the mystery p of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 Even so must their wives r be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling s their children and their own houses well.

13 For they that have u used the office of a deacon well, u purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith v which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and w ground of the truth.

16 And without controversy, great is the mystery y of godliness: God was manifested z in the flesh, z justified in the Spirit, b seen of angels, c preached unto the Gentiles, d believed on e in the world, received up f into glory.

CHAP. IV.

NOW the Spirit speaketh expressly, that g in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, h and doctrines of devils;

2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron;

3 Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received k with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:

5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up m in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

7 But refuse profane and old wives' fables, n and exercise thyself rather unto godliness.

8 For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godliness o is profitable unto all things, having promise p of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

9 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptance.

10 For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.

11 These things command and teach.

12 Let c no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

14 Neglect d not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, f with the laying on h of the hands of the presbytery.

15 Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear g to all.

16 Take heed n unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save q thyself, and them that hear thee.

CHAP. V.

REBUKE not an elder, but entreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren;

2 The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

3 Honour widows that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew a piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But she that liveth b in pleasure is dead z while she liveth.

7 And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.

8 But if any provide not for his own, and specially a for those of his own house, b he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be c taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man,

10 Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged d strangers, if she have washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

11 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry;

12 Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.

13 And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and e not only idle, but tattlers also, and busy-bodies, speaking things which they ought not.

14 I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary g to speak reproachfully.

15 For some are already turned aside after Satan.

16 If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

17 Let q the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

18 For the scripture saith, r Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn : And, a The labourer is worthy of his reward.

19 Against an elder receive not an accusation, but ¹ before two ^d or three witnesses.

20 Them that sin rebuke ^e before all, that ^g others also may fear.

21 I charge ^h thee before God, and the Lord Je su Christ, and the elect ⁱ angels, that thou observe these things without preferring ³ one ^k before another, doing nothing by partiality.

22 Lay hands ^m suddenly on no man, neither be partaker ⁿ of other men's sins : keep thyself pure.

23 Drink no longer wine, but use a little wine ^p for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities.

24 Some men's sins are open ^r beforehand, going before to judgment : and some ^{men} they follow after.

25 Likewise also the good works of ^{some} are manifest beforehand ; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

CHAP. VI.

LET as many servants ^{to} as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed.

2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise ^{them}, because they are brethren ; but rather do ^{them} service, because they ^a ^{re} ^s faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.

3 If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome ^d words, ^{even} the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according ^f to godliness,

4 He is proud, ⁱ knowing ^g nothing, but ³ dotting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings,

5 Perverse ¹⁰ disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness : from such ^h withdraw thyself.

6 But godliness ^l with contentment is great gain.

7 For we brought nothing into ^{this} world, and it is certain ⁿ we can carry nothing out.

8 And having food and raiment, let us

9 But they that will ^c be rich, fall into temptation, and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.

10 For ^f the love of money is the root of all evil ; which while some coveted after, they have ² erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 But thou, O man ^l of God, flee these things ; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.

16 Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which ^z no man can approach unto ; whom ^a no man hath seen nor can see : to whom ^b be honour and power everlasting. Amen.

17 Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not high-minded, nor trust ^c in ⁶ uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy ; ^e

18 That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing ⁸ to communicate ;

19 Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay ^h hold on eternal life.

20 O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding ⁱ profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called :

21 Which some professing have ^m erred concerning the faith. Grace ^{be} with thee Amen.

The first to Timothy was written from Laodicea, which is the chiefest city of Phrygia Pacatiana.

The Second Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to TIMOTHY.

CHAP. I.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus, 2 To Timothy, my dearly beloved son: c Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;

4 Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy;

5 When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

8 Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God;

9 Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus, before the world began;

10 But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel:

11 Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.

13 Hold fast the form of those sound words, which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

14 That is good thing which was committed unto thee, keep by the Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia be turned away from me; of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord give mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus; for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain.

17 But when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant unto him that he may find mercy of the Lord in that day: and in how many things he ministered unto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAP. II.

THOU therefore, my son, be a strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

3 Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth is entangled himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

5 And if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully.

6 The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ, of the seed of David, was raised from the dead according to my gospel:

9 Wherein I suffer trouble, as an ambassador, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sake, that they may also obtain the salvation, which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

11 It is a faithful saying: For if ye be dead with him, we shall also live with him:

12 If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us:

13 If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.

15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

16 But shun profane and vain babblings; for they will increase unto more ungodliness:

17 And their word will eat as doth a canker: of whom is Hymeneus and Philetus;

18 Who concerning the truth have erred, saying, That the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord y knoweth them that are his. And let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work.

22 Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with men that call a on the Lord out of a pure heart.

23 But foolish and unlearned questions c avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.

24 And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, i patient,

25 In meekness e instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure f will give them repentance to the acknowledging g of the truth;

26 And that they may a recover themselves out of the snare i of the devil, who are taken b captive by him at his will.

CHAP. III.

THIS know also, that m in the last days n perilous times shall come.

2 For o men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, brusters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

3 Without natural affection, trucebreakers, s false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,

4 Traitors, t heady, high-minded, u lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;

5 Having w a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.

6 For of this sort are they which y creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts,

7 Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 Now as Jannes and Jambres a withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men b of corrupt minds, c reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as theirs also was.

10 But thou hast 7 fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, long-suffering, charity, patience, 11 Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me at Antioch, d at Iconium, e at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but out of them all h the Lord delivered me.

12 Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.

13 But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being i deceived.

14 But continue n thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them;

15 And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which o are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

16 All p scripture is given by inspiration of God, and q is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness;

17 That the man of God may be perfect, r thoroughly s furnished unto all good works.

CHAP. IV.

judge b the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom;

2 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, d rebuke, exhort, with all long-suffering and doctrine.

3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

5 But watch thou in all things, k endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make 4 full proof l of thy ministry.

6 For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure n is at hand.

7 I have fought p a good fight, I have finished q my course, I have kept r the faith:

8 Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown s of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them v also that love his appearing.

9 Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me:

10 For Demas hath forsaken me, having loved s this present world, and is departed unto Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia.

11 Only Luke is with me. Take Mark and bring him with thee; for he is profitable to me for the ministry.

12 And Tychicus z have I sent to Ephesus.

13 The cloke that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comest, bring wit thee, and the books, but especially the parchments.

14 Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil: the Lord reward him according to his works:

15 Of whom be thou ware also; for he hath greatly withstood our 8 words.

16 At my first answer no man stood with me, but all f men forsook me: I pray God that it may not be laid g to their charge.

17 Notwithstanding the Lord i stood with me, and strengthened me; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth k of the lion.

18 And the Lord m shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

19 Salute Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus.

20 Erastus abode at Corinth: but Trophimus have I left at Miletum sick.

21 Do thy diligence to come before winter. Eubulus greeteth thee, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren.

22 The Lord Jesus Christ be with thy spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

The second epistle unto Timotheus, ordained the first bishop of the church of the Ephesians, was written from Rome, when Paul was brought before 10 Nero the second time.

The Epistle of PAUL to TITUS.

CHAP. I.

PAUL, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowledging of the truth which is after godliness;
2 In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;

3 But g hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, h which is committed unto me, according to the commandment of God our Saviour;

4 To Titus, mine own son i after the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order p the things that are wanting, and ordain r elders in every city as I had appointed thee:

6 If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children, not accused of riot, or unruly.

7 For a bishop x must be blameless, as the steward of God; not self-willed, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre;

8 But a lover of hospitality, a lover of good s men, sober, just, holy, temperate;

9 Holding a fast the faithful word, u as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.

10 For there are many unruly and vain talkers d and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision:

11 Whose mouths must be stopped; who subvert e whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

12 One f of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are always liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke h them sharply; that they may be sound in the faith, 14 Not giving heed to Jewish fables, i and commandments of men that turn from the truth.

15 Unto l the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

16 They profess n that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work o reprobate.

CHAP. II.

BUT speak thou the things which become sound doctrine:

2 That the aged q men be so sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience.

3 The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh u holiness, not l false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

4 That they may teach the r young women to be so sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,

5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

6 Young men likewise exhort to be sober so minded:

7 In all things shewing thyself t a pattern of good works: in doctrine showing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity,

8 Sound u speech, that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

9 Exhort servants b to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not 2 answering again;

10 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; that f they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

11 For the grace i of God that bringeth salvation 3 hath appeared to all men,

12 Teaching us, that, denying k ungodliness and worldly lusts, m we n should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;

13 Looking o for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing q of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;

14 Who gave s his self for us, that he might redeem us from all t iniquity, and purify u unto himself a peculiar v people, zealous w of good works.

15 These *th*ings speak, and exhort; and rebuke with all authority. Let y no man despise thee.

CHAP. III.

PUT them in mind to be subject z to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work.

2 To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all b meekness unto all men.

3 For we ourselves also were sometime foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

4 But after that the kindness and l love of God our Saviour toward man appeared,

5 Not g by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;

6 Which he shed on us 2 abundantly, through Jesus Christ our Saviour;

7 That, being justified k by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

8 This is a faithful saying; and these things I will that thou affirm constantly; that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.

9 But o avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.

10 A man that is an heretic, after the first and second admonition p reject;

11 Knowing that he that is such, is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself.

12 When I shall send Artemas unto thee, or Tychicus, be diligent to come unto me to Nicopolis: for I have determined there to winter.

13 Bring Zenas the lawyer, and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.

14 And let ours also learn to 12 maintain good s works for necessary uses, that they be not unfruitful.

15 All that be with me salute thee. Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

It was written to Titus, ordained the first bishop of the church of the Cretians, from Nicopolis of Macedonia.

The Epistle of PAUL to PHILEMON.

PAUL, a prisoner b of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, unto Philemon our dearly beloved, and fellow-labourer, c

2 And to our beloved Apphia, and Archippus d our fellow-soldier, and to the church f in thy house :

3 Grace h to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I thank i my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,

5 Hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all saints ;

6 That m the communication of thy faith may become effectual o by the acknowledging of every p good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus.

7 For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the saints are refreshed q by thee, brother.

8 Wherefore, though r I might be much bold in Christ to enjoin thee that which is convenient,

9 Yet for love's sake I rather beseech t thee, being such an one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ ;

10 I beseech thee for my son Onesimus, to whom I have begotten x in my bonds :

11 Which z in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me :

12 Whom I have sent again : thou therefore receive him, that is, mine own bowels ;

13 Whom I would have retained with me, that e in thy stead he might have

The Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the HEBREWS.

CHAP. I.

GOD, who a at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,

2 Hath in these last days spoken b unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir d of all things, by whom e also he made the worlds;

3 Who f being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when g he had by himself purged our sins, sat down h on the right hand of the Majesty on high;

4 Being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.

5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, i Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, n I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?

6 And again, when he bringeth in the first-begotten into the world, he saith, And r let all the angels of God worship him.

7 And s of the angels he saith, s Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But unto the Son he saith, v Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness u is the sceptre of thy kingdom:

9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

10 And, a Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands:

11 They shall perish, but thou remainest: and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, f Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

14 Are they not all ministering g spirits, sent forth h to minister for them who shall be heirs i of salvation?

CHAP. II.

THEREFORE we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should u let them slip.

2 For if the word spoken by angels l was stedfast, and m every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward;

3 How n shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which o at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him;

4 God q also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and 1 gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will?

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak.

6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, c What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest him 2 a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:

8 Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him.

9 But we see Jesus, who k was made a little lower than the angels, 2 for the suffering of death, crowned m with glory and honour; that he o by the grace of God should taste death for every man.

10 For it became p him, for q whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain t of their salvation u perfect through sufferings.

11 For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all w of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren;

12 Saying, x I will declare thy name unto my brethren; in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

13 And again, y I will put my trust in him. And again, z Behold I and the children which b God hath given me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death d he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

15 And deliver them who through e fear of death were all their life-time subject to bondage.

16 For verily 7 he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham.

17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful k and faithful High Priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people:

18 For in that he himself hath suffered, being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAP. III.

WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest p of our profession, Christ Jesus;

2 Who was faithful to him that 2 appointed him, as also Moses r was faithful in all his house.

3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who hath builded a the house hath more honour than the house.

4 For every house is builded by some man; but he that built all things is God.

5 And Moses b verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, c for a testimony of e those things which were to be spoken after;

6 But Christ as a son f over his own house; whose house h are we, if i we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end.

7 Wherefore (as the Holy Ghost saith, To-day, m if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness;

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do always err in their heart; and they have not known my ways.

11 So I swear in my wrath, 2 They shall not enter into my rest.)

12 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil s heart of unbelief, in departing u from the living God.

13 But exhort v one another daily, while it is called To-day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if x we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end;

15 While it is said, y To-day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

16 For a some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcases d fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whom swore f he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?

19 So i we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

CHAP. IV.

LET us l therefore fear, lest a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached 6 did not profit them, 7 not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

3 For we which have believed do enter into rest; as he said, 8 As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, s And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they t to whom 8 it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:

7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To-day, after so long a time; (as it is said) v To-day, if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if 10 Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore a 1 rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his 11 Let d us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of 2 unbelief.

12 For the word g of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, k piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner l of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked n and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have a great High Priest, that is passed o into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold p fast our profession.

15 For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched q with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without r sin.

16 Let us therefore come boldly t unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need

CHAP. V.

FOR every high priest taken from among men is ordained w for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

2 Who can 4 have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he z himself also is compassed with infirmity.

3 And by reason hereof he ought, a for the people, so b also for himself, to offer for sins.

4 And c no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 So also Christ g glorified not himself to be made an high priest; but he that said unto him, h Thou art my Son, to-day have I begotten thee.

6 As he saith also in another place, Thou k art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

7 Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers m and supplications, with strong crying and tears, unto him that was able n to save him from death, and was heard 5 in that he feared;

8 Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience o by the things which he suffered:

9 And q being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;

10 Called of God an high priest r after the order of Melchisedec.

11 Of whom we have many things tc say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God: and are become such as have need of milk, u & not of strong meat.

13 For every one that useth milk 9 is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.

14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are 11 of full age, even those who ly reason of 12 use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

CHAP. VI.

THEREFORE, a leaving ¹ the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from b dead works, and of faith c toward God,

2 Of the doctrine of baptisms, d and of laying on f of hands, and of g resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.

3 And this will we do, if h God permit.

4 For i it is impossible i for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost,

5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,

6 If m they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put n him to an open shame.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them ³ by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing o from God:

8 But that which beareth thorns q and briers is rejected, and is high unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10 For r God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the t full assurance of hope unto the end:

12 That ye be not slothful u but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he swore by himself,

14 Saying, v Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men verily swear by the greater: and an oath w for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

17 Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs b of promise the immutability c of his counsel, confirmed ⁵ it by an oath;

18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to d lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold f upon the hope set before us:

19 Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that within h the veil;

20 Whither i the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made an high priest forever after the order of Melchisedec. k like unto the Son of God, abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 And verily they that are of the sons of Levi, who e receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham:

6 But he, whose ² descent is not counted from them, received k tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had l the promises.

7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, of whom n it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And as i may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedec met him.

11 If p therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what farther need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is evident s that our Lord sprang out of Juda; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest, 16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.

17 For he testifieth, v Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before, for the weakness x and unprofitableness thereof.

19 For the law z made nothing perfect, but ⁴ the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which a we draw nigh unto God.

20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest,

21 (For those priests were made without ⁶ an oath; but this with an oath b, him that said unto him, c The Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.)

22 By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better g testament.

23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death:

24 But this man, because he continueth ever hath an ⁷ unchangeable i priesthood.

25 Wherefore he is able as also to save them ⁸ to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession o for them.

26 For such an high priest became us, who is holy, p harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens;

27 Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first q for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself.

28 For the law maketh men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is ¹ consecrated for evermore.

CHAP. VIII.

NOW of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such an high priest, who c is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens; ² A minister of ² the sanctuary, e and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

³ For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer. h

⁴ For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that ⁴ there are priests that offer gifts according to the law :

⁵ Who serve unto the example and shadow n of heavenly things, as Moses was admonish'd of God when he was about to make the tabernacle for, See, saith he, q that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

⁶ But now hath he obtained a more excellent u ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better ⁶ covenant, which was established upon better promises.

⁷ For if w that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

⁸ For finding fault with them, he y saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel & with the house of Judah :

¹⁰ For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will ¹⁰ put my laws into their mind, and write them: ⁹ in their hearts: and b I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people :

¹¹ And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all d shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

¹² For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

¹³ In that he saith, A new e covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away.

CHAP. IX.

THEN verily the first covenant had ¹² also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary. h

² For there was a tabernacle k made, the first, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, l and the shew-bread; m which is called ¹³ the Sanctuary.

³ And after the second veil, n the tabernacle, which is called the Holiest of all;

⁴ Which had the golden censer, o and the ark p of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden q pot that had manna, and Aaron's rods that budded, and the tables t of the covenant;

⁵ And over it the cherubims u of glory shadowing the mercy-seat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

⁶ Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests v went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

⁷ But into the second went the high priest alone a once every year, not without blood, which he offered for b himself, and for the errors of the people :

⁸ The Holy Ghost this signifying, That the way d into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing :

⁹ Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not f make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience; g

¹⁰ Which stood only in meats i and drinks, and divers washings, k and carnal ² ordinances, l imposed on them until the time of reformation.

¹² Neither by the blood of goats r and calves, but by his own s blood, he entered in once into the holy place, t having obtained eternal redemption for us.

¹³ For if the blood of bulls & of goats, & the ashes v of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh ;

¹⁴ How much more shall the blood of Christ, who x through the eternal Spirit offered himself without ⁶ spot to God : purge z your conscience from dead works to serve a the living God ?

¹⁵ And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

¹⁶ For where a testament is, there must also of necessity ⁷ be the death of the testator.

¹⁷ For a testament is of force after men are dead : otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

¹⁸ Whereupon neither the first testament was ¹⁰ dedicated without blood.

¹⁹ For c when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and ¹¹ scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people, ²⁰ Saying, This is the blood f of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.

²¹ Moreover g he sprinkled likewise with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.

²² And almost all things are by the law purged with blood ; and without shedding of blood i is no remission.

²³ It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these ; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

²⁴ For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true ; but into heaven itself, now to appear r in the presence of God for us :

²⁵ Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others ;

²⁶ For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world : but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared, to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 And as it is appointed a unto men once to die, but after this b the judgment; 28 So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; c and unto them that look for him shall he appear d the second time, without sin, unto salvation.

CHAP. X.

FOR the law, having a shadow k of good things to come and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect:

2 For then ¹ would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.

4 For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

5 Wherefore, when he cometh into the world, he saith, r Sacrifice and offering thou wouldst not, but a body hast thou prepared me.

6 ¹ burnt-offerings and sacrifices for sins thou hast had no pleasure:

7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above, when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt-offerings and offering for sin thou wouldst not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law;

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By the which will we are sanctified, v through the offering x of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest standeth daily y ministering, and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never a take away sins:

12 But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins, for ever sat c down on the right hand of God;

13 From henceforth expecting till his enemies e be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering he hath f perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

15 Whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before, 16 This h is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their hearts, & in their minds will I write them.

17 And ² their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having therefore, brethren, ³ boldness to enter into the holiest l by the blood of Jesus.

20 By a new and living way n which he hath ⁴ consecrated for us through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;

21 And having an high priest o over the house of God;

22 Let us draw near with a true heart, in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled r from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.

23 Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he t is faithful that promised;)

24 And let us consider one another, to provoked unto love and to good works:

25 Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more as d ye see the day approaching.

26 For if f we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, 27 But a certain fearful looking for of judgment, and fiery l indignation which shall devour the adversaries.

28 He n that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses:

29 Of n how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit q of grace?

30 For we know him that hath said, Vengeance s belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, t The Lord shall judge his people.

31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions;

33 Partly, whilst ye were made a gazing-stock, both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, whilst ye became u companions of them that were so used.

34 For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing ³ in yourselves that ye have in heaven w a better and an enduring substance.

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great z recompence of reward.

36 For ye have need of patience; b that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise.

37 For d yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry.

38 Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not of them who draw back y unto perdition, but of them that believe to the saving of the soul.

CHAP. XI.

NOW faith is the ⁴ substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen,

2 For by it the elders obtained a good report.

3 Through faith we understand k that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

4 By faith Abel m offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he, being dead, ⁵ yet speaketh.

5 By faith Enoch p was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

6 But without faith it is impossible to please s him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

7 By faith Noah, u being warned of God of things not seen as yet, ¹ moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

8 By faith Abraham, ^c when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, ^f dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

10 For he looked for a city ^m which hath foundations, whose builder ⁿ and maker is God.

11 Through faith also Sara ^o herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful ^t who had promised.

12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, ^{so many} v as the stars of the sky in multitude, & as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

13 These all died ³ in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed ^z that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things, declare plainly ^{that} they seek a country.

15 And truly if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned:

16 But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; ^b for he hath prepared for them a city. ^c

17 By faith Abraham, when ^d he was tried, offered up Isaac; and he that had received the promises, offered up his only-begotten son,

18 ⁵ Of whom it was said, ^f That in Isaac shall thy seed be called:

19 Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.

20 By faith Isaac ^h blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.

21 By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, blessed ^j both the sons of Joseph; and worshipped, ^{leaning} upon the top of his staff.

22 By faith Joseph, ^l when he died, made ¹ mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

23 By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid ^m three months of his parents, because they saw ^{he was} a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment. ^o

24 By faith Moses, ^p when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter;

25 Choosing ^r rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;

26 Esteeming the reproach ^s of ^t Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence ^u of the reward.

27 By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing ^v the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him ^{who is} invisible.

28 Through faith he kept the passover, ^z and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the first-born should touch them. 29 By faith they passed ^a a through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do, were drowned.

30 By faith the walls of Jericho ^b fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.

31 By faith the harlot Rahab ^d perished not with them that ² believed not, when she had received the spies ^e with peace.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of ^g Gedeon, and of ^h Barak, ⁱ and of ^j Samson, ^k and of ^l Jephthae; ^m of David ⁿ also, and Samuel, ^o and of the prophets;

33 Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, ^p stopped the mouths of lions, ^q 34 Quenched the violence of fire, ^r escaped ^s the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.

35 Women ^u received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting ^w deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:

36 And others had trial of ^{cruc} mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover, of bonds ^x and imprisonment. ^y

37 They were stoned, ^a they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

38 (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

39 And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received ^{not} the promise:

40 God having ⁴ provided some better thing for us, that they without ^e us should not be made perfect.

CHAP. XII.

WHEREFORE seeing we also are compassed about with ^{so great a} cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside ^g every weight, and the sin which doth ^{so} easily beset ^{us}, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,

2 Looking unto Jesus the ⁶ author and finisher of ^{our} faith; who, for the ⁱ joy that was set before him, endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

4 Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation ⁿ which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:

6 For ^q whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for ^s what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore, we have had fathers of our flesh, which corrected ^{us}; and we gave ^{them} reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father ^v of Spirits, and live?

10 For they verily for a few days chastened us ¹ after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless, afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit d of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

12 Wherefore lift f up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees:

13 And make ² straight h paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but h let it rather be healed.

14 Follow peace i with all men, and holiness, without m which no man shall see the Lord:

15 Looking diligently o lest any man fall ⁴ of the grace of God; lest any p root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

16 Lest there be any fornicator, s or profane person, as Esau, who t for one morsel of meat sold his birth-right.

17 For ye know how that afterward, when u he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place ⁵ of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

18 For ye are not come unto the v mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which x voice they that heard, entreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:

20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And b if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart.

21 And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake:)

22 But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city e of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels, h

23 To the general assembly and church of the first-born, k which are ⁸ written i in heaven, and to God the Judge n of all, and to the spirits of just men o made perfect,

24 And to Jesus the mediator p of the new covenant, ⁹ and to the blood q of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel. s

25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven:

26 Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, x Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.

27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are ¹² shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

28 Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us ¹ have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear:

29 For a our God is a consuming fire.

3 Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

4 Marriage b is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but c whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

5 Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content e with such things as ye have: for he hath said, g I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

6 So that we may boldly say, i The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

7 Remember them which ³ have the rule over you, who hath spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith n follow, considering the end of their conversation:

8 Jesus Christ the same q yesterday, and to-day, and for ever.

9 Be ⁷ not carried about with divers and strange doctrines: for it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.

10 We have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle.

11 For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without to the camp.

12 Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without y the gate.

13 Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing z his reproach:

14 For here a have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come.

15 By him c therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit d of our lips, ⁶ giving thanks to his name.

16 But to do good, and to communicate, f forget not: for with such g sacrifices God is well pleased.

17 Obey i them that ⁷ have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch m for your souls, as they that must give account: that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.

18 Pray for us: for we trust we have a good conscience, r in all things willing to live honestly.

19 But i beseech you the rather to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.

20 Now the God t of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd v of the sheep, w through the blood of the everlasting ¹⁰ covenant, 21 Make you perfect y in every good work to do his will, ¹¹ working z in you, that which is well-pleasing in his sight; through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

22 And i beseech you, brethren, suffer the word of exhortation: for I have written a letter unto you in few words.

23 Know ye that our brother Timothy is set at liberty; with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you.

24 Salute all them that have the rule over you, and all the saints. They of Italy salute you.

25 Grace be with you all. Amen.

Written to the Hebrews from Italy by Timothy.

The general Epistle of JAMES.

CHAP. I.

JAMES, a servant b of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered d abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, count it all joy e when ye fall into divers temptations;

3 Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh f patience.

4 But let patience g have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

5 If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that h giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and m it shall be given him.

6 But n let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth, is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

8 A double-minded man is unstable in all his ways.

9 Let the brother of low degree 2 rejoice in that he is exalted:

10 But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass r he shall pass away.

11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

12 Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown t of life, which u the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with 6 evil, neither tempteth he any man:

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own y lust, and enticed.

15 Then when lust hath z conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death. b

16 Do not err, my beloved brethren.

17 Every d good gift, and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom f is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

18 Of g his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first-fruits t of his creatures.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow l to speak, slow m to wrath:

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart n all filthiness, and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the ingrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

22 But be ye doers a of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

23 For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass:

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But whoso looketh h into the perfect law of liberty, i and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man l shall be blessed in his 1 deed.

26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and brideth not his tongue, o but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

27 Pure religion, and undefiled before God and the Father, is this, To visit p the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself q unspotted q from the world.

CHAP. II.

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory with respect s of persons.

2 For if there come unto your 3 assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel; and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here 4 in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 Are ye not then partial in yourselves and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, v Hath not God chosen the poor of this world, rich w in faith, and heirs of 5 the kingdom x which he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment-seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that a worthy name by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfil the royal law, according to the scripture, c Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

9 But if ye have respect e to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he h is guilty of all.

11 For 7 he that said, h Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law o of liberty.

13 For he p shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy, and mercy: rejoice with a against judgment.

14 What b doth i profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? Can faith save him?

15 If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what f doth i profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being 3 alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and 7 have works: shew me thy faith 2 without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

19 Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils m also believe, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when o he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

22 8 Seest thou how faith g wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the Scripture was fulfilled which saith, r Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called s the Friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that by works t a man is justified, and not by faith only.

25 Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot u justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the 11 spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

CHAP. III.

MY brethren, be not many y masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation. 12

2 For a in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, c the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold, we put bits f in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

5 Even so the tongue i is a little member, and boasteth k great things. Behold, now great 14 a matter a little fire kindleth!

6 And the tongue u is a fire, 1 a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth m the whole body, and setteth on fire the 15 course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For every 16 kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea is tamed, and hath been tamed of 17 mankind:

8 But the tongue can 10 no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly o poison.

9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same 19 place sweet water and bitter?

12 Can the fig-tree, r my brethren, bear

13 Who e is a wise man and caduced with knowledge among you? let him shew 4 out of a good conversation d his works with meekness of wisdom.

14 But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not; and be not against the truth.

15 This s wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, 2 sensual, devilish.

16 For where envying and strife is, there is 4 confusion and every evil work.

17 But the wisdom g that is from above is first pure, h then peaceable, i gentle, k and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without 8 partiality, and without hypocrisy.

18 And the fruit n of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

CHAP. IV.

FROM whence come wars and 1 fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your 2 lusts that war p in your members?

2 Ye lust, and have not: ye 10 kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.

3 Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your 3 lusts.

4 Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship u of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world, is the enemy of God.

5 Do ye think that the Scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth 12 to envy? x

6 But he giveth more grace: Wherefore he saith, s God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist b the devil, and he will flee from you.

8 Draw d nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse c your hands, ye sinners: and purify your hearts, ye double-minded.

9 Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

10 Humble g yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall l ft you up.

11 Speak a not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

12 There is one Lawgiver, who n is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?

13 Go to now, ye that say, To-day or to-morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain:

14 Whereas, ye know not what shall be on the morrow: For what is your life? it is even a vapour, p that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

15 For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.

16 But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil.

17 Therefore q to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

GO to now, ye rich b men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

2 Your riches e are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten. f

3 Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped h treasure together for the last days.

4 Behold, the hire k of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered n into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth.

5 Ye have lived in pleasure o on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

6 Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist r you.

7 t Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early u and latter rain.

8 Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for v the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

9 z Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the Judge standeth x before the door.

10 Take, myⁿ brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, z and of patience.

11 Behold, we count them a happy which endure. Ye have heard of the patience c of Job, and have seen the end d of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

12 But above all things, my brethren, swear g not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea, and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? let i him pray. Is any merry? let him sing l psalms.

14 Is any sick m among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

16 Confess q your faults unto another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. s

18 And he prayed again, w and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one y convert him, 20 Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a a multitude of sins.

The First Epistle General of PETER.

CHAP. I.

PETER, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers scattered b throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,

2 Elect c according to the foreknowledge d of God the Father, through sanctification e of the Spirit, unto f obedience and sprinkling g of the blood of Jesus Christ; Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied. i

3 Blessed k be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his l abundant m mercy, hath begotten us again n unto a lively hope by the resurrection p of Jesus Christ from the dead,

4 To an inheritance q incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth r not away, reserved t in heaven for u you,

5 Who are kept v by the power of God through faith w unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time.

6 Wherein y ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need y be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations:

7 That the trial b of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with c fire, might be found unto praise and d honour and glory at the appearing e of Jesus Christ:

8 Whom having not g seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy i unspeakable and full of glory:

9 Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

10 Of which salvation the prophets have inquired and searched m diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you:

11 Searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit p of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.

12 Unto whom it was revealed, that not t unto themselves but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost v sent down from heaven; which things the angels w desire to look into.

13 Wherefore gird x up the loins of your mind, be sober, z and hope 6 to the end a for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ;

14 As obedient children, not fashioning b yourselves according to the former lust in your ignorance:

15 But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation;

16 Because it is written, s Be ye holy; for I am holy.

17 And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear: a

18 Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers;

19 But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb b without blemish and without spot:

20 Who verily was fore-ordained before l the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you;

21 Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and o gave him glory, that your faith and hope might be in God.

22 Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth s through the Spirit unto unfeigned love u of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently:

23 Being born x again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word z of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.

24 3 For a all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away:

25 But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this f is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

CHAP. II.

WHEREFORE laying aside a all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings,

2 As new-born babes, k desire the sincere milk l of the word, that ye may grow thereby:

3 If so be ye have tasted n that the Lord is gracious.

4 To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed o indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious,

5 Ye also, as lively stones, 4 are built up a spiritual house, q an holy priesthood, r to offer up spiritual s sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

6 Wherefore also it is contained in the Scripture, u Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner-stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.

7 Unto you therefore which believe, he is 8 precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone y which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

8 And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, evens to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto c also they were appointed.

9 But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar d people; that ye should shew forth the 6 praises of him who hath called you out of darkness f into his marvellous light:

10 Which g in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy but now have obtained mercy.

11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers b and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, c which war d against the soul;

12 Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that ¹ whereas they speak against you as evil doers, they may by your good works, g which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.

13 Submit i yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme;

14 Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evil doers, and for the praise of them that do well.

15 For so is the will of God, that l with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:

16 As free, m and not ³ using your liberty for a cloak of maliciousness, but as the servants of God.

17 Honour ⁵ all n men. Love o the brotherhood. Fear q God. Honour the king. r

18 Servants, s be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

19 For this is ⁶ thank-worthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully.

20 For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for u, ye take it patiently, this v is acceptable ⁶ with God.

21 For even hereunto w were ye called: because Christ also suffered ⁸ for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow x his steps:

22 Who z did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth:

23 Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed ⁹ himself to him that d judgeth righteously:

24 Who his own self bare e our sins in his own body ¹⁰ on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live g unto righteousness: by h whose stripes ye were healed.

25 For ye were as sheep going astray; i but are now returned unto the k Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

CHAP. III.

LIKewise, ye wives, n be in subjection to your own husbands; that if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives;

2 While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear.

3 Whose adorning, p let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

4 But let it be the hidden man of the heart, t in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek u and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

5 For after this manner, in the old time, the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands:

6 Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord; w whose ¹¹ daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

Righteous sufferers to rejoice.

7 Likewise, ye husbands, u dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, be ye all of one e mind, having compassion one of another; ² love f as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous:

9 Not h rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing; but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing.

10 For h he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile:

11 Let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is ⁴ against them that do evil.

13 And p who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good?

14 But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and t be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled;

15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts; and u be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and ⁷ fear.

16 Having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evil doers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing.

18 For Christ y also hath once suffered for sins, the just a for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to b death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit:

19 By which also he went and preached unto the spirits in prison; c

20 Which sometime were disobedient, when once f the long suffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls, were saved by water.

21 The like figure whereunto even baptism, i doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience m toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ:

22 Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels o and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

CHAP. IV.

FORASMUCH then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: q for he r that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin;

2 That s he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God.

3 For v the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries:

4 Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil x of you:

5 Who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead.

Motives to Christian fortitude.

6 For, for this cause was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged a according to men in the flesh, but live b according to God in the spirit.

7 But the end c of all things is at hand : be ye therefore sober, and watch e unto prayer.

8 And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves : for g charity shall 2 cover the multitude of sins.

9 Use hospitality a one to another, without grudging.

10 As every man hath received m the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards o of the manifold grace of God.

11 If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God ; if any man minister, let him do 2 as of the ability which God giveth : that God in all r things may be glorified through Jesus Christ ; to t whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery v trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you :

13 But rejoice, x inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings ; that, when z his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

14 If b ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye ; for the Spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you : on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evil-doer, or as a busy-body in other men's matters.

16 Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed ; but let him glorify God on this behalf.

17 For the time is come that judgment must begin k at the house of God : and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God ?

18 And if m the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear ?

19 Wherefore, let them that suffer according to the will of God, commit 2 the keeping of thei souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

CHAP. V.

THE elders which are among you 1 exhort, who am also an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory d that shall be revealed :

2 Feed f the flock of God 1 which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly ; h not for filthy lucre, i but of a ready mind ;

3 Neither as 2 being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples l to the flock.

4 And when the chief n Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown p of glory that fadeeth not away.

5 Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder : yea, all q of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility : for God s resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

6 Humble u yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time :

7 Casting w all your care upon him, for he careth for you.

8 Be sober, be vigilant ; because your adversary the devil, as y a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour :

9 Whom resist, a steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

10 But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, c make you perfect, d establish, e strengthen, f settle g you.

11 To him be h glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 By Silvanus, i a faithful brother unto you, as i suppose, I have written briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God wherein ye 1 stand.

13 The church that is at Babylon, elected together with you, saluteth you ; and so doth Marcus my son.

14 Greet n ye one another with a kiss of charity. Peace p be with you all that are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

The Second Epistle General of PETER

CHAP. I.

SIMON¹ PETER, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like a precious faith with us, through the righteousness of ² God and our Saviour Jesus Christ :

² Grace and peace c be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,

³ According as his divine power hath given unto us all e things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us ⁴ to glory and virtue : g

⁴ Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises ; i that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped m the corruption that is in the world through lust.

⁵ And besides this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue ; o and to virtue knowledge ; p

⁶ And to knowledge temperance ; q and to temperance patience ; r and to patience godliness ; s

⁷ And to godliness brotherly kindness ; t and to brotherly kindness charity. u

⁸ For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be ⁶ barren nor unfruitful v in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

⁹ But he that lacketh these things is blind, x and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.

¹⁰ Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence z to make your calling and election sure : for a if ye do these things, ye shall never fall :

¹¹ For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

¹² Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.

¹³ Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir a you up, by putting you in remembrance ;

¹⁴ Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me. h

¹⁵ Moreover, I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.

¹⁶ For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, k when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eye-witnesses m of his majesty.

¹⁷ For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased ¹⁸ And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount.

¹⁹ We have also a more sure word of prophecy ; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light b that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day-star d arise in your hearts :

²⁰ Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the Scripture is of any private interpretation.

²¹ For the prophecy came not ³ in f old time by the will of man : but holy men of God spake as they were moved h by the Holy Ghost.

CHAP. II.

BUT there l were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, n who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

² And many shall follow their ⁵ pernicious ways ; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

³ And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you : whose judgment v now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

⁴ For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness to be reserved unto judgment ;

⁵ And spared not the old world, but saved Noah y the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly ;

⁶ And turning the cities of b Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them with an overthrow, making c them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly ;

⁷ And delivered just Lot, d vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked ;

⁸ (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds :)

⁹ The Lord knoweth how to f deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve g the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished :

¹⁰ But chiefly them i that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise ⁷ government : presumptuous are they, self-willed ; they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities. l

¹¹ Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation ⁸ against them before the Lord.

¹² But these, as natural brute n beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not ; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption ;

13 And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they a that count it pleasure to riot in the day-time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings, while they feast with you;

14 Having eyes full of a adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: a heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children:

15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam f the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass, speaking with man's voice, forbade the madness of the prophet.

17 These are wells without water, clouds h that are carried with a tempest; in whom the midst of darkness is reserved for ever.

18 For when they speak n a great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lust of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were 3 clean escaped from them who live in error.

19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for q of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world, through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again t entangled therein and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

21 For it had been better v for them not to have known the way to of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, y The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and, The sow that was washed, to her wallowing in the mire.

CHAP. III.

THIS second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance:

2 That b ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before c by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

3 Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, d walking after their own lusts,

4 And saying, Where f is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that b by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth 1 standing out of the water c and in the water:

6 Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, d perished:

7 But the heavens and the earth which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire e against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a g thousand years as one day.

9 The Lord is not slack h concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is long-suffering: i to us-ward, not willing l that any should perish, but that all should m come to repentance.

10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief o in the night; in the which the heavens p shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat; the earth also, and the works that are therein, shall be burnt up.

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness;

12 Looking for r and 4 hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens, being on fire, shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt s with fervent heat?

13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new u heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent x that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

15 And account that the long-suffering of our Lord is salvation; z even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdom given unto him, hath written unto you;

16 As also in all his epistles, a speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

17 Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness.

18 But grow e in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him g be glory, both now and for ever. Amen.

The First Epistle general of JOHN.

CHAP. I.

THAT which was from the a beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen c with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have d handled, of the Word of life;

2 (For the Life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal Life, f which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us.)

3 That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

4 And these things write we unto you, that n our joy may be full.

5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, & declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

7 But if we walk t in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood x of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

8 If we say that we have no sin, y we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

9 If we confess z our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse b us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

CHAP. II.

MY little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate f with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:

2 And he is the propitiation g for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep k his commandments.

4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.

6 He that saith he abideth m in him, ought himself also so to walk, n even as he walked.

7 Brethren, I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment, which ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Again, a new q commandment I write unto you; which thing is true in him and in you, because the darkness r is past, and the true light now shineth.

9 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness s even until now.

10 He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none 2 occasion of stumbling in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother, is in darkness, and walketh u in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because the darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his sake's y sake

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him b that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father. c

14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, g and the word of God abideth h in you, and ye have overcome i the wicked one.

15 Love k not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If m any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, o and the lust of the p eyes, and the pride q of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And s the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

18 Little children, t it is the last u time: and as ye have heard to that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for a if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest c that they were not all of us.

20 But ye have an unction d from the Holy One, and ye know e all things.

21 I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because y I know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 Who is a liar, but he that h denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.

23 Whosoever i denied the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but] he that acknowledged the Son, hath the Father also.

24 Let l that therefore abide in you which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal o life.

26 These things have I written unto you concerning them that seduce you.

27 But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you: and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth p you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in 1 him.

28 And now, little children, abide ia him; that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 If ye know that he is righteous, ye know 3 that f every one that doeth righteousness is born of him.

CHAP. III.

BEHOLD, what manner of love u the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons w of God! therefore the world x knoweth us not, because it knew him not.

2 Beloved, now are we the sons x of God; and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; and c for we shall see d him as he is.

3 And every man that hath this hope in him, purifieth himself even as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.

5 And ye know f that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin.

6 Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever g sinneth, hath not seen him, neither known him.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you: he i that doeth righteousness, is righteous, even as he is righteous.

8 He l that committeth sin, is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that m he might destroy the works of the devil.

9 Whosoever o is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed q remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

10 In this the children of God are manifested, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness, is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

11 For this is the t message that ye heard from the beginning, that u we should love one another.

12 Not as Cain, v who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

13 Marvel not, my brethren, if the world x hate you.

14 We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He c that loveth not his brother, abideth in death.

15 Whosoever d hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

16 Hereby f perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 But h who so hath this world's good, & seeth his brother have need, & shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how i dwelleth the love of God in him?

18 My little children, let k us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.

19 And hereby l we know that we are of the truth, and shall 3 assure our hearts before him.

20 For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloved, if our heart n condemn us not, then have we confidence p toward God.

22 And whatsoever q we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

23 And this s is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.

24 And he u that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby v we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

of God; because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every e spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God:

3 And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world.

4 Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome f them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world.

5 They are of the world: k therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them.

6 We are of God: he that knoweth God, heareth us; he that is not of God, heareth not us. Hereby n know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, let us love p one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth, is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not, knoweth not God; for God r is love.

9 In this s was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only-begotten Son into the world, that t we might live through him.

10 Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation u for our sins.

11 Beloved, if x God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

12 No y man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected a in us.

13 Hereby b know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

14 And we have seen, and do testify, that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

15 Whosoever c shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God g is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is 2 our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear; because fear hath torment. He that feareth, is not made perfect in love.

19 We love him, because he m first loved us.

20 If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how o can he love God whom he hath not seen.

21 And this commandment have we from him, That r he who loveth God love his brother also.

CHAP. V.

WHOSOEVER t believeth that Jesus is the Christ, is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat, loveth him also that is begotten of him.

2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.

3 For this is the love of God, that so we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not y grievous.

The Witness of our Faith.

4 For whatsoever is born of God, overcometh a the world : and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God ?

6 This is he that came c by water and blood, even Jesus Christ ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit e that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, f the Word, g and the Holy Ghost : h and these three are one.

8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the spirit, i and the water, m and the blood : n and these three agree in one.

9 If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater : for this is the witness of God, which he hath testified of his Son.

10 He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness r in himself : he that believeth not God, hath made him a liar ; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

11 And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and t this life is in his Son.

12 He v that hath the Son, hath life ; and he that hath not the Son of God, hath not life.

The efficacy of Faith.

13 These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God ; that b ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

14 And this is the confidence that we have i in him, That, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us :

15 And if we know d that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death : i I do k not say that he shall pray for it.

17 All unrighteousness o is sin : and there p is a sin not unto death.

18 We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not ; but he that is begotten of God keepeth q himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

19 And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness.

20 And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, s that we may know him that is true : and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This w is the true God, and eternal life.

21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols. w Amen.

THE elder unto the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth ; and not I only, but also all they that have known the truth ; the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist.

8 Look b to yourselves, that c we lose not those things which we have wrought, 2 but that we receive a full reward.

9 Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not d in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God : He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son.

10 If e there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed :

11 For he that biddeth him God speed, is partaker f of his evil deeds.

12 Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink : but I trust to come unto you, and speak face 3 to face, that 4 our joy i may be full.

The Third Epistle of JOHN.

THE elder unto the well-beloved Gaius, whom I love a in the truth.

2 Beloved, I wish b above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

3 For I rejoiced greatly, when the brethren came & testified of the truth that is in charity before the church : whom if thou bring a forward on their journey ¹ after a godly sort, thou shalt do well :

7 Because that for his name's sake they went forth, taking e nothing of the Gentiles.

8 We therefore ought to f receive such, that we might be fellow-helpers to the truth.

9 I wrote unto the church : but Diotrophes, who loveth to have the pre-eminence g among them, receiveth us not.

10 Wherefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, h prating against us with malicious words : and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and for-

General Epistle of JUDE.

JUDE, a the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified e by God the Father, and preserved g in Jesus Christ, and called : h

2 Mercy unto you, and peace, and love, be multiplied.

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common n salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend o for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

4 For there are certain men crept in unawares, q who r were before of old ordained to this condemnation ; ungodly men, turning t the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that u the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterwards destroyed to them that believed not.

6 And the angels x which kept not their ³ first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains, y under darkness, unto the judgment z of the great day.

7 Even as Sodom a and Gomorrah, and the cities about them, in like manner giving themselves over to fornication, and going after ⁴ strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

8 Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile e the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities.

9 Yet Michael g the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, k durst l not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord m rebuke thee.

10 But these speak evil of those things which they know not : but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 Woe unto them ! for they have gone in the way of Cain, s and ran greedily after the error of Balaam t for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core. v

12 These are spots w in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding b themselves without fear : c clouds they are without water, carried d about of winds ; trees whose fruit f withereth, without fruit, twice i dead, plucked k up by the roots ;

3 Raging waves l of the sea, foaming out their own shame ; wandering m stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

14 And Enoch also the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the p Lord cometh with ten thousand of his saints,

15 To execute judgment upon all, i and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard o speeches u which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts ; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men's persons in admiration because of advantage.

17 But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ ;

18 How that they told you b there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts.

19 These be they who separate e themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit.

20 But ye, beloved, building d up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying f in the Holy Ghost, 21 Keep h yourselves, in the love of God, looking i for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.

22 And of some have compassion, making a difference :

23 And others save with fear, pulling n them out of the fire ; having even the garment o spotted by the flesh.

24 Now p unto him that is able to keep q you from falling, you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy,

25 To u the only wise u our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever.

The REVELATION of St. JOHN the DIVINE.

CHAP. I.

THE Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John:

2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.

3 Blessed d is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time e is at hand.

4 JOHⁿ to the seven g churches which are in Asia: Grace be unto you, and peace, from him h which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the seven k Spirits which are before his throne;

5 And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, l and the m first-begotten of the dead, and the Prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved o us, and washed p us from our sins in his own blood,

6 And hath made us kings r and priests unto God and his Father; to him s be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

7 Behold, he cometh with clouds; v and every eye shall see him, and they w also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail x because of him. Even so, z Amen.

8 I a am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty. b

9 I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

10 I was in the Spirit f on the g Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet,

11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, k and u-to Smyrna, l and unto Pergamos, n and unto Thyatira, o and unto Sardis, p and unto Philadelphia, q and unto Laodicea. r

12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven u golden candlesticks.

13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one w like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes x were as a flame of fire;

15 And his feet a like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice c as the sound of many waters.

16 And he had in his right hand seven stars; and out of his mouth went a sharp two-edged word: and his countenance was as the sun a shineth in his strength.

17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first and the last:

18 I am he that liveth, b and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys c of hell and of death.

19 Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter;

20 The mystery of the seven f stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks i which thou sawest, are the seven churches.

CHAP. II.

UNTO the angel of the church of Ephesus write; These things saith he that n holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks;

2 I know q thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: i and thou hast tried t them which say they are apostles, and are not, u and hast found them liars:

3 And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted. y

4 Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen; and repent, and do the first works; c or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove d thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitanes, e which I also hate.

7 He h that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree i of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

8 And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things saith the first m and the last, which was dead, and is alive;

9 I know thy works and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich s) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, t and are not, but are the synagogue v of Satan.

10 Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried: and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful x unto death, and I will give thee a crown y of life.

11 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches: He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second d death.

12 And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write; These things saith d he which hath the sharp sword with two edges; z

13 I know a thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied d my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who g taught Balac to cast a stumbling-block before the children of Israel, to eat i things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication. h

15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, which thing i I hate.

16 Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and n will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 He o that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden s manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new u name written, which no man knoweth to saving he that receiveth it.

18 And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira write; These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes y like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass;

19 I a know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first.

20 Notwithstanding, I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, d which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat g things sacrificed unto idols.

21 And I gave her space h to repent of her fornication; and she repented not. i 22 Behold, I a will cast her into a bed, them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

23 And I will kill l her children with death; and all the churches n shall know that i o am he which searcheth the reins and hearts; and I p will give unto every one of you according to your works.

24 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths r of Satan, as they speak; I will put upon you none other burden.

25 But that s which ye have already hold fast till I come.

26 And he that overcometh, u and keepeth my works v unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:

27 And w he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I y received of my Father.

28 And I will give him the morning star. z

29 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAP. III.

AND unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven b Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know d thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, e and art dead.

2 Be watchful, and strengthen g the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect b before God.

3 Remember c therefore how thou hast received and heard; and hold fast, and repent. e If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, f and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 Thou hast a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: h for they are worthy.

5 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the l book of life, but I will confess m his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, p he that is true, q he that hath the key r of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, t and no man openeth;

8 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open x door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

9 Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say z they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come b and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, c also will I keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.

11 Behold, I come e quickly: f hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

12 Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God; and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is New m Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.

13 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

14 And unto the angel of the church ¹ of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, q the faithful and true Witness, the beginning of the creation of God:

15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would t thou wert cold or hot.

16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.

17 Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:

18 I counsel thee to buy a of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; & white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness c do not appear; & anoint thine eyes with eye-salve, that thou mayest see.

19 As f many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.

20 Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: h if i any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

21 To him that overcometh a will I grant to sit c with me in n y throne, even as I also overcame, d and am set down with my Father in his throne.

22 He f that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAF. IV.

AFTER this I looked, and behold, a a door was opened in heaven; and the first voice a which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come k up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.

2 And immediately I was in m the Spirit: and, behold, a throne o was set in heaven, and one sat p on the throne.

3 And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine-stone: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.

4 And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: u and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white v raiment; and they had on their heads crowns w of gold.

5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings y and thunderings and voices: and there were seven lamps z of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits b of God.

6 And before the throne there was a sea c of glass like unto crystal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four e beasts, full of eyes before and behind.

7 And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

8 And the four beasts had each of them six h wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.

9 And when those beasts give glory, and honour, and thanks to him that sat on the throne, who k liveth for ever and ever,

10 The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns n before the throne, saying,

11 Thou art worthy, o O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: p for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

CHAF. V.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book q written within and on the back side, r sealed with seven seals.

2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

3 And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion t of the tribe of Juda, the Root u of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.

6 And I beheld, and lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb, b as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, e which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.

7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the book, the four g beasts and four and twenty elders, fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, i and golden vials full of i odours, which are the prayers l of saints.

9 And they sung a new n song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood, q out of every r kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;

10 And hast made us unto our God kings s and priests: and we shall t reign on the earth.

11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the x number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;

12 Saying with a loud voice, Worthy a is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

13 And d every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, f and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.

14 And g the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

CHAF. VI.

AND I saw when the Lamb opened A one of the seals; i and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts, saying, Come and see.

2 And I saw, and behold a white l horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, m and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo, a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, a Measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou s hurt not the oil and the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and behold a pale horse; and his name that sat on him was Death, and hell followed with him: And power was given u unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill v with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar c the souls d of them that were slain: for f the word of God, and for the testimony which they held:

10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge k our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And white l robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest n yet for a little season, until o their fellow-servants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; p and the sun q became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;

13 And the stars r of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig-tree casteth her untimely s figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind:

14 And the heaven t departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain u and island were moved out of their places:

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every freeman, hid themselves b in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

16 And said d to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

17 For f the great day of his wrath is come; and who g shall be able to stand?

CHAP. VII.

AND after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds k of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal n of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Saying, Hurt p not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have q sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads. r

4 And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed an hundred and forty and four u thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Nephthalim were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelve thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelve thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed b with white robes, and palms c in their hands;

10 And cried g with a loud voice, saying, Salvation h to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

11 And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, 12 Saying, m Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, s and have washed t their robes, and made them white in the blood u of the Lamb.

15 Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell x among them.

16 They shall hunger y no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. z

17 For the Lamb, which is in the midst of the throne, shall a feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe c away all tears from their eyes.

CHAP. VIII.

AND when he had opened the seventh seal, e there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

2 And I saw the seven angels which stood h before God; and to them were given seven trumpets. i

3 And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should o offer it with the l prayers of all saints upon the golden m altar which was before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the incense, o which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand.

5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast s it into a the earth: and s there were voices and thunders, and lightnings, and an earthquake. t

6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves v to sound.

7 The first angel sounded, and v the followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, a as it were a great mountain x was burnt with fire was cast into the sea: y and the third part of the sea became blood: z

9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had l died: and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, there fell a a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon

Mountains of waters :

11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood : c and the third part of the waters d became wormwood ; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun f was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars ; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

13 And I beheld, and heard an angel flying g through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabitants of the earth, by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound.

CHAP. IX.

AND the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star m fall from heaven unto the earth : and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit. n

2 And he opened the bottomless pit ; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace ; and the sun and the air were darkened p by reason of the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke locusts r upon the earth : and unto them was given power, as the scorpions t of the earth have power.

4 And it was commanded them u that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree ; but only those men which have not the seal v of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, out that they should be tormented five months : and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

6 And in those days shall men y seek death, and shall not find it ; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And the shapes a of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle ; and on their heads were as it were c crowns like gold, and their faces d were as the faces of men.

8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth f were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron ; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of h chariots of many horses running to battle.

10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails : and l their power was to hurt men five months.

11 And they had a king m over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name ¹ Apollyon.

12 One o woe is past ; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates. p

15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared q for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third r part of men.

16 And the number of the army s of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand : a and I heard b the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, & brimstone : & the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions : e and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone.

18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails : for their tails a were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues, yet i repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, h and idols l of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood : which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk :

21 Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, o nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

CHAP. X.

AND I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud ; and a rainbow q was upon his head, and his face s was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire :

2 And he had in his hand a little book open : and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth,

3 And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth : and when he had cried, seven thunders w uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Seal x up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth z lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And sware by him b that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, e That there should be time no longer :

7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh g angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery i of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

8 And the voice k which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, n and eat it up ; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up ; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey : and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

CHAP. XL

AND there was given me a reed q like unto a rod : and the angel stood, saying, Rise, & measure t the temple of God, and the altar, & them that worship therein.

2 But the court a which is without the temple ¹ leave out, and measure it not; for c it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under e foot forty and two months.

3 And I will ³ give power unto my f two witnesses, h and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth. k

4 These are the two l olive-trees, and the two candlesticks m standing before the God of the earth.

5 And if any man will hurt them, o fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed. q

6 These r have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophesy: and have power over waters s to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast t that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make w war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street y of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom z and Egypt, a where also our Lord was crucified.

9 And they of the people, and kindreds, and tongues, and nations, shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves. d

10 And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwell on the earth.

11 And after three days and an half the Spirit g of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them.

12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud; h and their enemies i beheld them.

13 And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city o fell, and in the earthquake were slain ⁴ of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave q glory to the God of heaven.

14 The second r woe is past; and, behold, the third woe cometh quickly.

15 And the seventh s angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms u of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; & he v shall reign for ever & ever.

16 And the four and twenty w elders which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God,

17 Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which y art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned. z

18 And the nations were angry, a and thy wrath is come, and the time b of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldst give reward d unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small e and great; and shouldst destroy them which ⁵ destroy the earth.

19 And the temple f of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament: and there were lightnings, b and voices, and thunders, and an earthquake, d and great hail.

CHAP. XII.

AND there appeared a great ² wonder in heaven; a woman g clothed with the sun, i and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars: e

2 And she being with child, cried, travelling in birth, and pained to be delivered.

3 And there appeared another ² wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, n having seven heads, and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads.

4 And his tail p drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

5 And t she brought forth a man child, who u was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there z a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

7 And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,

8 And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.

9 And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, b called the Devil, c and Satan, e which deceiveth the whole world; he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now f is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 And they overcame h him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives i unto the death.

12 Therefore m rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe n to the inhabitants of the earth, and of the sea: for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because p he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child.

14 And to the woman were given two wings t of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood, x after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, c and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

CHAP. XIII.

AND I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast g rise up out of the sea, having a seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the ¹ name of blasphemy.

2 And the beast which I saw was d like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon f gave him his power, and his seat, h and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his heads, as it were wounded ² to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered h after the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who n is able to make war with him?

5 And there was given unto him a mouth q speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to ⁴ continue forty a and two months.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name and his tabernacle, u and them that v dwell in heaven.

7 And it was given unto him to make war x with the saints, and to overcome them: and power y was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

8 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book a of life of the Lamb slain from b the foundation of the world.

9 If any man have an ear, let him hear. 10 He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he c that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience f and the faith of the saints.

11 And I beheld another h beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.

12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. l

13 And he doeth great wonders, n so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men,

14 And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the p wound by a sword, and did live.

15 And he had power to give ⁶ life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship r the image of the beast should be killed.

16 And he caused all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive ⁷ a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number u of his name.

18 Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is six hundred threescore and six.

CHAP. XIV.

AND I looked, and, lo, a Lamb v stood on the mount Sion, & with him an hundred forty and four thousand, w having his Father's name y written in their foreheads.

the voice b of many waters, & as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers c harping with their harps:

3 And they sung as it were a new e song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the g hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

4 These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. i These are they which follow l the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were ³ redeemed from among men, being the first-fruits m unto God and to the Lamb.

5 And in their mouth was found no guile: o for they are without p fault before the throne of God.

6 And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the r everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every t nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,

7 Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for w the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

8 And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon z is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If d any man worship the beast and his image, and receive h his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

10 The same shall drink g of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire i and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

11 And the smoke k of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest m day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

12 Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die o in the Lord ⁶ from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

14 And I looked, & behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like q unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust s in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap: for the harvest t of the earth is ⁸ ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire: and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, x Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great wine-press of the wrath of God.

20 And the wine-press was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the wine-press, even unto the horse-bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

CHAP. XV.

AND I saw another sign in heaven, a great and marvellous, seven angels having the seven last plagues: for in them is filled up the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were a sea of glass mixed with fire; and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God.

3 And they sing the song of Moses thy servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty: just and true are thy ways, O thou King of saints.

4 Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and behold, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:

6 And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials, full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever.

8 And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

CHAP. XVI.

AND I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea.

4 And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus.

6 For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgments.

8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun, and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.

9 And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues:

and a they repented not, to give him glory.

10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain,

11 And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.

12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

13 And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.

15 Behold, I come as a thief. A Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

16 And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon.

17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done.

18 And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.

19 And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

20 And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

21 And there fell upon men a great hail of fire out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

CHAP. XVII.

AND there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore which sitteth upon many waters:

2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the Spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet-coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

4 And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones, and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication.

5 And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, A BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS, AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, b and of the beast c that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend e out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition, g and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, i whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads k are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth,

10 And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

12 And the o ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

13 These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

14 These shall make war p with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall q overcome them: for he is Lord r of lords, and King of kings: and they t that are with him are called, u and chosen, v and faithful. w

15 And he saith unto me, The x waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, y and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these z shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, a and shall eat her flesh, and b burn her with fire.

17 For God d hath put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled. e

18 And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, g which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

CHAP. XVIII.

AND after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory. k

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon l the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become m the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean & hateful bird.

3 For all nations have drunk o of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the q merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance r of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out s of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

5 For her sins have reached t unto heaven, and God hath remembered u her iniquities.

6 Reward her w even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled, fill to her double.

7 How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her; for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly d burned with fire: for strong f is the Lord God who judgeth her.

9 And the kings h of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour i is thy judgment come.

11 And the merchants m of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more:

12 The merchandise of gold, n and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all t thyne wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,

17 For in one hour so great riches are come to nought. And every ship-master, and all the company in ships, f and sailors, and as many u as trade by sea stood afar off,

18 And cried! when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What h city is like unto this great city!

19 And they cast dust i on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.

20 Rejoice n over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged p you on her.

21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus r with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

22 And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone v shall be heard no more at all in thee.

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom x and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants y were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries e were all nations deceived.

24 And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain b upon the earth.

CHAP. XIX.

AND after these things I heard a great voice d of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia; f Salvation, g and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God:

2 For true h and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged i the blood of his servants at her hand.

3 And again they said, Alleluia. And her smoke m rose up for ever and ever.

4 And the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen; Alleluia.

5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise p our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great.

6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying; Alleluia; for t the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

7 Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage u of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready. x

8 And to her was granted that she should be arrayed z in fine linen, clean and 1 white: for the fine linen is the righteousness a of saints.

9 And he saith unto me, Write, b blessed are they which are called unto the marriage-supper d of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These e are the true sayings of God.

10 And f I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus i is the spirit of prophecy.

11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white k horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful l and True, and in righteousness m he doth judge and make war;

12 His n eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; o and he had a name r written, that no man knew but he himself.

13 And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The t Word of God.

14 And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed u in fine linen, white and clean.

15 And out of his mouth v goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod x of iron; and he y treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

16 And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING a OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come d and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;

18 That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war c against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.

20 And the beast e was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake h of fire burning with brimstone.

21 And the remnant were slain with the sword i of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth, and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.

CHAP. XX.

AND I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key o of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold on the dragon, q that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound r him a thousand years,

3 And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal s upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season.

4 And I saw thrones, v and they sat upon them, and judgment w was given unto them: and I saw the souls y of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned c with Christ a thousand years.

5 But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death h hath no power, but they shall be priests h of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison,

8 And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog p and Magog, to q gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

9 And s they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.

10 And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake w of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth z and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place or them.

12 And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God: and the books b were opened: and another book c was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according e to their works.

13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death d and hell delivered up the dead which were in them; and they were judged every man according to their works.

14 And death a and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

15 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire. c

CHAP. XXI.

AND I saw a new d heaven and a new A earth: for the first heaven, and the first earth were passed away, and there was no more sea.

2 And I John saw the holy city, e new Jerusalem, coming down from God, out of heaven, prepared as a f bride g adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold, the tabernacle h of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, i and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

4 And God shall wipe away all k tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, m neither sorrow, n nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

5 And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write; for these words are true and faithful.

6 And he said unto me, It s is done. t I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is u athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.

7 He that overcometh shall inherit 2 all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

8 But the fearful, w and unbelieving, x and the abominable, z and murderers, a and whoremongers, b and sorcerers, c and idolaters, d and all liars, e shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

9 And there came unto me one of the seven h angels which had the seven vials. All of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife. k

10 And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, n the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,

11 Having the glory p of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal;

12 And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, t and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel:

13 On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and x in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me had a golden reed z to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lieth four-square, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper; and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19 And the foundations b of the wall of of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald;

20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysopterus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

22 And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

23 And the city had no need of the sun, l neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light o thereof.

24 And the nations p of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings q of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

25 And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for r there shall be no night there.

26 And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

27 And v there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book y of life.

CHAP. XXII.

AND he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.

2 In f the midst of the street g of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree i of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

3 And there l shall be no more curse: but the throne of God m and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants o shall serve him.

4 And q they shall see his face; and his name r shall be in their foreheads.

5 And s there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: u and they shall reign v for ever and ever.

6 And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true; and the Lord God of the holy prophets sent w his angel to shew unto his servant the things which must shortly be done.

7 Behold, I come quickly: y blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.

8 And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel, which shewed me these things.

9 Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.

10 And he saith unto me, Seal not b the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand.

11 He e that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, g let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 And behold, I come quickly; h and my reward is with me, to give every man according to h as his work shall be.

13 I i am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

14 Blessed m are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.

15 For without o are dogs, p and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a je.

17 And the Spirit and the bride c say, Come. d And let him that heareth say, Come. And f let him that is athirst come: and whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

18 For I testify unto every man that beareth the words of the prophecy of this book, if any man shall add i unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book:

It is a fact that the medical profession has been the subject of much criticism and attack in recent years. This is due to many causes, but one of the most important is the fact that the public has become more educated and more critical than in the past. They are no longer willing to accept the word of the doctor without question. They want to know the reasons for his actions, and they want to be able to judge for themselves. This is a good thing, for it is the only way to prevent the kind of abuses that have so often occurred in the past. But it also means that the doctor must be able to stand up to the public and to explain his actions in a clear and honest way. This is a difficult task, but it is one that must be met if the medical profession is to maintain its position of respect and authority.

The medical profession has always been a part of the community, and it has always been subject to the same criticisms and attacks that have been directed at other professions. But the medical profession has always been able to stand up to these criticisms and to prove its worth. It has always been able to show that it is a profession that is dedicated to the service of the community, and that it is one that is governed by the highest principles of ethics and morality. It has always been able to show that it is a profession that is committed to the improvement of the human condition, and that it is one that is willing to sacrifice everything for the good of its patients. This is the only way to maintain the trust and confidence of the public, and it is the only way to ensure the success of the medical profession.
